

Announcements

For Sheriff.

After due consideration and at the request of my democratic friends from every precinct in the county, I hereby announce myself a candidate for sheriff, subject to the action of the democratic primaries to be held at an unknown date hereafter. Will say for myself that I have been voting and working for the democratic party for 21 years and have never missed a single election, nor have I asked for a county office. If my democratic friends think me worthy of the position and nominate me their next Sheriff will be a democrat. I can win over any republican in the county and have no preference as to whom they nominate. Respectfully yours,

T. W. WHITMIRE.

The many friends of F. E. Shuford take pleasure in announcing that he is a candidate for Sheriff of Transylvania county, subject to the action of the Democratic Primaries and county convention.

For Register of Deeds.

The many friends of N. A. Miller wish to announce him as a candidate for the office of Register of Deeds for Transylvania county, subject to the action of the democratic primaries and county convention.

MANY VOTERS.

Thanking my many friends for their confidence and support in the past, I take this means of announcing that I will be a candidate for renomination at the democratic primaries and county convention for the office of Register of Deeds. If elected I shall strive to serve the people faithfully. Very truly your servant,

B. A. GILLESPIE.

Clerk Superior Court.

Democrats from every precinct in the county have been in consultation with the writers of this announcement and say that T. T. Loftis must accept the nomination to succeed himself in the office of Clerk of the Superior Court. Mr. Loftis, as he has said before, will not ask for the nomination, but has said that if the democratic voters of the county nominate him he will accept and win the race. Now listen—if you had a good, well tried and competent man on your farm or in your store would you like to change him for a new one? Why not the same rule apply to one serving the people at large?—Many Democrats.

In response to the urgent solicitation of his many friends in all sections of Transylvania county, we are authorized to announce that Cos. Paxton will be a candidate for the office of Clerk of Transylvania Superior Court, subject to the action of the Township Democratic Primaries and county convention. Respectfully submitted by

MANY CITIZENS.

For Representative

The name of Hon. Thos. S. Wood will be before the democratic primaries to be held at a date to be decided hereafter. Mr. Wood will be of great strength to the ticket, and if nominated to the House of Representatives he will accept and win the fight by a large majority. Vote for him at the primaries. Respectfully yours,

MANY DEMOCRATS.

For County Treasurer.

I take this method of announcing that I will be a candidate for re-election to the office of County Treasurer, subject to the action of the Democratic convention for Transylvania county. If the people see fit to nominate and elect me, I shall endeavor to serve the public faithfully and efficiently. I desire to express my gratitude to the people for past favors.

Z. W. NICHOLS.

For Solicitor.

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the office of Solicitor of this, the 15th, Judicial District subject to the action of the Democratic convention. If nominated I shall use every honorable effort to redeem the district and place it in the Democratic ranks, and if elected I shall give my best ability to the discharge of the duties of the office. If, however, some other Democratic aspirant is successful in securing the nomination I shall support him loyally and earnestly.

ROBERT R. REYNOLDS.

NAMING OUR FARMS AND HOMES.

It is surprising how few of our farms and homes are named yet it is a feature of attractiveness that could easily be taken advantage of since there is no consideration of cost involved in it. A name for our home or farm gives it a special individuality. Our horses, cows, dogs and other stock very often have their names and it is proper that they should, but the farm or house for a generation or more may simply be called the Jones place or Smith farm according to the title of the present or past owner who happened to impress his individuality on the community. There is such a wide field of choice in naming the farm or house that it would seem that any one could be suited although the name should carry some special fitness as to the locality or surroundings. Woods, trees, mountains, hills, lawns or fields or even the birds might be involved in the name. For the benefit of those who might wish to select a name we suggest a few of the many that could be selected. Oakwood, Edgewood, Beachwood, The Oaks, The Maples, The poplars, Chestnut Hill, The Pines, Deep Springs, Rock Springs, Crystal Springs, Lakewood, Lake View, River View, Rose Lawn, Hillcrest, Sunny Slope, Clover Mead, Robbins Rest, Idlewild, etc. Nearly all large land owners or men of wealth name their homes or farms as the case may be and all who own homes might well follow their example in this respect. An appropriate name for a place will add a charm to it not to be attained in any other way. If we select a name for our place characteristic of it we will often take more interest in it and endeavor to make the surroundings in keeping with the name.

WORLD'S SUNDAY SCHOOL DAY

Sunday, May 22, is to be observed as "World's Sunday School Day." It is desired that on that day every pastor in the state shall preach a Sermon, emphasizing the claims of the Sunday school, and in his prayers especially remember the "World's Sunday School Convention," which at that time will be in session in the city of Washington, D. C.

That every Sunday school use an opening exercise, the "Order of service" prepared for that day; that each school may form a link in the chain of services which will encircle the globe on May 22. Copies of service to be used can be secured from Sunday School Times Co., 1031 Walnut street, Philadelphia, Penn.

Lion Fondles a Child.

In Pittsburg a savage lion fondled the hand that a child thrust into his cage. Danger to a child is sometimes great when least regarded. Often it comes through colds, croup and whooping cough. They slay thousands that Dr. King's New Discovery could have saved. "A few doses cured our baby of a very bad case of croup," writes Mrs. George B. Davis, of Flat Rock, N. C. "We always give it to him when he takes cold. It is a wonderful medicine for babies." Best for coughs, colds, la-grippe, asthma, hemorrhages, weak lungs. 50c, $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Allison & Macfie.

Real Live Washington Gossip.

Special Washington correspondent of News The Democrats, assisted by a handful of fighting progressive Republicans, have forced a Republican administration to abandon some of the worst of the corporation-serving clauses placed in the railroad regulation bill by Attorney General Wickersham.

Wickersham framed this bill after a conference with six railroad presidents. Wall street knew long before the public appearance of the bill that it would be so drawn as to annul that feature of the Sherman anti-trust law which prevents mergers. Railroad interests bought and sold stock on the strength of their advance information. It is not plain as yet who supplied Wall street with information as to the kind of a bill Wickersham would draft.

Had the bill become a law as prepared by the attorney general it would have practically destroyed all that has been accomplished in the last twenty years to give the government some measure of control over the railroads of the country.

No attorney general of the United States has ever been revealed in just the position Mr. Wickersham now occupies.

Instead of having drawn a bill that would tend to place greater safe guards about the rights of the people, as might naturally be expected from a public officer who is receiving a salary on the assumption that his office is giving such protection to the people, Wickersham has been charged on the floor of the Senate with having attempted to take from the masses even such inadequate safeguards as they now enjoy, while at the same time giving the corporate interests the right to merge and do other things that the Sherman law has forbidden them from doing.

At the time of Wickersham's appointment it was averred that he had been selected by President Taft in deference to the wishes of the corporations of the country, who had spent money and coerced workmen to vote the republican ticket, and who demanded as compensation for this service the privilege of naming the attorney general.

The feverish interest of special privilege in this office may be realized at full value when it is understood that the attorney general is in absolute charge of the prosecuting machinery of the government.

Whether Wickersham's appointment really was the result of a pre-election arrangement or not, the trusts have had no occasion to be dissatisfied with the President's selection. Whenever the rights of the people and special privilege come into conflict, Mr. Wickersham decides favorably to the corporate interests and against the people. Some assert that Mr. Wickersham leans toward the corporations because of his temperament, and others attribute his attitude to force of habit, he having long been a corporation lawyer in New York. Whatever the reason, the records of the Attorney General's office show that Wickersham's opinions are invariably favorable to the big campaign fund contributing corporations.
