NUMBER—12

FROM BROTHER JORDAN

Editor Sylvan Valley News:
I see in the last number of the Sylvan Valley News a clipping from the Polk County News. My friend seems to be horrified at my article on dancing; especially that I should place that amusement with adultery, fornication, uncleanness, murders, drunkenness, revellings and such like.

That is just where Paul puts it in Gal. 5:19-21. Dancing is revelling. The Polk County News says: "We have danced nearly all our life and have met hundreds on the ball room floor—the most refined and cultured women in the southland, and we've never heard of their going astray." He and all these women have been going astray all these years, and how far they are now from the path of virtue, morality and righteousness God only knows.

My friend says "that the writer is off his feed. We wager that he never had his head inside a ball room door, and it's a case of sour grapes." No; he never was inside a ball room, nor a theatre, never played a card, never swore an oath, never used tobacco in any way whatever, never drank a drop of brandy or whiskey, and married the first girl I courted. Have been a church member seventy years and have preached the gospel for sixty-two years nearly all over North Carolina and baptised 5,000 people.

So that I have done all these things under God, while my Polk county friend has been dancing and resting, for he says that he has been dancing nearly all his life; he must have had a little time to catch his wind. I wager that he is not a church member, or that if he is, he is of little or no account in the church, for I never knew a church member whose influence amounted to any good who was a dancer and ball room goer. The ungodly have no confidence in their religion—I have heard them say so. I will leave it to the good people of Polk county to testify as to the general character of "Polk County News."

LOCAL TAX ELECTIONS

On last Tuesday there were two elections held in Hogback township on the question of local school tax, one in school district No. 5 (Union school) and the other in district No. 3 (Montvale school). The election carried for the tax in the Union district but was voted down at Montvale.

The old school house at Montvale is not a satisfactory building, and they have no house at all at Union; so the board of education agreed to help each district in the building of a new house if they would vote the local tax to provide for better schools and help in providing the necessary school equipment.

By their vote the people of the Montvale section (with three exceptions) have said that they are satisfied with their present school facilities and therefore do not want any assistance from the board of education to provide anything better for their children than they now have. The people of Union, however, have expressed their desire for assistance to help them in needed improvements; so arrangements will be made at once to have a modern one room school house built for them. An effort will be made to have this house completed and ready for school next fall.

With the single exception of the Montvale section, Hogback now has a local tax for schools over the whole township.

CARD OF THANKS

We extend our sincere thanks to the people of Brevard and Transylvania county for their many acts of kindness and liberal support during our sojourn with you. Wishing each and everyone a bountiful share of this world's happiness and peace,
P. R. AYRES AND FAMILY.

MR. HANNAH'S RECORD

Editor Sylvan Valley News:
My very good friend, Mr. W. W. Zachary, in his recent article on the road law, says: "We have no . . . representative in the general assembly through whom we can get relief." Now in so far as the criticism applies to me personally I am consciously indifferent, but I wish to resent the intimation of unfairness, discourtesy and insincerity made against my friend, Senator W. J. Hannah, and in doing so wish to say that Mr. Hannah's course has not only been consistent, but admirably so. He has simply stood for the practical application of those high ideals of government which make paramount the rule of the people, and which principle of government so many of us loudly proclaim and softly practice. Mr. Hannah called on the nominal party leaders to get behind him with the people and go on open record with some well defined and constructive party policy. This they either could or would not do. There were some who seemed willing enough to advise him in a kind of impersonal way but were just a little bit shy about making an open and permanent record of the matter. And then I was fortified and reinforced with convincing and indisputable matter and facts in anticipation of certain contingencies which I had been informed would arise. Senator Hannah is a man of high ideals, absolute frankness, and fair to a marked degree, translating into practice the much declaimed but less observed principle of "equal rights to all and special privileges to none." He and I have often differed in opinion, but I always found him open to reason and desirous of obtaining the truth. Bigotry, narrow-mindedness and the little tricks of little politicians are no part or parcel of his nature. The people of our county should and will remember Senator Hannah with gratitude and kindness.

I killed the bond bill in the house, and amended the road bill so as to meet the wishes of the people as expressed in their meeting on December 14 last. Under this bill the commissioners appoint an overseer in each township until next election, when they will be elected by the voters in the several townships. They are under the supervision of the county commissioners and report to them.

