he Dunn Signhoard.

PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY. Subscription Rates

e Copy one Year... e Copy Six Months to Name Entered Without the Money.

A cops sent free for one year every person sending in a club five yearly subscribers with the ish, 86.25.

TYPICAL CAREER

nan jumped overboard from a fer- for it. y boat which was crossing from leeding, and half drowned he was cognized as Charles II. Reed. of ness He had been elected to jail. he lacrative office of city attorney when he was younger than any man who had ever filled it. He had a lost of friends who prophesied a builliant future for him. Young, afted, handsome and popular, it semed that he lacked nothing to a are a shining success. But he tid lack 'the one thing needfal.' He began his career with no fixed principles, and played at life as if t had been a game of chance. He won at the start and then he lost, and gradually went down in Chi-120.

When the assassin, Guitean was in trial, Reed saw , an 'opportunity' o rally his broken fortunes and to jokingly, to the young father. unite a widespread fame. He ad known. Gaitean in Chicago, and managed to put himself fore ost in his defense. In conducting he case he showed considerable ility and remarkable perseverace. Almost to the moment when he rope was put around the assasin's neck Reed was devising and reasing new expedients to save nin, or at least to postpone his will'. The famous trial and his activity behalf of his client were the neans of giving Reed great notoety as a criminal lawyer. But it rought him no good. Congress oted him $3,000 for defending Juiteau, but he lift Washingron wing his hotel (2000. Then he egan to lead a life of a reckless lohemian. He was never heard of xcept in connection with some rooked transaction, and was much noie sought-by the efficers of the aw than by those who wished to ngage his legal services. Last fall e-was arrested for passing a bogus beck in New York. A few days go he again loomed up in Jersey hiy, where he attempted to rob he money drawer of a restaurant. he proprietor declined to proseate him, and a few days later be ade the attempt to , end his misies beneath the waves of North ver. The story is not a new one. It the old, old story who try to ake short cuts to success. Chas. Reed has walked the same path hich has been trodden by many a fted mans before him, and has t the same fate. It will always so. No man can outfoot the emesis who pursues him on the ekv way. or -transgression. - Atnta Constitution.

31.25 A YEAR .-

VOL. 1.

was left hanging between heaven and earth, thus paying for a crime which in our judgment needs more Early last Saturday morning a than capital punishment to atone

On the Tuesday morning previ- ded condition has been the theme Jersey City to New York. Bruised, ous he had seen Miss Mahala Sapp of many a gibe and jest, but the walking on the railroad, when he votaries of justice do not diminish ished out of the river. He was spoke insulting words to her, which in numbers. It is sometimes asked being resented, he tried to over- what becomes of all who obtain a Only a few years ago not a law come her by force. She screamed, license to represent clients in the er in Chicago was rising faster or when he bit her with a revolver, courts ! Many are called to the and more flattering prospects than and was heard by a neighbor who bar but few are chosen and the his man. He had already distan- came to her resone. The negro fled chosen few are the earnest men mished himself at the bar and had with his crime unfinished. He was who are ready and willing to make required a strong influence in city captured Tuesday and lodged in sacrifice to attain the goal of honor

A Curious Joke.

A Sayannah attorney is looking up the law in a most peculiar case, with the view of possibly filing the papers in a suit for $1,000. The courthouse, and some for the secircumstances are these: A few rious business of the profession months ago a gentleman met a young friend and inquired about his family. The young man had but the last class slough off and been once blessed with twins, and lose their hold and are absorbed by, he expressed some fear of again less exacting pursuits. But the manual labor the only or the most being blessed in the same manner men who enter the profession of at no remote date. Well, should the law as a life parsuit; with the tion of great wealth.

"IN GOD WE TRUST."

DUNN, N. C., SEPTEMBER 1, 1887...

Law Profession.

From time immemorial the profession of the law has been crowded and from the earliest time its crowand distinction. Men come to the bar for different purposes; some for association in an honorable and influential profession, some for the brotherhood of a profession that is instanct with the esprit de corps, some for a comfortable seat in the 'ancient as magistracy, noble as virtue, necessary as justice,' All it occur, I will give you a present great aim of success and the ambiof $1,000,' remarked Mr. Blank, tion to win it, these are the men who are dressed in the 'white borers are told to go and build it. Will they be able to build the bridges, to make deep cuts, to con struct the causeways , through the stale old things which have treacherous swamps, to calculate been on duty for many years .the grades, and do other equally These remarkable relics of oratory difficult parts of the work ? How have been long on exhibition, and many ordinary wage laborers would need rest. Do not let us hear about it take to produce a Corliss engine, the 'teening millions,' 'the tide of the first of its kind ? No; there incoming population,' 'the perils of must be much besides muscular ef the hour.' Do let off the perils of fort in order to attain these results the hour. Poor perils! How sorry There must be toil of brain, long we are for them. They have to at: and protracted, and often exhaust- tend all our college commenceing the light, sometimes accompan- ments. and then in midsummer zen ied by preat sacrifices and great they are bustled off to the associahardships. In order to have extend tions. Do let the perds of the sive production there are required hour' have a vacation. For mangreat mental qualities, some of kind's sake we ask for something them of a rare kind. There is fresh. Do give us a new bill of blows the organ might claim that list. he produces all the music of the instrument. It is true he is generally an essential condition, but not by any means the only or the most essential condition. No more is essential condition of the produc-

