Secretary Foster is an expert accountant. He could secure a first class position anywhere on account of his ability in that line.

James Gordon Bennett, who since his duel with young May several years ago has lived in Europe, chiefly in Paris, will shortly return to make his residence in New York; and give his personal attention to the Herald, which is in some respects, the greatest paper in the world.—Wil, Star.

He Not Deceived.

North Carolinians will make a big mistake if they think that there is no longer any danger of a Force bill being passed. The Republican bloody shirters are resolved to press the matter, and but for the fact that the Democrats are in such a decided majority in the next House of Representatives a bill would pass and Harrison would gladly approve of it.

That bill will come again if Harrison is re-elected. Do not mistake the signs of the time. Massachusetts had Lodge, who introduced the bill, as chairman of its Republican convention; its resolve was for the Force bill, Ohio and every Republican State that has acted are for it.

With a Force bill threatening the liberties of a free people what madness and folly for the Southern whites to think of disintegrating the Old Democratic party and starting a Third party to bind in chains the whites of all Southland.

Charles S. Parnell.

Notwithstanding the unhappy events that clouded the last couple years of Parnell's life, and estranged from him so many who stood with and followed his leadership throughout the dozen years of his gallant struggle for his country, Ireland should and can have no other than a kind memory of Charles S. Parnell, who, last Tuesday night, passed so suddenly and unexpectedly from the stage upon which he has played so conspicuous a part.

Mr. Morgan, Commissioner of Indian Affairs, has made his report on the condition of the Indians and recommends that all Indians shall be upon land allotments and mad self-sustaining as soon as possible.

Secretary Foster is an expert accountant. He could secure a first class position anywhere on account of his ability in that line. The beautiful fictions which he sends out every month and about every day from the Treasury Department as to the amount of money on hand entitles him to the very first rank as pangoos a writer of sensational literature.

Governor Campbell has notified the papers which published the stories about his bankruptcy and speculation that immediate apology and retraction must be made or he will commit suit for libel. It was a very dirty thing upon the part of these papers to charge the Governor personally in the way they have done and it reacts in his favor.

One of the singular episodes of the past year was the fact that, while Great Britain was negotiating through its foreign office with our State Department as to the right of the United States to control and police Behring Sea to preserve the seals from destruction, Great Britain in the name of the owner of one of the Canadian sealing vessels brought suit in the United States Supreme Court to determine that question.

Judge Paschal of San Antonio, Texas has decided that an anarchist or a socialist is not a fit man to be naturalized as a citizen of the United States. Every one in the country, except the few anarchist and socialist who have already gotten a foothold here, will applaud that decision and every Judge should follow it.

Hermann Oelrichs, a member of the National Democratic Committee of New York, had a little quarrel with Mr. Flower last winter and as a consequence refused to support the Democratic ticket and has resigned from the committee. The last act of his is a very commendable one as he did not amount to anything on the committee nor will be off of it.

Mr. Morgan, Commissioner of Indian Affairs, has made his report on the condition of the Indians and recommends that all Indians shall be upon land allotments and mad self-sustaining as soon as possible.

Abraham Lincoln, himself an honest man, knew the make up of his party, and showed himself a prophet when he said: "As a result of the war, corporations have been enthroned, an era of corruption in high prices will follow, and the money power will endeavor to prolong its reign until all wealth agree-

The republic is not lost. It has merely changed hands. In the days of Democratic rule before the war 2,000,000,000 were in the hands of the other 63,000,000. But we have rather see the republic lost, than to see a mere handful of men monopolizing all the wealth, and the mass taxed to keep them in luxury and idleness.

MR. CLEVELAND IN THE NEW YORK CAMPAIGN.

Ex-President Cleveland presided at the great Democratic meeting in New York city Thursday night, and made a strong and earnest speech in which he set forth, with his usual clearness, the issues dividing the two great parties, and urged the importance of continuing aggressive work to confirm and extend the advantage gained in last fall's elections.

Miss Cleveland appears to be exerting good influence thus early. It is reported that at the conclusion of the great Democratic meeting in Cooper Union on the night of the 8th, at which ex-President Cleveland presided, and Gov. Hill was one of the speakers. He was driven to the residence of the ex-President. The latter was ambitious to show the baby and the former anxious to verify the fact that Mr. Cleveland was a father. The Cleveland and Hill factions were united around the cradle of a beautiful girl baby. They say she favors her mother.

"I am truly sorry for Johnny," said he friend of the family, meeting the boy on the street, to learn that your fathers house was burned down yesterday. Was nothing saved? "Dont you waste no grief on me, replied Johnny. All of paw's old clothes were burned up in that fire, and paw cant make any of 'em over for me this time. I'm all right."
