BREVARD, N. C.

WHAT BREVARD NEEDS.

The one thing that this town needs above everything else is a cemetery. Visitors on coming here remark that they find no cemetery. Why can't some of our enterprising real estate dealers buy a suitable tract of land sufficiently near town and suitably located, divide into lots and sell them to our people? They would realize handsomely on their investment. The people would gladly buy them, and thus contribute to beautifying our town, and at the same time provide a resting place for their beloved dead. Civilized people in all ages have been noted for the care they have taken of their dead.

Will not the good women of the town take this matter up, and never let it rest until we have a cemetery worthy of our town? Who will be the first to suggest a location?

WM. TODD VAUDEVILLE CO

The above company has been giving our people nightly entertainments this week and seems to have given entire satisfaction. While the company is not large in numbers, it has some real "live wires" in its make-up. We have seldom seen on any stage a better slack wire and trapeze performer than Mr. Todd, and there is a black-faced comedian who is a real artist in his role. The lady song and dance artist is a good entertainer; the trained dogs and monkey manage to bring down the house, and the moving pictures are a source of never wearying merriment. The company has its own tent, electric light plant etc., the performers and attaches are gentlemanly in their deportment, and we have heard only words of praise for the show at the low price of admission—10 cents for everybody. Their tent has been filled every night since they opened here last Monday.

Struck A Rich Mine.

S. W. Bends of Coal City, Ala. says he struck a perfect mine of health in Dr. King's new life pills for they cured him of liver and kidney trouble after 12 years of suffering. They are the best pills on earth for constipation, malaria, headache, dyspepsia, debility. 25c at Allison & Macfie's.

OXFORD SINGING CLASS

The Singing Class from the Oxford Orphan Asylum will give its concert at the Graded School building on Monday night, Aug. 29, 1910, at 8:30 o'clock. Those who have had the pleasure of hearing this class of orphan children heretofore know that a treat is in store for all who attend.

Let us encourage them with our presence. Brevard has always given them a splendid audience. Let us do so again.

JUDGE E. M. ALLISON

In the selection of E. M. Allison to preside over the county court, the people have made no mistake. He knows the law, is just in his decisions and at all times a high-tone gentleman. He came to Wise county in 1886, hailing from Transylvania county, North Carolina, where he read law and was licensed to practice the profession. Since coming to this county he has devoted his time to farming and other business interests. He served two terms as justice of the peace of this precinct, and his record in this office stands out bright and bold as one of which we are proud. Judge Allison's friends are legion in this county; they know him to be "pure gold" in honor and integrity, possessing a brilliant brain and in his every day life he stands for all those things that tend toward a prosperous and happy condition of the people.—Wise County Messenger, Decatur, Texas, Aug. 5.

P. M. FOWLER.

The railroad fight is now over and the battle is won for progress and prosperity. Now it is the duty of Brevard to get ready for the growth which will certainly be hers if she makes use of her opportunities. We need and must have streets—no man will buy a lot in any town unless it is located on some street. How can our people expect to interest would-be home builders unless we can show them quarter acre or half acre lots with street boundaries? The door of opportunity is wide open—will our town accept the prosperity now in sight?

All legal advertisements must be paid for in advance, otherwise we cannot run them. Do not forget this, or we may FORGET to publish same.—Franklin Press.

This policy of advance payment for legal ads should be the policy of every newspaper in the state. North Carolina has no legal, uniform rate for advertising, and there is little or no provision made for collecting the charges agreed upon. No lawyer should undertake any litigation until the costs are provided for.

D. L. English, esq., who aspired to the position of prosecuting attorney on the republican ticket, met his Waterloo at the judicial convention in Asheville last week. Well, he has at least made his party take notice that there is a Transylvania county on the map, and that it is hereafter to be reckoned with when the managers are "making their political slate."
