VOLUME—XIX

BREVARD, NORTH CAROLINA, FRIDAY, MAY 22, 1914.

NUMBER—21

GUDDER CARRIES COUNTY

The congressional and senatorial primary for Brevard township was held at the court house last Saturday afternoon, and as far as this township is concerned the voting resulted in a victory for Congressman Gudder for congress and Cos Paxton for senate. These two gentlemen also carried the county. According to precedent, Transylvania's choice for the state senate will be endorsed by the other counties in the district.

The meeting at the court house Saturday was called to order by W. M. Henry, county chairman, who announced the object of the meeting in a few well chosen words. R. L. Gash and Ora L. Jones were elected as secretaries. This organization was made permanent, and the meeting then took up the business before it.

On motion of R. L. Gash, duly seconded and unanimously carried, it was ordered that the entire strength of Brevard township be given to Michael Schank for solicitor, inasmuch as he had no opposition for the nomination.

The entire strength of the township was also given to Lee S. Overman for United States senate by virtue of a motion by T. L. Gash, duly seconded and carried.

On motions it was decided that voting in the primary be done by ballot, and that the boxes should remain open until six o'clock. Erwin Galloway was appointed registrar and John Morris and E. F. Gillespie were appointed judges for the primary.

On motion by W. E. Breese, Jr., the chair was authorized to appoint eleven delegates to the county convention, which meets in the court house Saturday, May 23rd, and the delegates so appointed to be instructed to vote the strength of the various candidates as resulted from the voting then about to follow. The chair appointed the following delegates to the county convention: W. E. Breese, Jr., T. W. Whitmore, J. L. Beil, C. C. Kilpatrick, W. H. Duckworth, Fred Johnson, R. L. Gash, T. H. Shipman, O. L. Erwin, Ora L. Jones and J. M. Kilpatrick.

On counting the votes after the polls had closed it was found that 123 loyal democrats had expressed their choice of candidates. This is a larger number than usually vote in primaries during an off-year. The following was the vote as cast:

For Senate: Paxton 105; Wood 84.

For Congress: Gudder 99; Reynolds 71; Merrimon 11; Moore 8; Harrison 4.

Although reports from the other voting places in the county were slow about coming in, as nearly as can be determined the following is the correct vote of the places heard from:

Board: Paxton 9; Wood 11. Reynolds 9; Gudder 13; Moore 1.

Cathys Creek: Paxton 33; Wood 7. Reynolds 5; Gudder 30; Merrimon 4; Moore 2.

Cedar Mountain: Paxton 3; Wood 3; Reynolds 4; Gudder 2.

Dunns Rock: Paxton 3; Wood 6. Reynolds 3; Gudder 6.

Eastatoe: Paxton 3; Wood 4. Reynolds 2; Gudder 4. Moore 1.

East Fork: Paxton 20; Wood 0. Reynolds 2; Gudder 14.

Hogback: Paxton 20; Wood 18. Reynolds 12; Gudder 25; Merrimon 1.

Rosman: Paxton 17; Wood 5. Reynolds 5; Gudder 18.

Most Prompt and Effectual Cure for Bad Colds.

When you have a bad cold you want a remedy that will not only give relief, but effect a prompt and permanent cure, a remedy that is pleasant to take, a remedy that contains nothing injurious. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy meets all these requirements. It acts on nature's plan, relieves the lungs, aids expectoration, opens the secretions and restores the system to a healthy condition. This remedy has a world wide sale and use, and can always be depended upon. Sold by S. M. Macfie. adv

STEALING A RIDE

Last Wednesday afternoon Sheriff Pickelsimer received a phone message from the sheriff of Greenville, S. C., telling him to look out for a man in a stolen auto, which had left Greenville the day before headed this way.

About 3 p. m. a white man and a negro passed down Main street in a high-backed Maxwell car on which there was no license tag and took, as later transpired, the road leading past Mr. T. H. Hampton's. The sheriff's party started in pursuit and met the negro coming back walking and arrested him. In a few minutes they met the white man, who was also returning in the car. Both were taken and locked up in jail.

The white man gave his name as Clarence Smith, and said that he lived in Greenville. He was travel-stained and disreputable looking, and his eyes had a wild glare, but his manner was calm and collected enough as he told his tale. He exonerated the negro, saying that he had picked him up in Greenville, and did not want him to suffer. Smith put the blame on himself and booze, which he says had made him crazy. The car, he said, had been loaned to him by J. M. Steele of Greenville to carry a man home, and after he had performed this mission, whiskey did the rest.

The negro gave his name as Tom Robinson, and rolling up his sleeve showed the letters T. J. R. as corroborating his statement. He professed to know nothing about the white man beyond his acquaintance on this exciting ride.

