Mr. B. F. Williams, of Winslow, was on our streets Monday.

We are glad to see our old friend, C. E. Exum Esq., of Nashville, N. C., in town this week.

Messrs. J. H. Woodall, James Eldridge and Chas. Frankenstein, of Smithfield, paid our town a flying visit last week.

Mr. W. A. Pearce and family who have been here for two years in the Millinery business have moved to Burlington, N. C.

Mr. John E. Hood, of Smithfield, brother of D. H. Hood of the new drug store, spent several days in town and returned Monday to his home.

Gov. Holt appointed Geo. A. Shuford Esq., Judge for the 4th District to succeed Judge J. H. Merriman who resigned.

The negro who was taken up last week for stealing was carried to Smithfield and put in jail to wait the next term of Court.

When you come to Dunn either drop in at Young Bros., or call at the Times Office over Hood Bros., drug store and subscribe for the only paper published in Harnett.

The friends of Elder William Woodard, of Wilson will be sorry to hear of the death of his wife, which occurred on the 10 inst.

Capt. Whitaker, the popular and polite conductor on the Short Cut, has sent in his resignation and will accept a place as traveling salesman for the Fayetteville-Weldon Warco Co.

With this issue the TIMES closes its first year's visits to the homes of the patrons, and there are some who have not paid us and some whose subscription expires, so if we don't hear from such persons we will have to stop the paper.

Mr. Dan W. Galloway of Goldsboro, N. C., has located in our town and will buy cotton for Messrs. Sprunt & Son of Wilmington.

We learn that last Friday the last rail was laid, which now connects the Short Cut at Florence, S. C.

The numerous friends of Chas. I. Stewart, a native of this county, will be glad to hear that he is now associate editor of the Winston Sentinel.

The person who will give us in writing the best definition of a kiss by May 1st 1892, we will send the TIMES 1 year free.

Messrs. J. M. Davis and D. S. Williams two of Little River's best farmers were on our streets Tuesday.

Mr. David J. Aaron, one of the Knights of the "Grip," and editor of the Telegram of Mount Olive, paid us a call Tuesday.

Dr. Moore tells us that Mrs. J. R. Tew of Godwin, N. C. is slowly improving, we hope she will soon be out again.

Hall's Hair Renewer enjoys a world-wide reputation for restoring the hair to bald heads and changing gray hair to the original color of youth.

All we ask is a visit when wanting to buy anything we can add will convince you that we are headquarters first-class goods at rock bottom prices.

Immigrants and returning voyagers find in Ayer's Sarsaparilla a cure for eruptions, boils, pimples, eczema, etc., whether resulting from sea-dies and life on ship-board, or from any other cause.

Sunday night one of our young men had an engagement to take a certain young lady to church, after doing justice to his supper, he shined his shoes, buckled on his tie, and started to the direct abode completely mesmerized or involved in deep thought and to his great surprise when he awoke from the reverie he was standing at the wrong door.

Mr. J. H. Abell at his residence in Smithfield on Sunday February 14th at 12:30 from a stroke of Paralysis. He was a prominent lawyer, a good citizen and an influential man in Johnston county, and will be a sad loss to the town, to the county and to the bereaved family.

LILLINGTON, N. C. Feb. 15, 1892. CENTRAL TIMES:—Harriet Superior Court for Spring Term commenced Monday 8th at 10 o'clock, Hon. H. G. Connor Judge presiding.

The Criminal Docket was disposed of Tuesday. There was no important cases on the Criminal Docket. Only one important case on the Civil Docket, J. A. Cameron against the C. F. & Y. V. Railroad, the plaintiff obtained judgement for $350 damage. Court adjourned Friday evening.

Notwithstanding the hard times Mr. J. L. Thompson is a happy man, it was a 11 pound boy.

My Baby's Origin.

One night as old St. Peter slept, He left the door of Heaven ajar.

Where through a little angel crept, And came down with a falling star.

One Summer as the beams Of morn approached, my blushing bride,

Awoke from some pleasant dream, And found the angel by her side.

God grant but this, I ask no more, That when he leaves this world of sin

He'll wait his way to that blest shore, And find the door of Heaven again.

A Big Fire.

On Tuesday night about 12 o'clock m., the store and entire stock of goods of Mr. Jas. A. Taylors was burned. The loss is probably $7500 no insurance.
