REPUBLICAN COUNTY CONVENTION

A county convention of the republicans of Transylvania county is hereby called to meet at the court house, in the town of Brevard, on Saturday, August 15th, 1914, at two o'clock p. m., for the purpose of electing delegates to the state, congressional, judicial and senatorial conventions, and also for the nomination of county officers, and for other purposes.

It is suggested that the various township committees call a convention for the various townships on or before Friday, August 14, 1914, and elect delegates to the county convention above called.

O. W. CLAYTON,
County Chairman.

SICKENED BY CALOMEL

If you ever saw anyone made sick by calomel you won't want any more calomel yourself. There's no real reason why a person should take calomel anyway, when fifty cents will buy a large bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone—a good remedy that perfectly and safely takes the place of dangerous calomel, which is only another form of deadly and poisonous mercury.

Dodson's Liver Tone is a pleasant-tasting vegetable liquid which will start the liver just as surely as calomel, and which has absolutely no bad after-effects.

Children and grown people can take Dodson's Liver Tone without any restriction of habit or diet. S. M. Macfie and Duckworth Drug Co. sell it and guarantee it to take the place of calomel, and will refund your money at once if it fails in your case. adv

Varsity Quartette

The Varsity Quartette from the University of South Carolina gave a very pleasant entertainment at the auditorium last Tuesday night under the auspices of the Brevard Betterment Association. The quartette consisted of Messrs. Carpenter, Reeves, Perkins and Paul, assisted by Mr. Seay, pianist.

The audience was large and quite appreciative, seeming to enjoy the numbers which came one after another in response to hearty encores. In addition to the quartette singing, Mr. Carpenter sang a tenor solo, Mr. Perkins rendered a solo on the cornet, and Mr. Seay played a piano selection, all of which were greeted by calls for more. Mr. Reeves also amused the audience with his Dutch impersonations and his faculty for imitating sounds.

The work of the quartette compared quite favorably with that of the many good quartettes which have visited Brevard in recent years.

COMMITTEE.

Rev. Francis Pressley of Sky Land has been conducting a revival meeting for over a week at Union Valley church on King's creek. Although the church, of which Rev. Stephen Smith is pastor, is of the Free Will Baptist denomination, Mr. Pressley himself is a Methodist. The services have met with much interest on the part of the people in that neighborhood, and the preacher has made a strong impression. He is the father of Mr. Francis Pressley, a co-worker of Mr. Smith's. The meeting will probably continue throughout this week.

How to Cure a Sprain.

A sprain may be cured in about one-third the time required by the usual treatment by applying Chamberlain's Liniment and observing the directions with each bottle. For sale by all dealers. adv

Lack of water power and consequently of electric power have caused the Cotton Mill to shut down for a few days.

RECORDERS COURT

The Recorder had a busy day Monday of this week, although the number of cases was not large. More than the usual crowd of spectators were on hand.

The Recorder made an announcement at this session which was of considerable importance. He said that many witnesses tried to repeat the exact words of blasphemous profanity involved in the cases tried. He said that the law of the land was founded on the law of God, who had said, "The Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain", and he held that the repetition of profanity with such evident gusts was itself profanity. In view of this, he warned witnesses that except in circumstances where necessity demanded it they should not repeat profane language, and that by doing so they would render themselves liable to judgment of the court.

The week's record is as follows: State vs. Roy Duckworth, affray. Guilty $15 and costs. Prayer for judgment continued on payment of fine and cost. $200 bond for personal appearance 1st Monday every month for 12 months.

State vs. Will Mackey, maintaining nuisance. Guilty; eight months. Appeal granted on $500 justified bond.

State vs. Alex Gaston, colored, assault. Not Guilty.

State vs. J. B. Kelley, escaping jail: On road till fifth of September.

State vs. Virgo Ray, drunk: $15 and costs.

State vs. Ira Ledbetter, nuisance: Nolle Contender; prayer for judgment continued upon payment of $100 and costs, and bond of $500 to appear first Monday in every month for 12 months and show that he has not directly or indirectly sold or engaged in the business, otherwise judgment to be prayed in open court.

State vs. Ira Ledbetter, drunk: judgment suspended on payment of costs.

CAMPAIGN SPEECH

Mr. R. R. Williams of Asheville was here last Monday night and made a political speech at the courthouse.

Mr. Williams made his appearance in the congressional campaign in behalf of J. M. Gudger. He said, in substance, that the Democratic party was at a crisis point of its history. Only twice before since the war has the Democratic party been in power. They failed to keep power because they did no real constructive legislation. It was, therefore, important, in view of the line of policy followed by the present administration to send representatives who would be most familiar with this policy and with the of methods putting it into effect. This, he claimed, was a reason for returning Mr. Gudger, who already has occupied a position of great importance in Congress, along with other North Carolinians

The Case of L. L. Cantelou.

The case of L. L. Cantelou, Clarendon, Texas, is similar to that of many others who have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. He says: "After trying a doctor for several months, and using different kinds of medicine for my wife who had been troubled with severe bowel complaint for several months, I bought a 25c bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. After using the second bottle she was entirely cured." For sale by all dealers. adv

Result Certain.