This is the only reply I desire to make to Brother Zachary's article. The publication of his bill is the best answer to his communication. Au revoir. Respectfully,
CHAS. B. DEEVER.

BREVARD INSTITUTE

Miss Coville's pupils gave a recital Saturday night, which was very enjoyable.

Something new in the way of a program was introduced. Instead of giving the names of the selections a moral or phrase was substituted, and the audience requested to guess the name of the number played. A prize was awarded to the person who guessed the largest number of titles. Mrs. L. D. Thompson won the prize—a pretty picture. The pupils who took part were Misses Carter, Wells, Cline, Johnson, Beck, Brothers, Ferrell, Callahan, Martin, Palmer, Brindle, Moore, Josey and Roberts, and Messrs. Laintee, Macias and Douglas.

The last quarter of the school year is under way. A number of new pupils have registered, especially in the normal department, and every one is working hard.

The Misses Wardrop, teachers who came in for the normal, were suddenly called home by illness in the family, but we hope they will be able to return soon.

Quite a number are going home to spend Easter but will have only a short vacation, as no regular vacation is given at this time, school taking up again on Tuesday, March 25.

We have recently received a splendid box of linen, bedding, etc., from Washington, D. C. Our friends continue to remember us, for which our thanks are due.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

Whereas God in His allwise providence has taken from this world our dear brother, Eddie Eubank, and as he was a member of Connettee Lodge No. 237, I. O. O. F., be it resolved:

That we extend to his loved ones our sympathy and commend them to bow in humble submission to Him who doeth all things well.

That a copy of these resolutions be printed in the Sylvan Valley News, a copy be sent to his sisters, and a copy be spread on the minutes of this lodge.

W. J. PUETTE,
ED. GILLESPIE,
CHAS. JOLLAY,
Committee.

FROM BOILSTON

Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Mackey were visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Scruggs, last Sunday.

Rev. A. J. Manley filled his appointment at Boilston Saturday and Sunday.

Charlie Reese has built a nice porch to the front of his cottage which greatly improves its appearance.

David Holliday and Dudley Orr had a wreck Sunday while returning from church. Their buggy turned over a bank. Luckily no one was hurt except the horse.

With best wishes to the News I am yours truly,
ROSEBUD.

Buffalo Bill and Pawnee Bill's wild west show will be seen at the Auditorium next Tuesday. This picture will doubtless be one of the very best ever shown here.

Mr. T. Gilbert Wood, agent of the land and industrial department of the Southern Railway Company, will be at Brevard tomorrow (Saturday) for the purpose of assisting the farmers and other business men of Transylvania county in initial arrangements for a county fair to be held at Brevard next fall.

Appropriate Easter services will be observed at the Methodist church Sunday morning and evening. A free will offering to the Children's Home will be made. The evening service will consist very largely of Easter songs. The choir will render a choice selection of anthems. The public is cordially invited to be present at these services.

MR. AYRES GOING AWAY

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Ayres will learn with regret that they are soon to leave Brevard to make their home in Roanoke, Va. For the past several years they have made their home here and in that time have made many friends who will regret their departure. It is their plan to leave Brevard next Wednesday.

Mr. Ayres has sold his jewelry business to Mr. Frank D. Clement of Elizabeth City, N. C., and Mr. Clement and his family are expected to arrive in Brevard this week. Mr. Clement also takes over Mr. Ayres' interest in the Brevard Amusement Co.

A BIG DISPLAY

Deaver-Patton Co., of Pisgah Forest, are calling attention to the advertising section of this issue to their unusually large display of dry goods, clothing, notions, shoes, etc. In addition to their already large stock of goods they are this week opening up about five thousand dollars worth of new goods that Mr. John C. Deaver bought while in Baltimore recently.

Their line of tailor-made clothing makes one of the best displays ever brought to this county, and the ladies will certainly find much pleasure in making a visit to this store, for they have an unusually large display of dress goods, including the unpronounceable names for the latest style weaves. It's enough to make a man's head swim.

Read their advertisement on the last page of this issue and then call around and let them quote prices.
