THE SILVER FIASCO.

The non-partisan silver convention called to meet at Raleigh on the 25th by Ed. Chambers Smith et als, we fear, will prove a boomerang to the Democratic party.

The populists and republicans both have dishonest designs on this convention, and if there is any possible chance of doing so, they will use the convention to further their ends.

It is incomprehensible to us that men of good sense and sound democracy would sign a call for such a convention. It can not do the party any good, and if only silver men are to be admitted, we fail to see where the benefit would come in to the Democrats even if the pops. and rads. were left out.

There is some talk of this convention nominating a non-PARTISAN candidate for Governor in 1896, said candidate to come from the populist ranks. And we presume that these saviors of the Democratic party, who combined in the call, will expect the rank and file of the party to walk up to the polls in Nov., 1896, and put in their votes for the non-partisan pop. candidate.

We would like to say to these great leaders, that there are a number of partisan Democrats in this part of North Carolina who will never remember putting in a vote for a candidate of the non-partisan stripe.

We firmly believe that a majority of the Democrats of North Carolina favor the free and unlimited coinage of silver, but we do not think a non-partisan convention will help the cause.

We wouldn't be much surprised if an effort will be made at this convention to form the much talked of fusion between the pops. and Democrats. But we would like, right here, to enter a strong protest against this fusion business. It will not work in North Carolina. Some of the self appointed leaders may pledge the Democratic party to such an unholy alliance, but it might as well be understood now as at any time, that they can not deliver the goods, i. e. the votes. The Democracy of North Carolina can not be led or sold out by any man or set of men.

Knights of the Maccabees.

The State Commander writes us from Lincoln, Neb., as follows: "After trying other medicines for what seemed to be a very obstinate cough in our two children we tried Dr. King's New Discovery and at the end of two days the cough entirely left them. We will not be without it hereafter, as our experience proves that it cures where all other remedies fail."—Signed F. M. Stevens, State Com.—Why not give this great medicine a trial, as it is guaranteed and trial bottles are free at Chas. Cole & Co.'s Drug Store. Regular size 50c. and $1.00.

The Government's September cotton report places the condition at 70.8, against 77.9 for August; this is the lowest for September since 1881 when the condition was 70, the next lowest for the same month since that year being 73.4 in 1893; the condition for North Carolina is 70.

POLITICS GALORE.

Silver and the Silver Conference all the Talk.

Ral. Cor. Wil. Messenger. There was quite a gathering of Populists in Senator Butler's room at the Yarboro last night. The silver question, and more particularly the convention, non partisan, called by the Democrats, were discussed. The following was the result, made known this morning by the Senator himself, who gave me a copy. It is in the shape of a card signed by Butler as a member of the National committee and B. F. Keith as vice president of the Memphis silver convention for North Carolina:

"A call having been made for a non partisan State free silver convention uniting all persons of all political parties who favor the free, independent and unlimited coinage of silver and gold into full legal tender at the ratio of 16 to 1, to meet in Raleigh September 25th, and inasmuch as such a convention will be on the line of the work started by the Memphis silver convention and will tend to get all true friends of silver together under one banner to fight the foreign gold trust and its American Tory allies, therefore we favor the holding of such a silver convention and call upon the honest money's free silver clubs of the State and all other persons who favor the objects of said clubs to attend."

Hon. Charles M. Cooke, who is one of the signers of the call for this silver convention, was interviewed this morning and said:

"There will be a large attendance at the convention. I have never wavered in loyalty to silver. Whatever may be the effect in other sections, I do not see that in these the restoration of silver would be disastrous, and unquestionably it will be of value to the agricultural interests and the great majority of the people here are agriculturists."

Senator Butler was asked whether there was truth in the current rumors that certain Democrats had made proposals for co operation with Populists. He said in reply:

"I have nothing to say about co operation in any shape. It is a matter for our people to consider in full committee or convention." Speaking of his party the Senator said: "We will push the party in the Western part of the State. It is not quite as strong as in the East. We cast over 60,000 votes in the Weaver campaign. Our strength is now 80,000, as we gained 20,000 in the last campaign. We have facts to prove these figures. We will circulate our literature widely. Our friends are sending copies of the Caucasian 'complimentary' to a great many people. I am sure the people will have a State and National silver ticket."