A Church A Boomer.

quarterly.

Only Takes Shrewdness.

-A shrewd business man can work up a vast amount of liabilities on a very small capital. -Philadelphia North American.

A Home Shot

Knoxville wants a soap factory, We have thought for some time she needed one. So much lye ought not to go to waste .- Asheville Oiti-

These Degenerate Times.

The Charlotte Chronicle calls an attempt at burglary 'a midnight needed power to contrive, to in- fare. As the people feed us well, Silhoulte.' We leared we would vent, to organize, to direct, or little lot us resolv ; to give them a better get down to this sooner or later .-can be achieved. The man who type of oratory .- Baltimore Bap Federal aid to education is evidently not needed in the Charlotte precinct .- Asheville Citizen.

> A pedestrian on Fourth street Among the sights in store for the other day came across a couple President Cleveland when he vis- of small boys who were fighting, and he stopped and inquired: 'Boys. who have been trained to stand in is there a principle behind this?"

> a row and twist their tails into the "You bet!" said the smaller one. magic symbol '1888.' If Dan La- as he loosened his clutch for a momont don't believe it let him come ment, 'I sold him one bite of my down and see for himself. The old harvest apple, and he chocked him-

Hanged by A Mob. .

NEGRO RAVISHER. AT GREENS

Just before two o'clock last neighbor with cotton seed to plant the Farmers Alliance are, or seem hursday morning, a mob of about his little farm, about three miles to be under the impression that the power. ty men entered Greensboro, rode off, on the Cape Fear river. The organization is antagonistic to the the house of the jailer and deanded the keys to the jail, saying next season the colored man ob- merchant. But such is not the at they had come to lynch Eu- served two very peculiar plants case. The object of the Alliance is ne Harriston, and were going to growing in his patch, and pulling to organize the farmers and effect we him. The jailer refused them up one of them, he concluded to let some concert of action and to take to future generations this republithe keys, and they started for the the other grow, to see what would steps to relieve themselves from can form of government united and unimpared. And so long as il. They procured crowbars and come of it. It had a leaf very extreme high prices they have to we shall live may we never falter sledge hammer, and went to work | much like the okra leaf and not at | pay under the hen system; and to the jail door, which they soon all like that of cotton. It, howevwork together to build up their our organization and for the good patch. oke open. The keeper, fearing er, produced regular cotton bolls, credit and place themselves 'on of toiling humanity.'-Samuel E. and at maturity it was discovered even ground with the proudest of at other prisoners would escape, Adams. that the cotton produced by it was the golden fleece,' and to restore rected them to the cell of Harrisin. A few well directed blows of much finer quality than the orconfidence generally. Couldn't Maintain His Suit. dinary staple. It was finer and oke open the cell door, and they larger, and the length was so great 'Is it really true that labor proand the prisoner on the floor that the ordinary gin cannot be duces all the wealth of the world ? It is said that a Judge in Dakota raying, knowing that his time had me. They rushed in and seized used for it. It branches better and Of course by labor here is meant recently ordered three men out of bolls better than the ordinary cot- the putting forth of physical ener- the court room because they were m, saying, Stand up ; you black oundrel ? But he could hardly ton, and the plant appears hardier gy, otherwise the succeeding sen- coatless. This is almost the uniand from fright. His hands were and more thrifty. There is now tence has no meaning. Does any- versal custom of the courts everyd behind him and he was taken half an acre of it in cultivation on one who thinks at all about the where. When the Court finds that t into a buggy, in which he was the colored man's land, and crowds subject believe that the great fac- a man cannot maintain his suit, he ried a mile out in the country. of people go to his field to inspect tories, the vast buildings of stone is told to go .- Boston Herald. ere he was placed on ground un it as a great natural curiosity. - and brick and iron in our great r a tree, and told to pray if he Raleigh Evening Visitor. cities, the railroads, the mighty A negro named Haston, at steamships, the complicated manted to for he had only ten min-Greensboro, N. C. committed rape A noted doctor says that onions chines and innumerable other es. After praying he was placed upon a beautiful young lady namon a horse, with a rope around are the best nervine known. It structures are the result of manual ed Miss Sophia, at Kernersville neck, He was asked if he had isn't the man who cats the onions labor alone ? Suppose there is a ything to say. He tried to say that exhibits nerve; it's the man line of railway fifty miles in length last Tuesday. A mob tried to get mething but could hardly tath, who hob nobs with him. -Philadel to be built, and five thousand him for lynching after he was arsteady, intelligent, and reliable la- rested, but failed. en the borse was led off and he phia Call.

