The present issue of the News ends the first half of the year 1910. There are a few subscribers on our books whose time expires this week, and they have made no arrangements to continue. The postal laws do not permit us to send out papers without a contract. Look at the label on your paper—if it says "7-1" that means you, and you may not get another copy until you see us.

Every new street, which has been "laid out" in Brevard by private parties is diagonal. Why not the Town take a hand and lay out streets where they should be? Also, why shouldn't the Town name the streets—why wait for private interests to close up our thoroughfares because they can't agree on a name? In the laying out of these necessary conveniences it should be borne in mind that all "streets" should run parallel, while the driveways which cross them should be "avenues." Brevard is growing—why not locate new streets and continue the present lay out so that lots can be sold and located? Let's begin right—we have only a few to contend with now—there will be more later.

The Glorious 4th

For years this paper has been advocating a celebration of the fourth. Now we are glad to say there is a movement on foot to have a big time on that day this year. This was set in motion by the Woodmen of the World, and their effort deserves high praise. They are taking steps to celebrate in good old style, and we hope they will make it so attractive as to draw the crowds here, instead of letting them go elsewhere. Read their letter of invitation in this issue.

CELEBRATION FOR THE FOURTH.

Balsam Camp No. 116, Woodmen of the World, will have a picnic and general entertainment on July 4th at Brevard. We want every man, woman and child in Transylvania county to come to Brevard on the above date. There will be music, speaking, baseball, dinner—yes! and lemonade also. Arrange your business so it will be convenient to spend the 4th with the Woodmen; they will be glad to see you and will try to make it a day of pleasure for you. Look out for next week's Sylvan Valley News and be sure to read it.

A WORD TO THE BOYS.

As a matter-of-course I am expecting your support in your township primary Saturday evening, and as the result of that support, the nomination for Clerk of the Court in the county convention. However, should I not get your support Saturday and should fail to get the nomination for Clerk, as aforesaid, you are hereby authorized to tell your friends and neighbors (should they inquire) that my "kicking end" is still turned down, and that I will be right there, "jolly on the spot," ready to help do the kicking, if any is necessary, to elect the man who is nominated. Come on, boys.

Yours for Democratic success,
M. W. GALLOWAY.

"It cured me," or "It saved the life of my child," are the expressions you hear every day about Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. This is true the world over where this valuable remedy has been introduced. No other medicine in use for diarrhoea or bowel complaints has received such general approval. The secret of the success of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is that it cures. Sold by all dealers.

FOR PARTY HARMONY

Editor Sylvan Valley News.

Please remind your readers that democratic primaries (or precinct meetings) will be held in every precinct of your county on next Saturday, June 25th, and urge all democrats to attend the same. The selection of a candidate for Congress is the most important service to be executed by members of our party in the tenth district at this time. Every democrat should therefore enter into the spirit of a really friendly contest, with the determined purpose of assisting in the selection of the strongest available man to lead this fight, without regard to personal ties or political trades. Petty local differences have no place in a democratic primary, and the democracy of the district is to be congratulated upon the absence of strife and bitterness among the friends of the numerous aspirants, for congressional honors. "Let brotherly love continue."

Five estimable gentlemen are seeking the nomination for Congress and each has enthusiastic supporters. Only one can be nominated and we must not lose sight of the fact that the support of the disappointed ones—and their friends—is necessary to success in the general conflict with our old enemy, the republican party. Let us, therefore, exercise the utmost precaution in conducting our primaries and county conventions, taking for our chart the democratic plan of organization, which is the party law. Democratic committees, poll-holders and other workers in each precinct should eliminate any semblance of unfairness that may be called to their attention, according to all aspirants the full strength to which they are entitled.

We do not want to become involved in the settlement of prior differences at the convention, or after its work has been completed. When our candidate has been named we should be able to go forth, with a united front, conquering and to conquer.

As district chairman, it becomes my duty to see that the party law is respected and this I shall undertake to do, without fear or favor, should evidences appear of disregard for its provisions. Democracy signifies a rule of the people, and their wishes should be ascertained and respected in all matters pertaining to party affairs. Spirited rivalry in contests for nominations is not unusual, nor is the temptation to "side-step" in conducting local conventions. But every democrat should consider the success of his party paramount to the nomination of any particular individual. These suggestions are not prompted by any evidence of impending trouble, but for the purpose of reminding democrats that a condition confronts them which must be handled with the view to party success, rather than personal aggrandizement.

Believing the strongest man will be nominated, and that we shall win this fight, I am,

Very respectfully,
M. L. SHIPMAN, Chairman.

This Bank and Your Success

Many men have started in business with a capital only of ability, hard work, honesty and a good reputation. It is no uncommon thing for men thus handicapped to win out and make a success in their undertakings. You probably know of several such instances.

An important factor to their success, in almost every instance, you will find, was their bank account. Their bank deposits may not have been large, but their connection with the bank, coupled with their energy, honesty and character, was the basis of the credit they were able to establish, and through credit, success was possible.

If you are starting out for yourself without capital, by all means have a bank account with this bank. It will be a help to you in many ways.

WHITE STAR BUGGY

A MAN in South Georgia recently loaded a big bale of cotton on a WHITE STAR BUGGY and drove to town over a rough country road with no apparent injury to the vehicle. Pretty good test, eh? We think so. Our enterprising agent thought so much of the feat that he had a photograph taken of the buggy just as it drove into the warehouse.
