LECTURING ADAM AND EVE

Somewhat Humorous Painting in German Church, Werk of Artist of the Middle Ages.

In the Church of Saint Sebaldus at Nuremberg there is a delightful mural painting which makes one merry even to recall it. The subject is the Garden robes with a long white beard. His heard alone would more than supply Adam and Eve with the covering they lack.

In as easy attitude, with neither is as detached in manner as though he estate to-wit: were a professor lecturing at Leipsic on the fourth dimension of space.

Adam is somewhat dejected and reclines upon the ground. Eve, unreckless mood. She looks like a child corner; thence with Joe Ledbetter's that of a naughty little girl.

The world-old problem is under discussion, but with an air of good huthe lecturer, as though there were still more or le time in the world, as though harry Said sale for partition between the sevute, as though possibly the world 11th day of October, 1915 would still go on even if the problem were left unsolved, and this first leafy parliament adjourned sine die.-New York Telegraph.
