

THE TIMES,

PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY, BY YOUNG & GRANTHAM.

THURSDAY, MARCH 10, 1892.

Senator Palmer, of Ill., is being talked of for all he is worth by his friends as a presidential candidate.

Rev. Tom Dixon, who is a native of North Carolina, and who has gained a national reputation as a preacher and lecturer.

The management of the TIMES has employed Mr. W. P. Byrd, who comes on with this issue as associate editor.

The Democratic State Executive Committee met in Raleigh last Wednesday and appointed May 18th for the meeting of the State Convention.

The new Roanoke & Southern Railroad which has recently been opened from Roanoke, Va., to Winston, N. C., has been leased, and will be operated in the future by the Norfolk & Western Railroad Company.

The Norfolk & Western Railroad Company has been called, and justly so, the town builder of the South.

The Progressive Farmer puts great stress on the expression of Capt. S. B. Alexander, "that the St. Louis platform is the one that all true Americans can and will heartily support."

THE THIRD PARTY.

What are you going to do about it Democrats? Now that the impulsive and mongrel convention at St. Louis has at last consummated the long since concocted schemes of mugwumps and Republicans to defeat if possible the Democracy in the coming election.

Are you to be taken in by these apostates from the doctrines of their fathers and the far speaking of a convention composed largely of foreigners whose interest is not in America nor with Americans but who, have come to wrench all they can from our people and live the life of a shark?

North Carolinians are awaking to the fact that the prosperity of this people rests in the triumph of Democracy, and that the medium through which true reform must come, is the party of Jefferson.