Footo could not bear to see anybody or anything succeed in the Haymarket theater but himself and his own writings, forgetful that a failure of the new scheme might possibly endanger the regular payment of his annuity. His pique broke out sometimes in downright rudeness. One morning he came upon the stage during the rehearsal of the "Spanish Barber," then about to be produced. The actors were busy in the scene of a piece when one servant is under the influence of a sleeping draft and another of a sneezing powder.

"Well," said Footo to the manager, "how do you go on?"

"Pretty well," was the answer, "but I cannot teach one of these fellows to gape as he ought to do."

"Can't you?" replied Footo. "Then read him your love comedy, 'The Man of Business,' and he'll yawn for a month."—London Tit-Bits.

Vaccinate Against All Diseases.

A discovery of the highest importance as to a substitute which confers immunity against disease was communicated to the Academy of Science of Paris by Professor d'Arsonval a few days ago.

Since Buchner in 1890 gave the name of alexine to this discovery a great amount of investigation has been devoted to the subject, but the active principle of the serum had always remained unknown.

Doctor Tissot of the Museum of Natural History has succeeded in analyzing its elements, defining accurately its action.

This opens the way to the realization of immunity from such diseases as tuberculosis and syphilis, as well as greatly improving the efficacy of the serums already in use against lockjaw and diphtheria.

Companion of Medicine.

"My doctor ordered two weeks at the seashore."

"He's a homeopath, isn't he?"

"Yes. Why?"

"Two weeks is a small dose. I'd go to an allopath and see if I couldn't get a trip to Europe."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Lost Opportunity.

First Jew—"Twenty years ago Goldstein sold shoestrings on the corner and today he owns the corner on which he stood." Second Jew (excitedly)—"Und if he had walked up and down he might have owned the whole block."—Life.

The Difference.

A pessimist complains he has eaten 1,000 oysters without coming on a pearl; an optimist gives thanks that he has eaten that many oysters without getting ptomaines.—New York Mail.

Justify Confidence.

France has an association which gives loans on the word of honor of the people. It is chiefly for men or women who are of humble position, and in most cases the money is returned promptly.

SOME ERRORS REPORTED

The following is a letter from Hon. J. Frank Wells of Buncombe County, who was a Reynolds delegate to the Waynesville Convention. Mr. Wells is a lifelong Democrat, having been one of the County Commissioners for a period of eight years, and is also an old Confederate Veteran who served in the war between the States with honor to himself and county.

Not at Suyeta

Editor Citizen:

I am writing you about my name being connected with the suit in which Mr. Robert R. Reynolds, a candidate for Congress is being sued by the Suyeta Hotel at Waynesville for the sum of $171.00, as I understand it.

I see by the papers in the suit that they have charged Mr. Reynolds with $8.50 for my board during my stay in Waynesville as a delegate. I want to say that the Suyeta Park people who are suing Mr Reynolds have certainly made a mistake, and a bad mistake at that. I was never in their hotel in my life. I never took a single meal there, nor did I sleep there. While in Waynesville I stayed at the Gordon Hotel.

Very Truly Yours,

J. F. WELLS.

Asheville, Aug. 3.

Below is a letter from J. C. Wallace, a business man of the city of Asheville, stating that the charge as rendered against Mr. Reynolds for $10.50 is not correct.

His Suyeta Bill

Editor, The Citizen:

In examining the papers in the matter of the controversy between Hon. R. R. Reynolds and the Suyeta Park Hotel at Waynesville, I find I am charged in Mr. Reynolds' account with a board bill of $10.50

I registered at the Suyeta Park Hotel on Friday afternoon, May 29, and was a guest of this place until Saturday morning. I was there for three meals and one night's lodging.

Under no circumstances is this charge of $10.50 fair and just; in fact, my accommodation according to the rates of the hotel, as I understand it, for three meals and one night's lodging would be only $2.00.

J. C. WALLACE.

Another Erroneous Bill.

Editor Citizen:

Having noticed in the papers that there was a controversy between Hon. Robert R. Reynolds and the Suyeta hotel people, I came to Asheville for the express purpose of investigating just what amount they had me charged with, and to my surprise, I find that I was charged with $8.50.

I went to Waynesville on Friday morning, taking three meals and spending the night at the Suyeta, and left Waynesville Saturday morning for Asheville, and did not return to Waynesville again, and my bill should have been $2.00 instead of the amount charged, so you can readily see that in my instance, Mr. Reynolds is overcharged $6.50, which thoroughly convinces me that he is right in not paying the amount demanded.

Very Truly Yours,

J. E. MARTIN.

Last Sunday at Old Toxaway church Rev. J. E. Galloway preached the funeral sermon of Mr. Marion Whitmire, who died a year or more ago. During the services a talk was made by Mr. B. J. Wilson of Selma who was a comrade of Mr. Whitmire's during the civil war. They were both members of Company E, 25 N. C. regiment. It was a talk well calculated to touch the hearts of those present—a grey haired old warrior of the grey paying his tribute of respect and friendship to the memory of one who had fought at his side fifty years ago.
