Carlisle, Morrison, Whitney, Campbell and Hill. The Democrat who cannot choose a candidate from these five is hard to please.

Secretary Lamont has never made a public speech, but when it gets down to the working stage, Daniel can hold his own with the best of them.

What's coming over the "new woman"? Mrs. Lease is to give the cold shoulder to politics and Susan B. Anthony is to lecture no more.

It is now in order for New Yorkers to accuse the scientist who predicts that Chicago will in 1902 be the second largest city in the world of having been bribed.

Great Caesar! According to a current pamphlet, "Little Billy" Chandler, of New Hampshire, has a theory. It never occurred to us that Chandler had any thing but devilry and greed in his make-up.

President Cleveland will probably remove all doubt in the near future by coming out squarely for the State ticket in Maryland. There is not one single good reason why he should not do so.

To Lord Dunsen:—It's an old cup, anyway. Not near so pretty as some of the newer designs.

ARE THEY HERE?

Is there a livery stable in Sanford? No proof of it is to be found in the columns of this paper.

How many hotels are there in Sanford? The Express is not authorized to say that there is a single one.

Is there a Sash and Blind Factory in Sanford? Yes; one—and it is rushed with orders from far and near all the time.

Is there a foundry and machine shops in Sanford? We are not authorized to speak.

Is there a millinery store in Sanford? The Express can not answer the question for the reading public.

How many general stores are in Sanford? This paper is given the authority to say that there are a couple. They will soon increase the number of their salesmen, as their trade is constantly increasing.

Is there a buggy or wagon shop in Sanford? Reader, you can not learn from the Express.

Is there a furniture store in Sanford? Our advertising columns say one, and this one is drawing a large trade from four counties, according to the statement of the gentleman who runs it.

Is there a drug store in Sanford? One, according to our columns, and it is doing a good business.

Are there any lawyers or doctors in Sanford? The Express gives you no information. The professional cards in these columns come from Carthage and other places.

Are there any persons in the town that take an interest in the town paper? Yes; plenty of them when they wish to have some free advertising done; or when the paper says something they do not like they come around and threaten to whip us. Are there any who can take a hint when we say Verbum sat sapienti? We doubt it.—Sanford Express.

GET TOGETHER.

Democrats should get together in all portions of the United States. There is no time for quarreling. There always will be family rows inside the party, but after the nominations are made it is the duty of all men who believe in the essential principles of Democracy to stand shoulder to shoulder in one earnest effort to defeat the common enemy. Republicanism has been the curse of the country. For a quarter of a century the Republicans kept the people bound virtually in chains by maintaining an iniquitous tariff, framed in the interest of the protected manufacturers, from whom the leaders filched annually enormous sums of money with which elections were carried and the ballot corrupted. There had to be a change. Public sentiment not only demanded reductions in tariff duties, but even the manufacturers finally became tired of paying tribute money to the Republican party. Protection was, indeed, purchased at a dear price as long as the system of assessing the manufacturers was continued.

Democratic prospects are bright, and the success of the party at the polls in November will depend largely on the management of the campaign in the various States. It is no time for quibbling over minor issues. What matters it to the rank and file of the voters in the party if some of the leaders are jealous of each other? What harm can come of honest differences among Democrats on the money question? In the years gone by the Democrats were not united on the tariff question. But suppose the high-tariff advocates had deserted and gone to the Republican party. Where would the Democrats have been? They never could have passed a tariff law. It is the same with regard to the financial issue. That question can and will be settled by the Democratic party, and inside the party. Could Georgia Democrats afford to divide and permit their State to be captured by the Republicans simply because one faction, led by Secretary Smith, favors the gold standard, and the other, equally as pronounced for the free and unlimited coinage of silver, regardless of international agreement? Not a bit of it. Missouri and New York do not look at such matters in the same light any more than Missouri Democrats ever agreed to the Randall idea of tariff in the long ago; but Missouri met Pennsylvania hall way early in the contest, and gradually the people were educated on this subject until in 1892 Democrats in all sections were able to agree on a tariff plank which met the approval of the country and resulted in the election of the Democratic standard bearers. So it will be next year when the ablest Democrats meet to declare the policy of the party on the silver question. There must be liberality, and no matter which side carries its point the thought should be uppermost in the minds of the Democrats that success is the thing to be desired. It is no time for divisions. Soreheads and disraughtionists will have to take back seats. There is victory in the air, and a strong pull, all together, with no quarter to the Republicans, will pave the way for a grander triumph in 1896.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they can not reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that can not be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Sent for circulars free.

