THE FOURTH PARTY.

The following from a Texas paper is going the rounds of the press and we publish it by request:

"ED. COURIER:—Being an old and astute politician and having carefully studied and analyzed the Democratic, Republican and Third party political platforms and finding them all rotten and corrupt to the core, of evil and only evil tendencies, calculated in their nature, design and purpose to bring disaster, ruin, poverty and destruction to the masses, and believing there is yet hope of averting the disastrous ruin and that threatens our country by organizing a fourth political party similar and yet dissimilar to either of the aforesaid parties; similar to some of the forgoing, as it is made up entirely of the rag-tag, bob-tail, dissatisfied, disaffected, grumbling, growling, whining members of other political parties; and dissimilar as, no man is allowed to become a member of this party for our party trade or influence.

I hereby call a mass meeting of such men as above described to meet in John Borbee's opera hall on the night of May 21, between the hours of 1 and 2 o'clock, for the purpose of organizing and fully equipping for the war of this fourth political party.
When fully organized we will elect by ballot a sufficient number of men to fully, secretly, stealthily and sneakily canvass all the entire county of Hamilton. It shall be the duty of canvassers to lie on, misrepresent, and throw their nasty filth and slime, and even puke on all other political organizations. I hereby notify all interested parties that no one shall hold office in or even become a member of this party until he fully endorses and subscribes to the following oath:

"I, A. B., in the presence of these, my disgruntled brethren, do most sincerely promise and swear that old Jim Hogg is personally and individually responsible for the droughts, eyclones, hail storms, short crops and low prices of farm products in the State of Texas; if Clark is elected Governor he will have the country in a worse fix than Hogg has, for I do solemnly swear that Clark is a bigger har and smarter man than Hogg.

"I furthermore do solemnly promise and swear that I will not, under any circumstances whatever, vote for any man for any office who can read and write or whose State and county taxes amount to more than two dollars a year.

"I do furthermore most solemnly and sincerely swear by all that is good and bad, with all the devil and vim there is in me, that I do honestly and sincerely believe that the property accumulated by the hard licks, industry and economy of our wealthiest men ought to be divided equally between the lazy disgruntled members of this party, and I furthermore swear that I will never be satisfied until this is done. I furthermore tip-toe and rock back on my dew-claws and most solemnly, sincerely, willingly and anxiously promise and swear that I will never plant more than half crop of anything and will under no circumstances half work that, and furthermore swear that I will do all I can to keep my neighbors from working theirs or paying their debts, and to cap the climax, I do with all the earnestness of my soul, from the bottom of my heart, sincerely promise and swear that I will take my wife's chickens, butter and eggs to town and trade for whiskey, get on big drunk and talk politics."

Believing a party made up of the above mentioned material would revolutionize the whole country and be a good thing, I urge all who can conscientiously take the above oath to be prompt in meeting at the above time and place.

JOHN BENTLEY BROWN.

ROTHCHILD'S MAXIMS.

The elder Baron Rothschild had the walls of his bank placarded with the following maxims:

Shun liquors.
Dare to go forward.
Never be discouraged.
Never tell business lies.
Be polite to everybody.
Employ your time well.
Be prompt in everything.
Pay your debts promptly.
Bear all troubles patiently.
Do not reckon upon chances.
Make no useless acquaintances.
Be brave in the struggle of life.

"Maintain your integrity as a sacred thing.
Never appear something more than you are.

Take time to consider, and then decide positively.

Carefully examine into every detail of your business.

Then work hard and you will be certain to succeed in life.—Southport Leader.

COL. SKINNER GONE.

He has at last taken the fatal leap.
Gone has Col. Skinner! Whoever would have believed it! When he was hippodroming the State in the early spring, speaking from the same platform with Col. Polk and Mr. Butler, the Observer warned him in all gentleness and kindness that he was not observing St. Paul's injunction to avoid the appearance of evil. He retorted that he was as good a Democrat as the Observer, and the Observer, good easy soul, believed him, and only regretted that he kept such company. He was keeping such company and making such speeches, he said, in order "to keep the Alliance in the party," and he has met the fate that overtakes the swimmer who ventures out to sea as a missionary and has been eaten by the heathen.

He has gone on the mountain.
He is lost to the forest.
Like a summer dried fountain, When our needs were the sorest, The tant re-appearing.
From the rain-drops shall borrow,
But to us comes no cheering,
To Skinner no morrow!

The hand of the reaper Takes the ears that are hoary, But the voice of the weeper Wails manhood in glory.
The autumn winds rushing Waft the leaves that are searst, But our flower was in flushing, When blighting was nearest.

Colonel, so long!—Charlotte Observer.

The Third party held its State Convention in Raleigh on the 16th.
Mr. Marion Butler was made chairman, Col. Harry Skinner was nominated by acclamation for Governor, but got up and withdrew. Dr. W. P.
Exum was then nominated for Gov.
Dr. L. M. Durham for Secretary of State, Thos. B. Long for Auditor, R.
H. Lyon for Attorney General, W. J.
Woody for Supt. Public Instruction, Marion Butler for Elector at Large, W. A. Guthrie for Justice of Supreme Court, R. A. Cable for Lieu. Gov.
The ticket is a weak one. Mr. Skinners action confused them, as he was their strongest man. We hear from reliable authority that Mr. Exum can't carry his own township. So we guess he will never sit in the gubernatorial chair of this State.

arranged for those who do not intend going to College. This prepares them for the ordinary pursuits of life.

Those who wish to become expert Telegraph operators and book-keepers and business men will find the Business course suited to their needs.

The Best Remedy
In this world, says J. H. H. of Syracuse, N. Y., is Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic, because my son who was partially paralyzed three years ago and attacked by fits, has not had any symptoms of them since he took one bottle of this remedy. I most heartily thank for it.

St. Louis, Mo., March 4, 1891.
Realizing the amount of good Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic has done me, I feel it a duty to testify to its good qualities. My nervousness was caused by heavy habits and excessive smoking, having been so for several years. The effect of my medicine I felt immediately, and before I even used a whole bottle all trembling and uneasiness had disappeared, and I felt well, sleep sound and am full of ambition and life, something I had not been for some time, and cordially recommend it as an excellent nerve tonic.

A Valuable Book on Nervous Diseases sent free to any address. and patients can also obtain this medicine free of charge.
This remedy has been prepared by the Reverend Pastor Koenig, of Fort Wayne, Ind., since 1876, and is now prepared under his direction by the