When Smith was in the neighborhood of Cedar Mountain on his ride, the much-driven Maxwell fell in need of repair. He phoned here to Mr. A. H. King for help, giving his name as West of Greenville. Mr. King sent the needed batteries and received a worthless check in payment. The transformation of Smith in Greenville to West at Cedar Mountain and back again to Smith behind the bars of the Brevard jail was worthy of comparison with Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde.

After notifying the sheriff of Greenville county of the capture of the runaway, Sheriff Pickelsimer received a message that the Greenville officer would come to Brevard on the train Thursday. He also stated that Smith was a noted crook and would need close watching.

FROM TURKEY CREEK

We are sorry to note that Mr. Vallie Brown's baby is dangerously ill with gastric fever and whooping cough.

Messrs. David and Thomas Sims, who have burned several kilns of lime during the winter just passed now have another kiln just out. It's a pity that the farmers of the country do not use more of the local product rather than ship it in.

Squire John S. Boogers had the misfortune to cripple his mare on the first of May on the Vauderbilt cross-laid road. Why don't the county take over that road or make the estate carry out its contract? The squire thanks his neighbors for coming in and planting his corn for him.

Mr. Willie Deaver took his two horse corn planter up Turkey Creek and planted Mr. David Hollingsworth's crop for him.

Most everyone is well up with their planting in this neighborhood. Mr. Delis Lyday had the misfortune to cripple his mule a few days ago.

Mr. William Lyday, who lost a part of his hand at the Pisgah Hardwood Co. plant a few weeks ago, we are glad to note, is rapidly improving.

We understand that eighteen of the twenty-six Hungarians who have been employed in the woods by Carr Lumber Co. have left for parts unknown.

Mary Martha, age two years, youngest child of Mr. and Mrs. S. V. Brown, died May 11th, at 12 m. Funeral was at Enon at 4 p. m. Tuesday.

MR. J. M. MORGAN

Editor Sylvan Valley News:

Please give me a small space in your paper that I may say some things in regard to the life and death of Brother J. M. Morgan.

J. M. Morgan died at his home near Cherryfield on Friday morning at 9:30 o'clock, April 3, 1914. Brother Morgan was sixty-three years nine months and seventeen days old and had lived the greater part of his life on his farm near Cherryfield, and after having reached mature age he was made to realize the need of living a higher and better life. He therefore gave his heart to God, united with the Mt. Moriah Baptist church and was Baptised by Rev. E. M. Jordan, remaining a member of his church till his death. He was for many years superintendent of his Sunday school and a regular attendant at church. Brother Morgan leaves behind but four children, one son and three daughters, to mourn their loss, his wife and four children having gone on before. Brother Morgan was a kind, sympathetic neighbor, ever ready to help in time of need, and that he had a host of friends was manifested at the funeral service by the large audience that attended the service.

The children desire to thank the neighbors and friends for their help and kindness during the illness and death of their father.

BOYLESTON NEWS

Crowded out last week.

Rev. J. R. Liner filled his regular appointment at Boyleston last Saturday and Sunday.

Rev. W. E. Taylor preached a very interesting sermon at Boyleston last Saturday night.

Mrs. Wiley Taylor spent a few days last week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. P. Orr, returning to her home Thursday.

Everett Thomas has completed his new home and moved into it.

BOBOLINK.

A BEAUTIFUL BOOKLET

The catalogue recently issued by the French Broad Summer Camp is a well-printed, carefully prepared booklet and will not only serve to place the claims of the promoters of the camp school before the public, but will also be of great advertising value to the town as well.

The booklet is profusely illustrated, containing a number of pictures never before shown, showing the beautiful location selected by Capt. H. E. Raines and his associates, together with a large number of river views at and near the camp site. In the preparation of the booklet, as in the building of the camp, no expense has been spared and the results will doubtless justify the action of the school men.

In the text matter the book tells in a clear-out business like way the many advantages offered by the French Broad Camp, explaining its purpose, what the camp is not and what the camp is. In describing the location of the camp the promoters recite the fact that they spent several months in looking over various states for the location, that they found ideal conditions here. The excellent hotel and railroad accommodations of Brevard are also fully set out, and a tribute to the local scenery, climate, etc., is made.

The booklet also tells of the splendid facilities furnished for boating, swimming, trapping, etc., giving an outline of the educational work, athletics, etc. Several pages are devoted to recommendations of the camp promoters from prominent educators, business men and others.

The booklet makes very interesting reading, and from reports from Charleston it is showing very gratifying results. A large number of applications and inquiries have already been received and more are coming in daily. We predict for the camp school a big success.

