

THE ALLIANCE ARMY.

It Is A Mighty Order with Immense Power. Not Rich Though, For Who Knows A Millionaire Farmer?

At the State Alliance of Iowa, the report of the secretary showed that 251 new sub-Alliances had been organized within three months, an average of nearly three Alliances per day in that one State.

The Swedish farmers of Minnesota are joining hands with the native born tillers of the soil. They have organized an Alliance at Spencer Brook, Isanti county, and they will battle for reform in their adopted country.

The Alliance and Reform Press now has papers published in seven different languages in the United States, viz., English, Spanish, French, German, Norwegian, Danish and Swedish.

Make the home the center of your farm work. Make every effort to add to its beauty and its purity, and the home will in turn make your field work much lighter and pleasanter.

A bushel of corn makes for four gallons of whiskey which retails at $1.00 of this the farmer gets 40 cents, the railroad $1, the United States $3, the manufacturer $4, and the vendor $7, and the drinker—60 days and the delirium tremens.—Texas Truth.

It is expected that there will be some surprising figures when the report for Ohio is completed. Some facts are already known. For instance, the Ohio State board of equalization shows that the assessed value of farm lands in that State has decreased $98,000,000 in ten years.

Mr. Peffer, of Kansas, introduced another of his characteristic bills to authorize the Secreary of the Treasury to exchange Treasury notes at par for all outstanding United States bonds.

Mr. Oates, of Alabama, (by request) has introduced in the House a bill to issue $1,000,000 to each of the Congressional districts of the country for the purpose of enlarging the national banking system.

The "Alliance member" referred to in the opening line of Representative Williams' speech, was Hon. W. A. McKeighan, under the rule, spoke only five minutes; and Eastern Democrats objected to continuation of his remarks in the Record; but he created a most favorable impression.

Senator Peffer has a kind heart beneath his florid whiskers. He happened to be descending the basement steps of the Senate when his eyes caught sight of a newsboy who was stumbling headlong, having been up by a gust of wind.

The finished returns show a great Republican victory. On the State ticket Brown (Republican), candidate for Governor, polled 27,464; Wardell (Democrat), 25,385; Gilbert (Prohibitionist), 1,587; Burton (People's candidate), 188 and 75 scattering.

The cities of Providence, Newport and Woonsocket went Democratic on the late ticket. The legislative returns show a good Republican majority in both branches already, with between 15 and 20 vacancies yet to be filled.

COLUMBIA, S. C.—When the Grand Opera Company, while playing a week's engagement here finished their rehearsal Thomas H. Perze, the tenor, requested the folks to remain on the stage for a few minutes.

A certain capitalistic newspaper, after long and diligent search, has heard of a farmer who is worth $500,000. It doesn't give his name or address, but it has heard of him and, therefore, concludes that the remaining farmers of the United States have no cause of complaint.

Cornelius Vanderbilt has become dissatisfied with his palatial residence on Fifth avenue, New York, and will build a new one at a cost of $2,000,000. This palace is to be erected on Fifth avenue, between Fifty-seventh and Fifty-eighth streets, and will be the most magnificent in the city.

Now, if the farmers of this country ought to be satisfied because one of their number has gained $500,000, and if that fact proves the prosperity of all farmers, ought not the people who are not farmers to be more than satisfied because 31,000 of them have become millionaires? Certainly then farmers must be more prosperous than farmers, according to that argument; therefore, there is no poverty in America; no cause of complaint, the hungry and ragged are mistaken, there are millionaires among us, therefore we are all prosperous, etc. Is that what our opponents call argument?

COLUMBUS DAY, OCTOBER 12TH.

Entire Country Asked to Participate in the Recognition of This 400th Anniversary of America's Discovery.

CHICAGO, ILL.—President Bonney of the World's Congress Auxiliary of the Columbian Exposition, has issued an address regarding the celebration of Discovery Day, October 12.

The address suggests that at least one feature of the exercises be identical in both Exposition dedication and local Celebrations.

