R. T. Harmon, for some time the express clerk at the Southern station, has resigned to accept the position of express messenger and baggage master on the road between Hendersonville and Lake Toxaway.

Dr. J. H. McLean was last week called to Pee Dee, S. C., on account of the serious illness of his son, Clay, who is an electrician at that place. The many friends of the young man will be glad to learn that he is recovering.

Capt. W. W. Ray, who for so long has been the conductor in charge of the passenger train on this division, has taken a run on the main line, his change being effective with the recent change in the schedule of the local trains. Mr. George Marshall succeeds him as the conductor on this line.

J. B. Stone and family, who for some time have made their home at Cedar Mountain, will in the near future move to Brevard to make their permanent residence. Mr. Stone will have charge of the Bishop store which was recently purchased by the Brevard Lumber Co., of which he is one of the members.

The deer season in Transylvania county opened under the present game law on the first day of November, which was Wednesday. Deer are reported very numerous in the mountains this year, and there have been a number of hunters out already after them. The bird law is out on the fifteenth. This applies to quail and other game birds.

Dr. G. S. Tenent, Owen Gudger, Allen Morrison and George H. Wright, all of Asheville, after spending a week hunting in the Richland and Transylvania Balsams, returned home last Saturday. They reported game very plentiful, pheasants, quail and squirrels being found in profusion, together with many signs of deer and bear.

Clerk of the Court Cos Paxton is this week engaged in preparing the record for the Supreme court in the case of E. H. Tuttle and others against E. A. Reid and others. The case involves the title to a tract of land on Thompson's river, in the upper end of the county. The cases from this county on appeal in the Supreme court will probably be reached the latter part of this month.

F. M. Jordan, at present connected with the North Carolina Department of Insurance, was in Brevard this week on official business. Mr. Jordan is a son of Rev. F. M. Jordan of this county, and has many friends here. He has been chief of police of Asheville, deputy sheriff of Buncombe county, more latterly police captain at Asheville, resigning from the latter position to accept the one he now holds with the state insurance department.