AUCTION SALE

On Monday of this week M. F. Brannon of Knoxville sold twenty-four Tennessee horses and mares at auction in Brevard. R. E. Foster of Spartanburg cried the sale, and B. E. Paxton kept the books. It was a fine lot of horses and the whole car load brought in was disposed of:

Following is a list of those who bought with the prices paid for each horse:

Al Bryson, $165; Bob Orr, $90; T. T. Patton, $200; E. F. Moffitt, $165 and $150; T. B. Crary, $137.50; T. B. Reid, $175; C. C. Duckworth, $127.50; Lewis Hamlin, $150; Sam McKelvey, $140; J. R. Tinsley, $82.50; Ewart Raxter, $156; L. H. Allison, $190, $175 and $200; Bill Allison, $172.50; Perry Davis, $152.50; Frank McCall, $180 and $182.50; W. M. Robbins, $150; A. H. King, $180; T. C. Galloway, $140, $200 and $200.

The total receipts booked were $3,861.

The clean up campaign observed last week can well be called a success. Although some expressed the opinion that all the garbage that would be collected could be hauled at one load, one team was busy all day and another for most of the day, and with all that they did not get everything hauled. Taking the short-notice property owners had into consideration we believe a very creditable showing was made, and much improvement can be noticed. All that is needed now is for the health officers to get behind those property owners who did not clean up and make them do it.

Rheumatism Quickly Cured.

"My sister's husband had an attack of rheumatism in his arm," writes a well known resident of Newton, Iowa. "I gave him a bottle of Chamberlain's Liniment which he applied to his arm and on the next morning the rheumatism was gone." For chronic muscular rheumatism you will find nothing better than Chamberlain's Liniment. Sold by S. M. Macfie. adv

PASTOR ELECTED

The Baptist congregation had the privilege and pleasure of listening to two able sermons last Sunday, preached by Rev. W. W. Marr of Biltmore.

At the close of the morning service a congregational meeting was held pursuant to a call announced some time ago. This meeting had for its object the election of a pastor. The names of three ministers were put before the congregation—Revs. A. T. Howell, W. R. Beach and W. W. Marr. The voting resulted in the election of Rev. A. T. Howell. A call will be made out and sent to Mr. Howell, who now supplies a church at Hamlet, N. C., if the necessary amount for a salary can be raised by subscription among the members.

Mr. Howell preached here several weeks ago and made a distinctly favorable impression on every one who heard him.

MR. CARTER PROMOTED

Brevard people will be interested in the following account of the promotion of Mr. E. W. Carter, who was for a number of years agent and dispatcher for the Transylvania division of the Southern railway with offices in Brevard. The following account is taken from the current issue of the Southern News Bulletin, a monthly periodical devoted to the interests of railroad men:

"E. W. Carter, joint clerk in the city passenger and freight offices of the Southern railway at Winston-Salem, N. C., has been promoted to inspector of agencies on the Winston-Salem division. Mr. Carter entered the service of the Southern railway as secretary to the superintendent of the Richmond division in 1895 and for two years acted as secretary and also telegraph operator. In 1897 he went to Augusta as clerk operator in the city freight passenger office. He later became secretary to the general agent at Norfolk, and since that time has been agent and train dispatcher on the Asheville, Transylvania and Richmond divisions."

MONTVALE NEWS

We have had some fine weather for work and the people have been doing a lot of it. Some are done planting corn and some have not planted any yet. The rain of Wednesday night was of great benefit to the farmers.

Widow M. M. Cash had the misfortune to lose two good cows, the only cows she had, recently. They were poisoned in some way.

Eliza and Jessie Cash went fishing last Saturday. They caught seventy trout.

D. L. Green has been building a lot of new fence and clearing this spring. This is a good sign.

There is a good prospect for fruit here this season, if it is not killed. Squire Head caught three large wild cats a while back.

Mrs. Ada Parker has been on the sick list for a month or so. We are glad to say she is improving.

Four or five big rattlesnakes have been killed by various people in this section recently, as well as a lot of other kinds of snakes.

Rev. S. R. Reid filled his appointment at the Baptist church on May 3rd, preaching to a large congregation. H. E. W.

FROM BOYLESTON

Mr. Robert Mackey of Pisgah Forest spent Friday night at Mr. Richard Scruggs.

Furman and Arlin Reese and Leo Scruggs took a trip to Hendersonville Monday.

Misses Sarah Scruggs and Emma Reese and brother, Arlin, visited friends and relatives on Turkey creek Saturday and Sunday.

I wonder what has become of Rose Bud and Bobolink. They surely have the measles.

Miss Dovie Shipman and Mr. Leo Scruggs spent Sunday afternoon at Mr. Weldon English's.

Mrs. Lila Ledbetter has been on the sick list for some time but is slowly improving.
