LOCAL.

We were glad to have our old friend Mr. C. E. Exam spend Sunday in town.

Vote the People's party ticket and you vote for chronic kickers and office seekers.

Miss Cornie Powell from Fair Bluff is spending a few days with Miss Addie Yung.

Mr. E. V. Cox, who has been filling some appointments for Mr. Clark the Republican candidate for Congress, came home Saturday.

One of our professional young men it seems has reached that point in life that he is (seeking Council) from another county.

Democrats, see that you are properly registered. They are going to try every way they can to keep you out of your vote this time.

Revs. Mr. Watson and Mr. Pegram exchanged pulpits Sunday morning. Mr. Pegram preached to the Baptist congregation and Mr. Watson to the Methodist.

Hon. D. H. McLean, Harnett's silver tongue orator and true Democrat, made a speech Friday night to the Cleveland and Carr club at Averas School House.

Hon. Henry W. Waterson, editor of the Courier-Journal, made the dedication speech at the Columbian Exposition in Chicago last Friday to more than 100,000 people. It was one of his finest efforts.

Go down to Fayetteville to the Fair in November, and don't fail to step in at Thornton's Clothing Store and buy you a new suit. He has any style or cut you want. Also a line of Stouts for short big men at prices to suit anybody.

Miss Mary Watson, an excellent young lady, who was Post Mistress at Kenansville, N. C., was turned out a short time ago and a negro woman put in her place (Abe Middleton's wife). Miss Watson's father is dead and she has to work for her living, but this is the way the Republican's act, and it brings shame on them.

Mr. Robinson, People's party candidate for the Senate, spoke at Troyville one day last week to a small crowd, and they were mostly Democrats. Only 23 votes from Grove, 3 or 4 from another township and 1 from Averasboro. Gentlemen they are getting few and far between now. But after Nov. 8th there won't be enough of them left to make a corporal's guard. Mr. Walter Byrd replied to Mr. Robinson and completely riddled his argument. That night Messrs. Robinson, Taylor Kivett and J. M. Byrd made speeches at Buies Creek, they tried to give the darlings a little tickling so as to catch their vote. Mr. Walter Byrd asked them to divide time with him, but they refused. That is the way they are doing, working on the ignorance of the people. They don't want them to hear both sides of the question fair and square, because people who know both sides won't vote the 3rd party ticket.

The rain has come at last so farewell to the dust until another Summer.

Mr. C. A. Young and wife of Wilson spent Sunday with Mr. E. F. Young.

Rev. Mr. Pegram will preach in the Methodist church on the first Sunday in next month.

The Republicans conclude now that Jerry Simpson of Kansas will be defeated for Congress in his district.

Mr. Eldridge Lee has commenced a new residence on Divine street, which will add very much to the looks of that part of the town when completed.

The ladies of the Methodist Parsonage Aid Society will give an Oyster Supper at the Hotel Divine on Friday night, Nov. 4th, for the benefit of the Parsonage.

Mr. J. E. Harper left yesterday morning for Clinton, where he and Mr. T. F. Sanders, of our town, will open a drug business. They are both clever business young men, and we wish them success.

Mrs. Harrison, wife of President Harrison, died in the White House at Washington at 1:45 a. m., Oct. 25th. She has been sick for some time and the end was expected by friends and family.

We hope those who owe us will come in and pay their dues. The little from all who are due will help THE TIMES, and you are aware that nothing can be run without money.

Hon. A. M. Waddell of Wilmington, was expected to speak here last Friday, but as he could not come here and meet his appointment at Pitsboro next day, he postponed the engagement here.

Senator M. W. Ransom will address the people in Wilson on Nov. 3rd. They are going to have a grand time, fine music and a great parade. Republicans, Third parties and Democrats are all cordially invited to go and hear the honored son of North Carolina.

Mr. J. F. Phillips will be at McLamb's Friday the 28th to list taxes again. The balance of the time he will be in Dunn. He requests everybody to come promptly and give in. This is required on account of the burned Court House and all the records.

Mr. S. Otto Wilson, chairman of the Executive State Peoples party committee, seems to be the chief of the Gideonites, a secret political organization of this State. That sort of a thing is unconstitutional, and Mr. Wilson may get in some hot water yet about such an organization. Whoever joins has to take an iron clad oath.

The Tempest.

At sunset the sky grew furious, And dark clouds rolled up from the west.

And the thunder that roared in the distance, Brought a feeling of woe and unrest.

I knew that a storm was approaching, And my heart grew heavy with fear, While a prayer on my lips was frozen,

My eyes shed never a tear, Boom! boom! how the thunder crashes over us;

How the lightning drew back in its wrath! And the stars crept aside as if fearing

To enter the tempest wrought path. Great God, who in moments of anguish, Pitted thine own dear son, From thy great white throne in Heaven, Oh! pity we helpless ones!

I thought of the dead in the church yard, Of my mother so wan and white,

Of my brother and blue-eyed sister. So alone on that dreadful night.

Mrs. GREEN, Buies Creek, N. C.

A Correction.

The marriage of Mr. M. Bell and Miss Naomie Lee, as was stated in last issue, was at Canaan Baptist church instead of Mr. Marshall Lee's.

Rev. G. S. Best of Duplin county officiating. The attendants were: A. L. Barefoot and Miss Ester R. Bell; N. A. Bell and Miss Lettie H. Lee; R. E. Lee and Miss Missouri Lee; Mordecai Lee and Miss Venie M. Bell; J. G. Layton, Jr., and Miss Annie Warren; G. H. Toler and Miss Francis Lee.

A Great Attraction

FRANK THORNTON'S CLOTHING STORE.

A great gathering of clothing buyers have pronounced my stock of

FALL AND WINTER CLOTHING

LARGEST AND CHEAPEST

EVER DISPLAYED BY ANY HOUSE IN NORTH CAROLINA.

For the past eight or ten years I have controlled the clothing trade of this section of the State, because it is a well-known fact that I offer no garments that are not cut in the newest styles, and style goes a long way now.

Not less than $40,000 worth of Clothing.

Is now shown at my Clothing Store, at prices that will suit the times. This immense stock includes

MEN'S FINE CUTAWAY FROCK SUITS.

MEN'S FINE PRINCE ALBERT FROCK SUITS.

MEN'S FINE STRAIGHT CUT SACK SUITS.

MEN'S FINE CUTAWAY SACK SUITS.

MEN'S FINE OVERCOATS.

These goods come in all the most DESIRABLE STYLES AND COLORS.

And an inspection of them will convince the most skeptical, that this stock is indeed a great attraction. I show also an immense line of which will be sold exceedingly cheap. I mention specially a line of BOYS' SUITS for school wear which will DEFY ALL COMPETITION as to price. Parents are earnestly invited to call and examine this line of goods.

BOYS' AND YOUTH'S CLOTHING

INCLUDING OVERCOATS,

Don't forget that I have a line of SAMPLES for custom work, and will always guarantee a perfect fit. This stock of goods was bought to sell, and I am prepared to compete with any house either in this city or elsewhere, so that everybody who intends buying a new suit, will find just what they want, and will save money by calling at my Clothing Store.

Mr. and Mrs. Loren Trescott are keepers of the Gov. Lighthouse at Sand Beach, N. C., and are blessed with a daughter, four years old. Last April she was taken down with Measles, followed with a dreadful Cough and turning into a Fever. Doctors at home and at Detroit treated her, but in vain, she grew worse rapidly, until she was a mere "handful of bones."—Then she tried Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption and after the use of two and a half bottles, was completely cured.
