The Conventions.

The different Democratic Conventions will be held at following places and times:

National.

At St. Louis, Mo., June 5th.

State.

At Raleigh on Wednesday, the 30th day of May.

The German Emperor's condition has been improving for several days past.

The Congressional Convention for this (the 3rd) district met in Goldsboro yesterday. We have not heard from it.

The Government of Brazil has issued a decree emancipating all the slaves in the Empire. It is said to meet the approbation of the masses.

stration of public affairs as chief executive of the nation has exhibited to the Democracy of the land, and to all citizens, the value and beneficial results of a faithful discharge of public duty. During his incumbency our system of government has been restored to the honest simplicity impressed upon it by its founders; integrity and ability have been substituted for astifice and incapacity in public places; the civil service has been purified, elevated and improved; economies have been inaugurated; useless offices have been abolished, and business methods have been introduced in the management of government affairs; millions of acres of public domain have been wrested from the grasp of foreign and domestic speculators and restored to settlers seeking homes; waste and corrupt misuse of the funds appropriated for the rebuilding of our navy have been exposed and corrected, and the scandals arising therefrom no longer offend the moral sense of the people; thousands of names of deserving Union veterans have been added to the pension rolls; the right of every citizen has been maintained at home and abroad; sectional hate has been discouraged, and friendly relations among all our people have been promoted."

COMMUNICATED.

BIG OAK, N. C., May 23, 1883.

Mr Editor:—The Justices and Commissioners meet the 1st, Monday, to elect commissioners. The upper end has not had a commissioner in two terms. The present board think they own the county. We hope there will be a change. Let them give some other part of the county a chance.

THE CONVENTION.

MR. EDITOR:

You say in your last issue that you were not furnished with the proceedings of the Democratic Convention, as is customary. This seemed somewhat strange to us, but a little later on when the democratic grooms are placed upon the track for nomination for the County offices, we have no doubt that an elaborate apology will be made. We were present in the Convention and with from memory as near as we can give a history of what we saw and heard. We were not a delegate—but therefore, will try to give a truthful, honest and unbiased statement. The discussion was largely extended and the bore and savor of certain portions of the country seemed to have taken out in many. It was very apparent then on sides that the "Farmers' Alliance" had the convention by the "Unholy Order," Gen. Wilcox, Esq., Chairman of the Executive Committee, called the Convention to order. He was afterwards made permanent Chairman and Mr. McKelly and W. C. Wilcox were elected secretaries. Upon calling the roll of Townships it was found that two townships had either forgotten the day or did not think it a matter of enough importance for them to have one day in the service of their country. The session proceeded to business without them. Some one moved that a vote be taken to obtain the sense of the convention as to who would be the proper person for Moore county to cast her vote at the State Convention for Governor. Capt. Wilcox called L. P. Tyson, Esq., to the Chair and took the floor in advocacy of the claims of S. R. Alexander, of Mockenberg. He spoke about a half hour—stating among other things, that it was doubtful whether any other democratic candidate could carry the State. When he made this remark we thought it a very opportune time for the "small boy in the peanut gallery" gifted with eloquence to shout, "What's given us?" for we believe that many of the gentlemen whose names have been prominently mentioned for the high office of Governor, could carry the "rank and file" of the democratic party. Alexander, Fowle, Stedman and Clark were placed before the convention. A exuder was largely in the majority, getting more votes than all the other candidates. Fowle received about one-fourth. Stedman and Clark had a very small following. Mr. Buchan, of Mineral Spring, Townshend, moved that the vote of Moore county be cast in the State Convention as it had in the case of the convention—that is, give each candidate his strength. Mr. Wilcox offered no amendment, whereby he proposed to have the necessary for Alexander on the first ballot. This raised a good humored rumpus. Motion after motion was made. The Chairman got addled! The Convention did not seem to understand the proceedings before them. Mr. Buchan, who seemed to be the best parliamentarian on the floor, succeeded, after the convention had voted several times and expended about two hours in debate, in bringing order out of chaos, by getting them back to his original motion, which was adopted. Then came the vote for Congressman. Maj. McElroy and Col. Green were placed in nomination. It was moved that the vote be cast in Congressional Convention as it had been cast in the county convention. This motion was adopted without debate. Then there was a lull in the proceedings. It was evident that there was something up. Mr. J. C. Black arose and asked the permission of the Convention to offer a resolution. Permission was given, and he proceeded to read a long resolution, extolling the virtues and services of Senator D. E. Miller, and asked that the vote of the County be cast for him in the State Convention. The Republican plan of campaign means mischief to the South.—Memphis Appeal.
