LOCAL PARAGRAPHS.

Mrs. J. Norton is spending some time in Hendersonville.

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Yates returned last week from a two weeks visit through the north.

Mr. W. E. Breese, Jr., left Tuesday morning for Washington after a two weeks stay at home.

Miss May Buchanan returned Sunday from a two weeks visit to friends and relatives in Sylva.

The United Daughters of the Confederacy will meet in the chapter house Saturday afternoon at three o'clock.

Since the opening of the Brevard Club rooms there are fewer men to be seen loafing around the drug stores and street corners. There's a reason.

The first snow of the season came last Friday night, beginning Friday about three o'clock and lasting until about eleven, falling to a depth of about eight inches.

Mr. H. H. Penny, a former resident of Brevard, has accepted a position at Rosman and has moved his family to Brevard, taking the Cook cottage on Caldwell street.

Mr. J. A. Livingstone of Wilmington, N. C., formerly connected with the Brevard Institute, but now with the Wilmington Star, spent a few days with friends here this week.

The friends of Mrs. J. S. Silverstein will be glad to know that she is fast recovering from the serious operation she recently underwent. She hopes to be able to return home in about two weeks.

Balsam Grove No. 39, Woodmen Circle, has been organized by Deputy W. H. Grogan, Jr. Any lady wishing to join before the charter list is closed will please see Miss Lillie Price, clerk, or W. H. Grogan, Jr., Deputy.

Mr. O'Neal Cantrell killed a small shoat last week that weighed 738 pounds net. This pig was only eight feet long and measured seven feet around. Had he let it live awhile longer it is believed it would have made a full grown hog.

Mrs. W. A. Johnstone came up from Hendersonville Monday morning and stayed with friends until Tuesday afternoon. The condition of her mother remains practically unchanged and Mrs. Johnstone does not know when she will return to Brevard permanently.

Miss Meddie O. Hamilton, field secretary of the Chataqua Literary and Scientific Circles, will give a free lecture at the Brevard Graded School on Thursday, January 15th, under the auspices of the Brevard Wednesday Club. Miss Hamilton is a well known chautauqua lecturer, and all who attend this lecture will be well repaid for the time spent.

St. Phillips church, first Sunday after the Epiphany, January 11. Morning prayer and sermon at 11. Subject, "God in Youth and Age." Sunday school at 4 o'clock. Friday, January 9th, evensong with address at 5; subject, "The Epiphany." Lesson for the week: "Christ the Guide to Childhood." The collect: Consecration of mind and body to the service of God.

The members of the Brevard Club will be given a banquet by the officers tonight (Friday). The feast will be served in the large hall beginning at eight-thirty. At a meeting of the club Tuesday night it was decided to invite all the ministers of the town to attend this banquet, and also Col. S. H. Cohen and Mr. N. Buckner of the Asheville Board of Trade. All members of the club are invited to attend.

There will be an informal opening of the Brevard Club rooms on Friday night. The officers will furnish a banquet. Col. S. H. Cohen and Mr. N. Buckner of the Asheville Board of Trade have been invited to attend. It is possible that Capt. Henry E. Rains will be here.

Mrs. T. H. Thipman, Mrs. C. M. Doyle, Mrs. R. S. Morgan and Mrs. O. W. Godfrey gave a "progressive" dinner to about thirty guests Tuesday afternoon. The affair was quite unique and those present declare it to be the best of the season. The diners were served one course at the home of one of the hostesses and then marched to the next house for the next course, and so on.

The "Great Holiday and New Year Auction Sale" was a grand success. All the lots were sold but one. It was given away to the best shot present at the sale. D. L. English and A. M. Verdery were the winners, Mr. English shooting for Mr. Verdery and himself. His shot won lot No. 13, and Mr. English is now declared the best shot in the county, and carries with him the champion honors. It will not be long till another sale of this kind will be announced, and the Carolina Special Auction Company, who conducted the sale, wants to see the championship belt changed at least once every three months, and urges every one to get your guns and practice every day.

No Use For a Label.
Shopman (to undecided customer come to purchase a dog trough)—Would you like one with "Dog" painted on it, madam? Customer—N-no. You see, the dog can't read, and my husband doesn't drink water!—London Punch.

Delivering Groceries

That is our business. Trading Groceries for money. It is always our aim to see how much, not how little, we can give for the price. Constantly competing with ourselves, endeavoring to buy good goods at prices which will permit us to sell at lower prices than we have ever made before. There is always something doing here to serve our customers so they will be pleased and satisfied. Are you one of them?