CHIMNEY ROCK, - - N. C.

Why? Because it is not only the most beautiful spot on earth with its grand water falls, pretty little lakes, towering mountains and magnificent views, but it is the most pleasant place in the mountains.

It is away from the bustle and noise of Rail Roads and is therefore, the best place to gain health and see real pleasure.

What Hotel Shall I Stop At? By all means stop at the Mountain View Inn, conducted by Mr. Geo. P. Horton and his estimable wife.

No! It is really a puzzle to visitors how Mr. Horton furnishes the excellent fare and the amusements to visitors that he does for the small charges. Some of his visitors have insisted on paying him more, and this is the reverse of most cases, for it is usual to have visitors to growl at high rates. He only charges seven dollars per week; or twenty-four dollars for a full calendar month.

This is valuable information to me, and a number of my friends who are going to take a vacation this summer, and I am certainly under obligations to you and will see you during July and August at Mr. Horton's. By-the-way, a party of prominent editors visited the place and selected the location as the best place to build an Editorial Club House, and they wrote many words of praise concerning the place and section. I will quote from the following papers:

Raleigh News and Observer. "Here with lofty mountains on each side the most picturesque scenery east of the Rockies, we a party of editors, have met to see for ourselves and tell the world something of the real grandeur and sublimity. It is a revelation, and yet how many are willing to live and die without putting forth one effort to view this wondrous scenery. The view from the dome of Chimney Rock is superb. It must be seen to be thoroughly understood."

Charlotte Observer. "The shades of night were falling as we drew near our destination. The harvest moon hung in the sky as we rounded Chimney Rock. At our right was Old Baldy, under whose gigantic cliffs we insouciantly were creeping along. The river sang a wispery hymn, and it seemed as if nature were offering her evening prayer to the Creator. The view from Chimney Rock is glorious. But it is useless to describe the beauties of this region, 'do as you see for yourself.'"

Wilmington Review. "It was up hill and down dale; now in the valley shut in by high hills, and now skirting the brow of a precipitous hundred feet above the plain beneath. The country between Rutherfordton and Asheville is beautiful, rich, prosperous and happy. We stood upon the summit of the rugged and picturesque Chimney and gazed abroad for sixty miles, the eye taking in almost at one glance the peaks of hundred magnificent mountains. The view is simply sublime."

Richmond Dispatch. "There is not a missing element in this beautiful mountain scenery. There is a succession of grand views all the way for six miles. No language can depict the grandeur of the scenery all along the route. The Broad River certainly is as picturesque as the famed Swanossee; and larger and much more turbulent."

Norfolk Virginian. "At every turn of the road as we approach, the mountains unfold, panoram like, displaying with grandeur almost and yet fascinating in the extreme. Peak after peak seemingly reaching skyward after supremacy as though sparring the placidity of the valley, and defying the sots of the city builders of the plains. It is only a few years since man first stood upon the summit of Chimney Rock. The outlook was superb beyond description."

Richmond Times. "Hickory Nut Gaps is the most picturesque section of country to be found throughout the Appalachian chain. The Broad River, a restless crystal stream, divides the great gorge, leaving a towering, rugged height on either side. Members of our party were viewing with each other in the use of objectives over the glorious landscape. To attempt a description of the great gray peaks overlooking rearing cataraacts and smiling valleys below would be but sacrifice when once a glimpse has been obtained."

A stay at Chimney Rock will cure malarial diseases, Blood Poison, Indigestion and dyspepsia. Without doubt Chimney Rock has the finest scenery in North Carolina. Write to Mr. GEORGE P. HORTON, Chimney Rock, N. C., and get full particulars.