President Bonney and the national body of Superintendents of Education have jointly appointed the following named Executive Committee to promote the celebration and prepare a uniform program for use in all localities:

Francis Bellamy, of the Youth's Companion, Boston, Chairman, and the following named State Superintendents of Education: J. W. Dickinson, Massachusetts; T. B. Stockwell, Rhode Island; W. R. Garrett, Tennessee; W. C. Hewitt, Michigan.

The committee will also, through State Superintendents of Education, solicit the Governors of the States to proclaim October 12 a holiday.

Winston, N. C.—The county commissioners in session refused to grant liquor license to Jesse Adams & Co. and Wilson & Bowden.

Two large alligators were shot near Aiken last week.

Columbia's postoffice receipts for the year ending March 31, show a gain of $2,136.

Laurens will spend $10,000 for a new graded school, the citizens having voted that last week.

Senator Butler has been making a short visit to his home in Edgefield. He delivered an address at Orangeburg on the 12th instant appropriate to the dedication of the Confederate soldiers' monument at that place.

The opening month of this year was the worst in railroad earnings ever known in the State since any record has been kept.

PROVIDENCE, R. I.—Although the Democrats gained six assemblies in the Legislature still remains Republican.

THE BIGGER THE CHOP THE LESS THE MONKEY. The farms of the United States received $48,000,000 less for raising 76,000,000 bushels of corn in 1883 than they did for raising 68,000,000 acres in 1882.

THE "MICK" FARMER. A certain capitalistic newspaper, after long and diligent search, has heard of a farmer who is worth $500,000.

Cornelius Vanderbilt has become dissatisfied with his palatial residence on Fifth avenue, New York, and will build a new one at a cost of $2,000,000.

Now, if the farmers of this country ought to be satisfied because one of their number has gained $500,000, and if that fact proves the prosperity of all farmers, ought not the people who are not farmers to be more than satisfied because 31,000 of them have become millionaires?

Now, if the farmers of this country ought to be satisfied because one of their number has gained $500,000, and if that fact proves the prosperity of all farmers, ought not the people who are not farmers to be more than satisfied because 31,000 of them have become millionaires?

Now, if the farmers of this country ought to be satisfied because one of their number has gained $500,000, and if that fact proves the prosperity of all farmers, ought not the people who are not farmers to be more than satisfied because 31,000 of them have become millionaires?

Now, if the farmers of this country ought to be satisfied because one of their number has gained $500,000, and if that fact proves the prosperity of all farmers, ought not the people who are not farmers to be more than satisfied because 31,000 of them have become millionaires?

Now, if the farmers of this country ought to be satisfied because one of their number has gained $500,000, and if that fact proves the prosperity of all farmers, ought not the people who are not farmers to be more than satisfied because 31,000 of them have become millionaires?

Now, if the farmers of this country ought to be satisfied because one of their number has gained $500,000, and if that fact proves the prosperity of all farmers, ought not the people who are not farmers to be more than satisfied because 31,000 of them have become millionaires?

Now, if the farmers of this country ought to be satisfied because one of their number has gained $500,000, and if that fact proves the prosperity of all farmers, ought not the people who are not farmers to be more than satisfied because 31,000 of them have become millionaires?

Now, if the farmers of this country ought to be satisfied because one of their number has gained $500,000, and if that fact proves the prosperity of all farmers, ought not the people who are not farmers to be more than satisfied because 31,000 of them have become millionaires?

Now, if the farmers of this country ought to be satisfied because one of their number has gained $500,000, and if that fact proves the prosperity of all farmers, ought not the people who are not farmers to be more than satisfied because 31,000 of them have become millionaires?

Now, if the farmers of this country ought to be satisfied because one of their number has gained $500,000, and if that fact proves the prosperity of all farmers, ought not the people who are not farmers to be more than satisfied because 31,000 of them have become millionaires?

HARBINGERS OF SPRING

News Note as Fresh as the Crisp Air. The Most Interesting Event Happening in Three States Chronicled Here.

VIRGINIA. The Petersburg electric railway has begun running. A series of successful religious meetings just closed at Bedford City.

