Where do you get all of your information from in this little out-of-the way place?—for You never go to the city."

KATE: "Why, Jennie, you will make me vain. I have only one source of information, but it is surprising how it meets all wants. I very seldom hear of anything new but what the next few days bring me full information on the subject. Magic? Not Magazine! And a great treasure it is to us all, for it really furnishes the reading for the whole household: father has given up his magazine. that he has taken for years, as he says this one gives more and better information on the subjects of the day; and mother says that it is that that makes her such a famous housekeeper. In fact, we all agree that it is the only really static magnatine published. the only really FANILY magazine published as we have sent for samples of all of them and find that one is all for men, snother all for women, and another for children only while this one suits every one of us; so we only need to take one instead of several, and only need to take one instead of several, and that is where the economy comes in, for it is only $2.60 a year. Perhaps you think I am too lavish in my praise; but I will let you see ours, or, better still, send 10 cents to the publisher, W. Jennings Demorest, 15 Fast 14th Street, New York, for a sample copy, and I shall always consider that I have done you a great favor; and may be you will be cutting a great favor; and may be you will be cutting us out, as you say we have the reputation of being the best informed family in town.
