

THE TIMES,
PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY, BY YOUNG & GRANTHAM.
THURSDAY, JUNE 30, 1902.
DEMOCRATIC STATE TICKET.
FOR GOVERNOR:
ELIAS CARR,
of Edgecombe.
FOR LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR:
R. A. DOUGMTON,
of Alleghany.
FOR SECRETARY OF STATE:
OCTAVIUS COKE,
of Wake.
FOR TREASURER:
DONALD W. BAIN,
of Wake.
FOR AUDITOR:
R. M. FURMAN,
of Buncombe.
FOR SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC IN-STRUCTION:
JOHN C. SCARBOROUGH, of Johnston.
FOR ATTORNEY GENERAL:
FRANK I. OSBORNE,
of Mecklenburg.
PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS FOR THE STATE AT LARGE:
C. B. AYCOCK, of Wayne.
R. B. GLENN, of Forsyth.
FOR JUDGE TWELFTH DISTRICT:
GEORGE A. SHUFORD,
of Buncombe.

June the 22nd the National Democratic Convention met in Chicago to name the men who should head the National Democracy, and in doing this they did the thing in good style.
The man who the Times has always advocated was chosen first on the ticket, Grover Cleveland, the far sighted Statesman, the man who once filled the Presidents chair, again was put forth in that Convention in which every Territory, State and corner was represented. He was successful even though New York, with her 72 votes cast against him. All the forces that could be gotten up combined did not baffle him.

For the second man Aldai E. Stevenson, Esq., of Illinois, was taken and in this selection, as an esteem to his ancestry, North Carolina ought to give him and Cleveland a big majority. Mr. Stevenson's parents were born in Ireddell county, this State, and his family connections remain yet in that county. Now the great light is coming ad it behooves the patriotic Democrats to rally and say they will not be defeated. The champion leaders of Tammany say if New York State will work for Cleveland like they will do in the city, that the State is solid for him. So we cannot see how any man with white parents can oppose the two men on this ticket. The National platform can't be objected to, the silver question is settled in the platform, now it's a matter of choice between a friend to the South, Grover Cleveland, and a Democratic administration, or an enemy who would grind us under the force bill, negro rule and a Republican President and administration.

Southern voters can we afford it!
I say in behalf of your good name we can't and won't.
There have been ratification meetings and Cleveland clubs formed at Raleigh, Winston, Fayetteville, Henderson, Salisbury, Charlotte, Goldsboro and many other towns in the State.
We hope the same course will be at once pursued at every court house and hamlet.
We are entering on the most important contest that has been waged in North Carolina since the gifted Vance in 1876 overthrew the Republican cohorts and redeemed the State.
It must be a campaign of enthusiasm. Every Democrat should lay aside every doubt and begin with a hurray and end with a shout of victory. It must be made a red hot campaign from now out. Let everybody discard every thought but Cleveland and Stevenson, Carr and the Democratic ticket and enthusiastically press forward for the success of the party.—News and Observer.

TO THE NEWSPAPER MEN OF NORTH CAROLINA.
The next meeting of the North Carolina Press Association will be held in Charlotte Wednesday and Thursday, July 27th and 28th. It is unnecessary to add that the entertainment by the Queen City will truly be royal, and that she wants every editor in North Carolina to come.
Every editor and publisher in North Carolina ought to be a member of the Association. All of us should take interest and pride in the organization and attend the annual meetings. The meetings for the past few years have been highly successful ones, and are attended by the leading State editors. We think the meeting in Charlotte will be the largest ever held.

NEW MEMBERS.
I make the following extracts from the constitution:
Sec. 5. Every applicant for membership must have been connected with the newspaper business, either as editor or publisher, at least three months before making application, and he shall file with his application a copy of his publication with satisfactory evidence that he is the editor or publisher thereof.
Sec. 9. The provisions of this article shall not extend to editors or publishers of school and college papers, or other publications that have nothing in common with the newspaper business, or to owners of newspapers who are not directly engaged in the editorial or management thereof, or to any persons who are not bona fide editors or publishers of publications conducted as legitimate newspaper enterprises as distinguished from advertising sheets or papers published as accessory to some other business of the editor or publisher.

The fee for new membership is $3.00, which amount pays the initiation fee and also the dues for one year. The fee must be sent with the application for membership. If you are not a member and wish to join the Association, write to me, enclosing $3.00 and stating your desire to become a member. Your application will go before the Executive Committee, and if rejected, your money will be refunded.