As to the silver convention the Senator said: "I do not expect it to suggest the name of a silver man as a candidate for Governor. What it will do will be to get the silver men together. Committees will regulate the manner of getting together. Maybe a popular man will be put on the silver ticket in the field. If so he will catch all the Democrats who believe the financial question paramount in politics. The silver men are going to get together. How it is done is not so important. The man who is a patriot will not scruple how it comes."

The Populist conference made up a list of appointments for Dr. Cyrus Thompson, the new alliance president, to make speeches in the Western counties. There was some alliance business transacted last night. Marion Butler, as retiring member of the executive committee, was not able to be at its last meeting or at Cary, so he just turned over the bonds of all the officers of the alliance to Secretary Barnes for the new executive committee.

There are some rude spoken people who say the callers of the silver convention have "raised a devil" which they do not know how to exercise. There are all sorts of views as to the convention. It is the talk everywhere. History is being made now in North Carolina. Politicians who are "trimmers" are in sore plight. Even the regulars are put to it to keep their boat headed right. A day now is as long as a week usually is. Republicans calculate on cutting something of a figure at this convention. J. C. L. Harris tells me James H. Young, the colored politician, will be present.

A Northern View of Cotton.

Such advance as we are making in cotton manufacture is all at the South. Northern mills consumed the same amount of cotton in the last crop year which they did seven years ago, or about 2,200,000 bales. The South has doubled. It consumed 500,000 bales then. It consumes 1,000,000 bales a year now. This is certain to continue. It is true that fine yarns are spun at the North and coarse at the South, but this will not be for long. For seven years all the growth in this industry is at the South, and as the market for coarse yarns is filled fine yarns will be spun. Nowhere else, except in China, are coal and cotton side by side, and ten or fifteen years from now will see the South doing the manufacturing of the world in cotton, rivaled by India, China and Japan. A terrible liquidation is before Manchester.—Philadelphia Press.

To comprehend the full import of this change upon the future of the South, it must be remembered that the world has 85,000,000 spindles, and that upwards of $2,000,000,000 are invested in cotton manufacturing and allied interests. The South has 3,000,000,000 spindles and about $100,000,000 invested in cotton manufacturing. Figure out what the transfer to the South of this enormous business, of which we have now only about 4 per cent. means in the advancement of this section!—Manufacturers' Record.

THE NEGRO CONFERENCE.

Forty-Nine Delegates of Representative Colored Men Present.

RALEIGH, Sept. 11.—At the negro convention here to day C. H. King, of Raleigh, presided and J. E. Shepherd and S. D. Latta were secretaries. Forty nine delegates were present, representing fifteen counties. They were all intelligent and conservative. It is quite noticeable that the Populists ridicule this convention.

The resolutions which were adopted were quite long. They declared that the time has come for the negro to assert himself; to put aside prejudices and make friends with his fellow citizens; that sectional and party lines are being removed; that there is community of interests; the most urgent need is of good citizens; the cry is for purer politics and better leaders; the lack of organization among the negroes is to be deplored; the new sentiment is that every white man and every black man has an equal chance for education; the mistake of the negro for thirty years past has been reliance on outside influences, but the right thing is to look to the true sources, God, themselves and their own souls and for salvation; progress since emancipation is not what is desired, but this is due to failure of the negro to organize in his best interests.

The choice of good leaders is recommended and also adherence to the principles of the old Republican party. Accessions from any source are welcomed and people are called on to unite; rings, cliques and party bossism are condemned; the negro vote should be thrown where it will do the most good; unite for purer politics; stop the negro howl and the calamity howl; let the negroes become land owners, have an interest in the soil. The late Legislature is condemned for its folly in abolishing county superintendents of schools. A board of twenty two members, two from each district and four at large, is to be created to be known as the North Carolina advisory board in the interest of the negro race, political, industrial and social, its decision to be final, its members to serve one and two years each.

James A. Cheek, of the Republican State Executive Committee, says his party does not propose to recognize as a Republican any one who attends the silver convention here on the 25th. He says the party will not recognize any one who does not stand squarely by the Republican ticket.

While in Chicago, Mr. Charles L. Kahler, a prominent shoe merchant of Des Moines, Iowa, had quite a serious time of it. He took such a severe cold that he could hardly talk or navigate, but the prompt use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy cured him of his cold so quickly that others at the hotel who had had colds followed his example and ordered it from the nearest drug store. They were profuse in their thanks to Mr. Kahler for telling them how to cure a bad cold so quickly. For sale by Chas. Cole & Co., Druggists.