Senator Colquitt, of Georgia, addressed the University Temperance Union Tuesday. Senator Mills, of Texas, has been invited to address the Washington Society of the University of Virginia.

Three hundred shade trees have recently been set out on the different streets of Petersburg under the supervision of the city engineer.

Forty-seven foreigners were naturalized at Tazewell Courthouse. They will cast their first votes for Mayor of Pocahontas.

The Norfolk and Western Railroad Company are pushing work on their Ohio division in order to accommodate travel to the World's Fair. The present terminus is in Tazewell county.

INTERNAL REVENUE COLLECTIONS FOR THE FIFTH DISTRICT FOR MARCH AMOUNTED TO $123,497.61.

The fire insurance companies of the State have made their reports, which show that they have not made money.

The Odd Fellows of Yadkin county will hold a celebration. State Auditor Sandherr will deliver the address.

Thirty-eight more convicts were sent from the penitentiary to convict farms on the Roanoke river, making 600 now on the farms.

State Inspector of Fertilizers Terrell says that in the stretch of country between Charlotte and Lenoirburg he has no preparation for speaking of for cotton. Everybody is planting corn.

A special term of Lincoln County Superior Court has been ordered by Governor Holt to begin May 23rd and to continue two weeks, and to be for the trial of criminal and civil cases.

SOUTH CAROLINA. Two large alligators were shot near Aiken last week.

Columbia's postoffice receipts for the year ending March 31, show a gain of $2,136.

Laurens will spend $10,000 for a new graded school, the citizens having voted that last week.

Senator Butler has been making a short visit to his home in Edgefield. He delivered an address at Orangeburg on the 12th instant appropriate to the dedication of the Confederate soldiers' monument at that place.

The opening month of this year was the worst in railroad earnings ever known in the State since any record has been kept.

PROVIDENCE, R. I.—Although the Democrats gained six assemblies in the Legislature still remains Republican.

THE BIGGER THE CHOP THE LESS THE MONKEY. The farms of the United States received $48,000,000 less for raising 76,000,000 bushels of corn in 1883 than they did for raising 68,000,000 acres in 1882.

THE "MICK" FARMER. A certain capitalistic newspaper, after long and diligent search, has heard of a farmer who is worth $500,000.

Cornelius Vanderbilt has become dissatisfied with his palatial residence on Fifth avenue, New York, and will build a new one at a cost of $2,000,000.

Now, if the farmers of this country ought to be satisfied because one of their number has gained $500,000, and if that fact proves the prosperity of all farmers, ought not the people who are not farmers to be more than satisfied because 31,000 of them have become millionaires?

Now, if the farmers of this country ought to be satisfied because one of their number has gained $500,000, and if that fact proves the prosperity of all farmers, ought not the people who are not farmers to be more than satisfied because 31,000 of them have become millionaires?

Now, if the farmers of this country ought to be satisfied because one of their number has gained $500,000, and if that fact proves the prosperity of all farmers, ought not the people who are not farmers to be more than satisfied because 31,000 of them have become millionaires?

Now, if the farmers of this country ought to be satisfied because one of their number has gained $500,000, and if that fact proves the prosperity of all farmers, ought not the people who are not farmers to be more than satisfied because 31,000 of them have become millionaires?

Now, if the farmers of this country ought to be satisfied because one of their number has gained $500,000, and if that fact proves the prosperity of all farmers, ought not the people who are not farmers to be more than satisfied because 31,000 of them have become millionaires?

WILL McENERY MEN BOLT?

Electoral Commission Methods Charged in Louisiana's Count. NEW ORLEANS, LA.—The Democracy of Louisiana is split again, and this time worse than ever.

NEW ORLEANS, LA.—The Democracy of Louisiana is split again, and this time worse than ever. The compromise by which it was sought to unite the two Democratic factions, each of which had a full State ticket in the field, headed by McEnery and Foster respectively, provided for a general Democratic primary on March 22.