Two bystanders were asked if robes' of the profession, the elect they heard the promise. They re- who have come, into the ranks of needed.

family was increased by two new pacity to endure, to wait, to be months. members on the same day. In the patient, to be strong under temp exuberance of his happiness he forgot all about the promise until reminded of it by one of the wit- influence of evil example; but great neases. Mr. Blank bas been presented with a bill for $1,000, which under all these trying circumstanhe declined to pay. He says that ces, for the prizes that await them the agreement was a mere joke and not in the nature of a contract. Another ground of the defense will be that the remark was in the nature of a bet or wager, and therefore iflegal and not collectable.-Besides, he says it is quite probable that the plaintiff in the contemplated suit knew whereof he 1? These are questions every farspoke when he accepted the proposition, and was therefore betting are staring him in the face. All on a certainty. That would constitute fraud or deception, and under the unwritten law of betting the loser is not compelled to pay in such case. Another plea will be that the contract was not one which could be performed within a year and should therefore have expenses. P. T. Barnum, the great the portraits of any number of perbeen in writing. Unfortunately showman, in his renowned lecture case will crosh this last plea.

The plaintiff contends that no et was made, and that he was not betting on a certainty. On the Post two columns every day or contrary, he claims that there was week headed 'neccessaries'; (or a clear contract, his part of which had been fulfilled.-Savannah Dai ly News.

nett are somewhat excited over except myself, I should not care for the production, of what may be fine clothes or furniture.

called a species of hybrid cotton plant. G. J. Spears, a prominent lawyer of the cor ity, who also engages in farming, three years ago plied that they did, and promised the profession with teeth and fist o be witnesses in case they were clinched and with tar on their heels: who have come to stay. Theirs is A few days ago the young man's a life of sacrifice; theirs is the catation, to resist the wiles of idleness, the seduction of ease, and the is their reward if faithful to duty are worthy of heroic sacrifice .-E. City Economist.

"Farming Doesn't Pay."

men should ask himself, for they Marshall's ribs were broken.' the difference between failure and success lies in the rule adopted for expenditure: "Spend more than you earn and fail, spend less than you earn and succeed." Adopt telling me about composite photosome method that will increase graphs. How are they made ?" your income or else cut down your for the defendant the facts in the on "money getting" says: "When and then place them one upon per every item of expenditure. mouth.' comforts,) and 'luxuries.' even You will find the latter column double, treble and frequently ten times greater than the former. Dr. Franklin says, "It is the eyes of others and not our eyes that The people in the county of Har- ruln us. If all the world were blind

Farmer's Alliance.

The Maxton Union thus speaks BORO COMES TO A MERITED planted cotton near his garden and of the objects of the Farmers Allialongside of it planted two or three DEATH. ance: Some who do not underrows of common okra. The next season he furnished a colored stand the object and workings of about the blessings of religion?

'That's glorious.' 'You bet. Nothing helps a boom like a church.'-Omaha World.

Professional Courtesy.

The country papers are taking as Texas weekly says: 'Our baseball won't work.'

boys are doing nicely. Johnson's

An Improvement On The Paper.

"Carrie: "Oh. Frank! Tillie was Frank. 'Very'simple. You draw sons on thin, transparent paper, you find you have surplus at the another, right eye upon right eye, end of the year, mark down on pa- left eye upon left, and mouth upon > Carrie: 'But, Frank, cau't the thin paper be dispensed with?" It could and was.

Lift It Up.

'Through a close, compact, intelligent organization, a revolution has commenced-slow it may be, yet it will be sure, healthy and tobacco ? just.

'The American farmer realizes now that agriculture must be lifted up to the place where it properly gantlemanly way, as it were. belongs ; that he has interests to Gimme a chew, will you ?-Puck. be promoted and rights to be protected : that his calling must be raised to the rank of recognized

'Let us be patriots and philan thropists, and spurn all sectional tendencies. Let us strive in our order, as of one mind, to hand down siree. We have started up twenty the Democracy is going to be a -Detroit Free Press. churches within the last few little hoggish next year. It means to carry the whole country for Cleveland,-Memphis Avalanche.

