

PENROSE LOCALS

J. B. Summey and G. F. Woodfin spent part of last week on Big Willow. They report a pleasant trip. Tom and Fred Coleman, of Waterloo, S. C., enrolled in our high school last week.

Charles and G. A. Clayton went to Spartanburg through the country in an automobile last Monday morning.

The teachers of our school attended the County Teachers' Association at Brevard last Friday and Saturday. The report is that a grand meeting was enjoyed.

A. F. Mitchell went to Asheville last Thursday afternoon on business. While there he heard Dr. Chapman preach.

An entertainment will be given by our school on November 20, and the public is most cordially invited. Aside from the program by the school Prof. T. C. Henderson will address us. He has a good subject for us and let's be sure to hear him.

Rev. W. E. Barker will be at Enon Baptist church November 8, at 11 a. m., to give an address at the placing of the monument of Mrs. Mary Thomas.

The Women's Betterment Association is doing some grand things toward building up the community in general. They have periodical meetings which are causing much interest.

Jeff Wilson is preparing his land for planting wheat, having finished gathering his corn.

P. C. Surrency has secured unto himself a beautiful supply of wood for the winter.

Miss Lona Fowler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmore Fowler, was married to Mr. Frank Wilson, of Brevard, last Sunday afternoon by Rev. P. P. Orr.

Miss Nannie Blythe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmore Blythe, was married to Mr. Charles Alexander, of Turkey Creek, last Sunday afternoon, Rev. P. P. Orr officiating.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wilson and daughter have recently returned from a business trip to the eastern part of the state.

E. C. Orr is now engaged in building a barn for R. L. Capps, of Glade creek.

Sutton Wilson has recently returned from a business trip to eastern Carolina, and is now busily engaged in gathering his corn.

The following officers of the Junaluska Literary Society, were recently elected for the next quarter: Joe Lyday, president; Miss Lola Townsend, vice president; Miss Emma Teague, secretary; Miss Mary Belle Orr, treasurer.

The following were elected as officers of the student body of our high school: Clyde Blythe, president; Miss Nellie Lee, vice president; Miss Fanny Boggs, secretary; Miss Mary Belle Orr, treasurer.

The eighth grade elected their officers as follows: Miss Nellie Lee, president; Wilson McCall, vice president; Miss Emma Brown, secretary; Walter McInire, treasurer.

We are hoping to make many improvements in and around our school within the next week or two.

FREE UNTIL 1916

Have you subscribed yet for The Youth's Companion for 1916? Now is the time to do it, if you are not already a subscriber, for you will get all the issues for the remaining weeks of 1915 free from the time your subscription with $2.00 is received.

The fifty-two issues of 1916 will be crowded with good reading for young and old. Reading that is entertaining, but not "wishy-washy." Reading that leaves you, when you lay the paper down, better informed, with keener aspirations, with a broader outlook on life. The Companion is a good paper to tie to if you have a growing family—and for general reading, as Justice Brewer once said, no other is necessary.

If you wish to know more of the brilliant list of contributors, from our ex-presidents down, who will give for the new volume in 1916, and if you wish to know something of the new stories for 1916, get us send you free the forecast for 1916.

Every new subscriber who sends $2.00 for 1916 will receive, in addition to this year's free issues, The Companion Home Calendar for 1916.