NEW ORLEANS, LA.—The Democracy of Louisiana is split again, and this time worse than ever. The compromise by which it was sought to unite the two Democratic factions, each of which had a full State ticket in the field, headed by McEnery and Foster respectively, provided for a general Democratic primary on March 22.

NEW ORLEANS, LA.—The Democracy of Louisiana is split again, and this time worse than ever. The compromise by which it was sought to unite the two Democratic factions, each of which had a full State ticket in the field, headed by McEnery and Foster respectively, provided for a general Democratic primary on March 22.

NEW ORLEANS, LA.—The Democracy of Louisiana is split again, and this time worse than ever. The compromise by which it was sought to unite the two Democratic factions, each of which had a full State ticket in the field, headed by McEnery and Foster respectively, provided for a general Democratic primary on March 22.

NEW ORLEANS, LA.—The Democracy of Louisiana is split again, and this time worse than ever. The compromise by which it was sought to unite the two Democratic factions, each of which had a full State ticket in the field, headed by McEnery and Foster respectively, provided for a general Democratic primary on March 22.

NEW ORLEANS, LA.—The Democracy of Louisiana is split again, and this time worse than ever. The compromise by which it was sought to unite the two Democratic factions, each of which had a full State ticket in the field, headed by McEnery and Foster respectively, provided for a general Democratic primary on March 22.

NEW ORLEANS, LA.—The Democracy of Louisiana is split again, and this time worse than ever. The compromise by which it was sought to unite the two Democratic factions, each of which had a full State ticket in the field, headed by McEnery and Foster respectively, provided for a general Democratic primary on March 22.

NEW ORLEANS, LA.—The Democracy of Louisiana is split again, and this time worse than ever. The compromise by which it was sought to unite the two Democratic factions, each of which had a full State ticket in the field, headed by McEnery and Foster respectively, provided for a general Democratic primary on March 22.

NEW ORLEANS, LA.—The Democracy of Louisiana is split again, and this time worse than ever. The compromise by which it was sought to unite the two Democratic factions, each of which had a full State ticket in the field, headed by McEnery and Foster respectively, provided for a general Democratic primary on March 22.

NEW ORLEANS, LA.—The Democracy of Louisiana is split again, and this time worse than ever. The compromise by which it was sought to unite the two Democratic factions, each of which had a full State ticket in the field, headed by McEnery and Foster respectively, provided for a general Democratic primary on March 22.

NEW ORLEANS, LA.—The Democracy of Louisiana is split again, and this time worse than ever. The compromise by which it was sought to unite the two Democratic factions, each of which had a full State ticket in the field, headed by McEnery and Foster respectively, provided for a general Democratic primary on March 22.

NEW ORLEANS, LA.—The Democracy of Louisiana is split again, and this time worse than ever. The compromise by which it was sought to unite the two Democratic factions, each of which had a full State ticket in the field, headed by McEnery and Foster respectively, provided for a general Democratic primary on March 22.

NEW ORLEANS, LA.—The Democracy of Louisiana is split again, and this time worse than ever. The compromise by which it was sought to unite the two Democratic factions, each of which had a full State ticket in the field, headed by McEnery and Foster respectively, provided for a general Democratic primary on March 22.

NEW ORLEANS, LA.—The Democracy of Louisiana is split again, and this time worse than ever. The compromise by which it was sought to unite the two Democratic factions, each of which had a full State ticket in the field, headed by McEnery and Foster respectively, provided for a general Democratic primary on March 22.

NEW ORLEANS, LA.—The Democracy of Louisiana is split again, and this time worse than ever. The compromise by which it was sought to unite the two Democratic factions, each of which had a full State ticket in the field, headed by McEnery and Foster respectively, provided for a general Democratic primary on March 22.

NEW ORLEANS, LA.—The Democracy of Louisiana is split again, and this time worse than ever. The compromise by which it was sought to unite the two Democratic factions, each of which had a full State ticket in the field, headed by McEnery and Foster respectively, provided for a general Democratic primary on March 22.