A Hoggish Deception.

its Memphis are four fat little pigs.

Late Library

Oratorical Gags.

Beware, oh ye orators, of saying

Female Suffrage Later On.

Scene, Chicago, in 1987. Time a. m.

Mrs. Jones on front door stepmuch interest in baseball matiers Missher Jones come-down an' as their city contemporaries. A open 'er door ; thissher night-key

Mr. Jones, poking his head from leg is in splints and the bones the upstairs window-'I won't do It doesn't eh? Why doesn't it knitting rapidly. Dr. Jones now it. I told you last election that I pay? Who is to blame? If other thinks he will be able to save Camp, wouldn't get up to let you in any men can make it pay why cannot bell's eye, and it has been ascer- more. Here the baby's been sick tained that two instead of four of and no one to go for the doctor.

Mrs. J.-'I promise right now open 'er door ?'

but mind you my mother shall hear of an average crop was planted. all about this to-morrow. I do but the quality is going to be wish that such a thing as politics ahead of anything produced in this had never been invented.'

Just Leading Up To The Point.

terial looking chap of a sailor on dock.

Pretty often, was the reply. Drink ? "-m-yes. I git dry once in a while.

Gamble ! When th' v'yage's over I shake a few dices.

Chew tobacco ? Look here, shipmate, am't you gittin' kind'r cur'ous ? Answer me that ; do you chew

Wa'al, yes, I do. That's what I wanted to get at, and I meant to do it in a soothing,

Two Kinds of Farmers.

There are two kinds of farmers in South Carolina. One farms to obtain a living and the other to ob-

Omaha Deacon-I hope you peo- mammy and daddy pigs are now self in trying to swallow the whole ple in California do not forget being taught to twist their respect. thing, The principle is that he has ive tails into the letters S. S., which got to shell out three more marbles Southern California Man-No stands for Solid South. Fact is or I'll fight him to the last ditch.

> An lowa editor closes a rhapsodical eulogium of his State in the following/style: 'When the roll call is sounded on the judgment day, and the heavens are rolled together in a scroll, and the reverberations of wrecked and ruined worlds peal forth the flat of eternal rest, I want to hang my weary bones on the galley-rack of immortality and register in four-line pica as a man-from lowa.-Chicago Inter-Ocean.

This year Virginia and North Carolina are going to show up some of the finest tobacco that has been seen in this county for years. thisshell be 'er lash time. Wonshe From every quarter comes cheering reports concerning the growing Mr. J.- Well, I will this once. crop. Not over 50 or 60 per cent. country for years.

To take varnish off of furniture use a solution of about eight pounds Do you swear? asked a minis- common washing soda to a gallon of water. Apply this to the work with a common paint brush, and after allowing it to stand for a short time the varnish can be removed with an ordinary stiff scrubbing brush.

> Oilcloth may be improved in appearance by rubbing it with a mixture of a half ounce of beeswax in a saucerful of turpentine. Set this in a warm place until they can be thoroughly mixed. Apply with a flannel cloth, and then rub with a dry flannel.

The French method of administering castor-oil to children is to pour the oil into a pan over a moderate fire, break an egg into it and stir up. When it is done flavor with a little salt or sngar or currant jelly.

'What in thunder did you put in tain office. The former should be that glass of soda ?' he gasped .encouraged, the other discouraged. 'Whiskey, replied the clerk. 'You Nevertheless its the political farm- winked.' 'I winked? My young er that generally occupies the place friend one of my eyes is made of of prominence in agricultural con- glass. I'm a temperance apostle." in the conflict for the prosperity of ventions .- Lexington (S. C.) Dis- Boston Herald.

Be Ye Ready at all Times.

We read in our exchanges of a young lady having been made crazy by a sudden kiss. This should Do the same to shelves where black teach young ladies to be constantly ants appear. expecting something of the kind, and to be prepared for it when it comes -- Washington Progress

A Simple Remedy.

'My dear, old friend, how were you able to acquire such an immense fortune ?

'By a very simple method,' 'What method is that ?' When I was poor I made out was rich, and when I got rich I made out that I was poor.'-Texas Siftings.

Saturate the edges of carpets with a strong solution of alum water to destroy moths ; if an unpainted floor, wash the floor with it before putting down the carpet.

A canal boat loaded with beer was sunk in the North River the other day, and now all the tramps in the city have taken to drinking the water .- Rocky Mountain News.

Wholesale merchants in New York report larger orders from the South than ever before. We are glad to know that the South is able to make large orders but we long to see the time when we can get anything we want at home without ordering it from the North.