Finding his advertising not up to the mark, Mr. Harrison made a deal with "Baby" McKee whereby there was a joint rescue of one of the Harrison grandchildren from a watery grave. Uncle Bennie isn't going to get beat on advertising if he does in convention.

Royal Baking Powder

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report

ABSOLUTELY PURE

PRINCIPLE ABOVE SUCCESS.

The communication from our Goldsboro correspondent on the conjectured proposition to effect a fusion between the Democrats and Populists will be generally approved. There is credit and honor in defeat. There is disgrace and dishonor in the suggested fusion for offices. We have been unable to find evidence that any prominent Democrat favors fusion. There are some Democrats who believe that there are many Populists who are unwilling again to fuse with the Republicans, and that it is wise to show them that the best place for them is in the ranks of the Democratic party. It is this belief that has caused some of them to favor a non partisan silver convention.

There may be a few who advocate fusion, but diligent inquiry has failed to find them among Democrats who have been in good standing in the party. Mr. Ed. Chambers Smith, and others who have signed the call for a silver convention, repudiate the suggestion that they would, under any circumstances, favor fusion. At the same time they believe in extending an earnest and cordial welcome to all Democrats who went with the Populist party to come back home.

The Democratic party has been strong in defeat too many times to go off after strange gods in the hour of its first State defeat in twenty years. Success purchased at the price of political dishonor, is not to be desired, and there is no reason to believe that the party cares to commit suicide by that course.

Principle is above success.—News and Observer.

"Be regular and punctual in all things" was one of the old maxims, taught long ago. The last is not forgotten, but the first is scarce remembered, so irregular is the life of most people nowadays. The only corrector of this evil is Simmons Liver Regulator, which keeps the liver active and prevents the ills of irregular living: Dyspepsia, biliousness, constipation, etc. It also cures these troubles.

It is nonsense to say that the campaign in Kentucky and Maryland this year will have no bearing upon the Presidential fight. If sulking Democrats allow those States to go Republican this year, it will be out of their power to prevent their going the same way next year. If fewer Democrats would discuss seriously the third term nonsense there would be less encouragement for the Republican originators of the idiotic stories.

John G. Mauger, editor of the Sunbeam, Sedgeman, Mo., who named Grover Cleveland for the Presidency in Nov., 1892, while he was Mayor of Buffalo, N. Y., is enthusiastic in his praise of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. He says: "I have used it for the past five years and consider it the best preparation of the kind in the market. It is as staple as sugar and coffee in this section. It is an article of merit and should be used in every household." For sale by Chas. Cole & Co., Druggists.

There was nothing tame about the opening of the Ohio Republican campaign. Forner and 28 brass bands made tameress impossible.

There is danger that ex Senator Ingalls will overplay the isms of the Kansas voters and fail to make connection with the Senatorial train.

Ex Secretary of State Foster will be read out of the Republican party if he continues to endorse Secretary Olney's Chinese policy.

A New York paper says there's nothing fast in Philadelphia, not even the color of the stockings worn by Quaker City maidens. Wonder how that editor found out about the stockings?

Secretary Herbert upset a long line of precedents when he ordered that work upon all naval vessels, whether being built by the government or contractors, should be expedited as much as possible, but he is right.

A. M. Bailey, a well known citizen of Eugene, Oregon, says his wife has for years been troubled with chronic diarrhoea and used many remedies with little relief until she took Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which has cured her sound and well. Give it a trial and you will be surprised at the prompt relief it affords. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Chas. Cole & Company, Druggists.

Good! Senator Quay's first use of his new power is an attempt to boss Czar Reed, and to dictate the chairmen of the important committees of the next House.

Irving W. Latamore, physical director of Y. M. C. A., Des Moines, Iowa, says he can conscientiously recommend Chamberlain's Pain Balm to athletes, gymnasts, bicyclists, foot ball players and the profession in general for bruises, sprains and dislocations; also for soreness and stiffness of the muscles. When applied before the parts become swollen it will effect a cure in one half the time usually required. For sale by Chas. Cole & Co., Druggists.

The growth of protection sentiment in England, which certain editors refer to periodically, is just about as rapid as the growth of monarchical sentiment in America.