NEW ORLEANS, LA.—The Democracy of Louisiana is split again, and this time worse than ever. The compromise by which it was sought to unite the two Democratic factions, each of which had a full State ticket in the field, headed by McEnery and Foster respectively, provided for a general Democratic primary on March 22.

NEW ORLEANS, LA.—The Democracy of Louisiana is split again, and this time worse than ever. The compromise by which it was sought to unite the two Democratic factions, each of which had a full State ticket in the field, headed by McEnery and Foster respectively, provided for a general Democratic primary on March 22.

NEW ORLEANS, LA.—The Democracy of Louisiana is split again, and this time worse than ever. The compromise by which it was sought to unite the two Democratic factions, each of which had a full State ticket in the field, headed by McEnery and Foster respectively, provided for a general Democratic primary on March 22.

NEW ORLEANS, LA.—The Democracy of Louisiana is split again, and this time worse than ever. The compromise by which it was sought to unite the two Democratic factions, each of which had a full State ticket in the field, headed by McEnery and Foster respectively, provided for a general Democratic primary on March 22.

NEW ORLEANS, LA.—The Democracy of Louisiana is split again, and this time worse than ever. The compromise by which it was sought to unite the two Democratic factions, each of which had a full State ticket in the field, headed by McEnery and Foster respectively, provided for a general Democratic primary on March 22.

NEW ORLEANS, LA.—The Democracy of Louisiana is split again, and this time worse than ever. The compromise by which it was sought to unite the two Democratic factions, each of which had a full State ticket in the field, headed by McEnery and Foster respectively, provided for a general Democratic primary on March 22.

NEW ORLEANS, LA.—The Democracy of Louisiana is split again, and this time worse than ever. The compromise by which it was sought to unite the two Democratic factions, each of which had a full State ticket in the field, headed by McEnery and Foster respectively, provided for a general Democratic primary on March 22.

NEW ORLEANS, LA.—The Democracy of Louisiana is split again, and this time worse than ever. The compromise by which it was sought to unite the two Democratic factions, each of which had a full State ticket in the field, headed by McEnery and Foster respectively, provided for a general Democratic primary on March 22.

NEW ORLEANS, LA.—The Democracy of Louisiana is split again, and this time worse than ever. The compromise by which it was sought to unite the two Democratic factions, each of which had a full State ticket in the field, headed by McEnery and Foster respectively, provided for a general Democratic primary on March 22.

CHARLOTTE TRAGEDIES.

A Policeman Dead From a Barglar's Bullet. Five of the Seven Jail Breakers Brought Back Alive, One Dead, and Boyd, the Wrecker, Still at Large.

Exciting times they have had at Charlotte, N. C., for a week. Following close upon the heels of the jail delivery, a policeman was shot in the dead of night, while attempting to arrest a negro, who was stealing a sack of flour.

This was Friday night, the thief making his escape minus the flour, while his friends bore Policeman James Moran to his home. Here he lingered in pain and suffering until 12:30 o'clock Monday morning, when he died.

Moran was a native of Ireland, moving to this country in 1857, and was 60 years of age, having been an efficient and popular member of the Charlotte police force for three years, serving on Ser. rec. Orr's squad.

The Board of Aldermen by motion on Alderman Springs, voted unanimously to defray all the funeral expenses. The following resolution was also passed.

WHEREAS, James Moran, one of the regular policemen of this city, while in the discharge of his duty as policeman, was shot and killed by a party resisting arrest, it is duly resolved by the Board of Aldermen,

"That the treasurer be directed to pay all dues to the Mutual Building & Loan Association due from said James Moran, in payment of his lot in said city, until the said mortgage shall have been fully satisfied, thus relieving the property from embarrassment, and securing a home to the family of a faithful policeman."

Alderman Clarkson moved that the Board and police force attend the funeral of Policeman Moran in a body, which was unanimously agreed to.

The funeral services were conducted Tuesday morning from St. Peter's Catholic church. Mass was said by Rev. Father Francis and requiem mass was sung. The members of the police force were in uniform. Every honor and respect was paid the faithful officer.