EXCURSION.
I am now perfecting arrangements for an excursion to Washington and New York, particulars of which will be announced when the arrangements are completed. In the meantime, if there is any probability of your going on this excursion, write me at once. Your wife will be entitled to all the privileges that you are on this trip. State also if she will accompany you. The convention will be in session two days, and the excursion will be taken immediately after its adjournment. It may be added that the privileges of the excursion will be open only to those editors who attend the meeting in Charlotte. For obvious reasons this imperative. If you will attend the meeting write me immediately over what route you will go to reach Charlotte, so that passes may be secured for you. The time is limited, and I must have your name at once.
I hope to meet you and grasp your hand at Charlotte.
Fraternally yours,
J. B. SHERRILL, Sec. N. C. P. A.

Grover Cleveland was born in the little village of Caldwell, Essex county, New Jersey, on March 18, 1837, and before the next 18th of March he will be bustling things around in the White House, and fumigating the odor of Republicanism out of the corridors.
Adlai E. Stevenson was born on the 23rd day of October, 1835, in Christian county, Kentucky, but while still a boy his parents moved to Bloomington, Illinois. It is thought that Mr. Stevenson's nomination for the Vice-Presidency will secure for the ticket the electoral votes of Illinois.—Observer.

N. C. BOYS AT ROANOKE.
We are pleased to note that North Carolina boys took a prominent position at the Commencement of Roanoke College, Va., and won honors there.
The salutary was delivered by John Luther Randleman, of Salisbury, N. C. Among the addresses was one by Edward V. Cox, of Dunn, N. C., on "National Control of Railroads," and one by Herbert M.
Smith, of Conover, N. C., on "The Failure of Invention." The degree of Master of Arts was conferred upon E. A. Smith, of Conover, N. C., and P. E. Wright, of Enochville, N. C.
The contest for the medal in Greek resulted in a tie, and as the grades were nearly a maximum a medal was awarded to each of the contestants—Carroll H. Little, of Hickory, N. C., and Jerry C. Stone, Dublin, Va. A certificate of first distinction was also awarded to Mr.
Little, and certificates of second distinction to Mr. Lamm, of Lenoir, N. C., and C. L. Miller, of Gold Hill, N. C.

It was at the commencement of this college that Congressman Bryan delivered the oration, "Young Men in Politics."—Caucasian.

A POPULAR FAMILY.
"How is it, Kate, that you always seem to catch on to the latest thing? Do what I may, you always seem to get ahead of me."
"I don't know; I certainly do not make any exertion in that direction."
"Why, then, you are the best thing I know of, for example, you have taken up painting, without any teacher; you came to the rescue when Miss Lattiger deserted her delicate class so suddenly, and certainly we are all improving in grace under your instruction. I heard you telling Tommy James last evening how his club made mistakes in playing baseball; you seem to be up on all the latest facts, and know just what to do under all circumstances; you entertain beautifully; and in the last month you have improved in health, owing, you tell me, to your physical culture exercises. Where do you get all of your information from in this little old-of-the-way place?—for you never get to the city."
"Why, James, you will make me vain. I have only one source of information, but it is surprising how it meets all wants. I very seldom hear of anything new but what the next few days bring me full information on the subject. Magic? No! Magic! And a great treasure it is to us all, for it really furnishes the reading for the whole household. Father has given up his magazine that he has taken for years, as he says this one gives more and better information on the subjects of the day; and mother says that it is that that makes her so famous in the neighborhood. In fact, we all agree that the only really FAMILY magazine published, as we have sent for samples of all of them, and find that one is all for men, another all for women, and another for children only. While this one suits every one of us, so we only need to take one instead of several, and that is where the economy comes in, for it is only $2.00 a year. Perhaps you think I am too lavish in my praise; but I will let you see ours, or, better still, send it to the publisher, W. Jennings Woodson, 15 East 14th Street, New York City. I will send you a copy, and I shall always consider that I have done you a great favor; and may be you will be cutting us out as you say, and the reputation of being the best informed family in town. If that be so, it is Democracy's Family Magazine that does it."
TIPSON, Mo., March 5, 1901.
My daughter was taken with cataplexy when about 3 or 4 years old; we tried different medicines but without effect. It is now about 2 years since she began taking Pastor Koening's Nerve Tonic and she has not had an attack of the disease since that time.