THE MURDERER. The negro who fired the shot that killed Policeman Moran, is quite a boy, not in appearance over 16 years old. He is very black, and about average height. He gives his name as Nelson Murdock, and was captured in Chester by J. C. Chief of Police Morgan.

He is now lodged in jail at Charlotte, and confesses that he shot Mr. Moran, describing the locality where the shooting took place. The flour was taken from E. F. Young & Co. The other negro who was with him gave him the pistol, and told him if any policeman attempted to arrest them (the other negro) would take off the goods, and for Moran to shoot him. Murdock was under the impression that he shot Officer Moran in the lower part of the abdomen. He had his pistol in his coat pocket, and fired as he spoke to the officer. He then ran. The next morning his aunt, who lives near the city, bought him a ticket to Chester, and he took the train at the public square, where he remained hid in the woods near Chester until Monday when he ventured into town and was caught.

Sequel to the Jail Break. Jas. Patterson, J. H. Graham, Will Smith and Abe Johnson, were safely returned to the cells from which they escaped, last Thursday night. John Graham was captured at Spartanburg, on Friday; Jas. Patterson and Bob Pharr were captured near the same place Saturday; and Will Smith and Abe Johnson were captured at Chester, Saturday night. Graham was brought in Saturday by Sergeant J. Tom and policeman Baker. Patterson and Pharr were brought in Sunday evening by Sheriff Smith, the former alive, the latter died from wounds received while resisting arrest; and Smith and Johnson were brought in Sunday evening by Deputies Johnson and Will Orr.

BOYD WAS CAPTURED IN UNION COUNTY, S. C., TWELVE MILES FROM THE COURTHOUSE. Mr. Farrar, who hearing that he was near a kinsman, started in that part of the county, surprised and secured him. Boyd was turned over to Sheriff Smith, of Mecklenburg county and now rests in jail again at Charlotte.

PROGRESS OF THE SOUTH. In its issue of the 8th instant, the Manufacturers' Record, of Baltimore, summarizes the chief items in its list of new enterprises for the week as follows:

A $50,000 glass manufacturing company at Baltimore, Md.; a $100,000 brick making company at Grover, N. C.; a $15,000 woodworking company at Jackson, Tenn.; a $20,000 paint company, and a $10,000 manufacturing company at Roanoke, Va.; a $500,000 hedge and wire fence company at Ocala, Fla.; a $1,000,000 excelsior company at Charleston, W. Va.; a $250,000 pickling mill, at Wheeling, W. Va.; a $100,000 cotton-seed oil mill company at Shreveport, La.; a $25,000 stationary company at Dallas, Texas; a $40,000 brick works company at New Orleans, La.; a $26,000 aluminum company at Covington, Ky.; a $60,000 cotton-seed oil mill company at Coahoma, Miss.; a $20,000 oil and mine oil company at Waveland, Ark.; a $100,000 manufacturing company at Wheeling, W. Va.; a $25,000 glass manufacturing company at Fairmont, W. Va.; a $10,000 brick and clay works company at New Orleans, La.; and a $50,000 cotton ginning company at Dallas, Texas.

A NEW MORMON TEMPLE. SALT LAKE, UTAH.—The capstone of the Mormon temple was laid with impressive ceremonies in the presence of 30,000 "saints."

A SARATOGA CO. MIRACLE.

HELPLESS FOR YEARS AND EXCLUDED FROM HOSPITALS AS INCURABLE. THE REMARKABLE EXPERIENCE OF CHAS. QUANT AS INVESTIGATED BY AN ALBANY (N. Y.) JOURNAL REPORTER.—A STORY OF SURPASSING INTEREST.

ALBANY, N. Y. Journal, March 12th. SARATOGA, March 11th.—For some time past there have been reports here and elsewhere in Saratoga County of a most remarkable case—indeed, so remarkable as to be miraculous—of a most severe case of locomotor ataxia, or creeping paralysis, simply by the use of a popular remedy known as the Pills for Pale People, prepared and put up by Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, New York, for Dr. Brockwell, Ont.

The story was to the effect that Mr. Chas. A. Quant, of Galway, who for the last six or eight years has been grossly afflicted from creeping paralysis and its attendant ills, and who had become utterly powerless of self-help, had, by the use of a few boxes of the Pills for Pale People, been fully restored to health as to be able to walk about the street without the aid of crutches.

The fame of this wonderful medicinal cure was so great that the Evening Journal reporter thought it worth his while to go to Galway to call on Mr. Quant, to learn from his lips and see for himself the truth of the story of his neighbors, if his alleged cure was a fact or only an unfounded rumor.

And so he did, and he was fully satisfied, and a night there in visiting Mr. Quant, getting his story and interviewing his neighbors and fellow-townsmen. It may be proper to state here that the town of Galway is a village of about 400 people, delightfully located near the center of the town of Saratoga, in Saratoga County, and about 17 miles from Saratoga Springs.

Upon inquiry the residence of Mr. Charles A. Quant was easily found, for he was so well known to the people of the town, and to be overflowing with surprise and satisfaction at his wonderful cure and restoration to health, and his renewed citizenship, for Mr. Quant was born in Galway and had spent most of his life there. Mr. Quant was found at his present residence, in response to a knock at the door it was opened by a man who, in reply to an inquiry if Mr. Quant lived there, answered as follows: "I am Mr. Quant. Will you come in?"

After a little general and preliminary conversation, and after he had been apprised of the object for which the Journal reporter had called upon him, he, at request, told the story of himself and of his sickness and cure, and of his subsequent recovery, and of the fact that he had been fully restored to health, and of his full cure by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, and of his subsequent recovery, and of the fact that he had been fully restored to health, and of his full cure by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People.

After a little general and preliminary conversation, and after he had been apprised of the object for which the Journal reporter had called upon him, he, at request, told the story of himself and of his sickness and cure, and of his subsequent recovery, and of the fact that he had been fully restored to health, and of his full cure by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People.

After a little general and preliminary conversation, and after he had been apprised of the object for which the Journal reporter had called upon him, he, at request, told the story of himself and of his sickness and cure, and of his subsequent recovery, and of the fact that he had been fully restored to health, and of his full cure by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People.

After a little general and preliminary conversation, and after he had been apprised of the object for which the Journal reporter had called upon him, he, at request, told the story of himself and of his sickness and cure, and of his subsequent recovery, and of the fact that he had been fully restored to health, and of his full cure by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People.

After a little general and preliminary conversation, and after he had been apprised of the object for which the Journal reporter had called upon him, he, at request, told the story of himself and of his sickness and cure, and of his subsequent recovery, and of the fact that he had been fully restored to health, and of his full cure by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People.

After a little general and preliminary conversation, and after he had been apprised of the object for which the Journal reporter had called upon him, he, at request, told the story of himself and of his sickness and cure, and of his subsequent recovery, and of the fact that he had been fully restored to health, and of his full cure by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People.

After a little general and preliminary conversation, and after he had been apprised of the object for which the Journal reporter had called upon him, he, at request, told the story of himself and of his sickness and cure, and of his subsequent recovery, and of the fact that he had been fully restored to health, and of his full cure by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People.

After a little general and preliminary conversation, and after he had been apprised of the object for which the Journal reporter had called upon him, he, at request, told the story of himself and of his sickness and cure, and of his subsequent recovery, and of the fact that he had been fully restored to health, and of his full cure by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People.

After a little general and preliminary conversation, and after he had been apprised of the object for which the Journal reporter had called upon him, he, at request, told the story of himself and of his sickness and cure, and of his subsequent recovery, and of the fact that he had been fully restored to health, and of his full cure by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People.

After a little general and preliminary conversation, and after he had been apprised of the object for which the Journal reporter had called upon him, he, at request, told the story of himself and of his sickness and cure, and of his subsequent recovery, and of the fact that he had been fully restored to health, and of his full cure by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People.

After a little general and preliminary conversation, and after he had been apprised of the object for which the Journal