WOMAN'S AFFAIRS.

Mrs. O-borne, a widow has cleared $3,000 to 5,000 a year from her ranch near Salt Lake City.

A Middletown (Conn) newsletter says that one of the barges that ply between that city and the coal ports is owned and captained by a woman.

GREAT TIME AT CHARLOTTE.

HAM OF GEORGIA AND SENATOR VANCE ARE HEARD.

With flare of torches, beat of drums, sounds of martial music, and with hurrahs, the Democracy of the city and surroundings, marched through the streets of Charlotte last night.

The torchlight procession was not only the largest ever held in Charlotte—except perhaps the one in '76—but it outshone anything for brilliancy ever seen in the State.

The grand procession after the prescribed line of march, came up Try street heading toward the auditorium. Before it reached there the crowd surged thither and in a short time the immense building was packed from one end to the other.

SPEECH OF MR. H. W. J. HAM OF GEORGIA.

Mr. Ham is tall—at least he is such a Democratic giant that he appears so—he has a well shaped head, smooth face, clear cut features and a sharp, inquisitive look about the eyes that tell of mental activity not often found.

"If I needed inspiration this magnificent audience would furnish it, but I have come recently from a contest between the Third party and Democracy, and the result inspires me yet. You ask why I am here? Well, I will tell you a story.

Where did the Third party come from! The demagogues is its builder and conceiver. The farmers thought they would band themselves together in a Farmers' Alliance.

The speaker then took off his cuffs, rolled up his sleeves and went for the Third party with cuffs and gloves both off. He riddled the Third party platform—they change with every change of the moon, said he.

man who did not want office? They stay awake all night thinking about it. Third party men never say anything against the Republican party—they "face" with them, but in Georgia they are both so mean that they wont mix.

We had a little eruption over in our State and shook up 71,000 Democratic majority. The Third party men are deserting the ranks like rats out of a burning barn.

"Boys, did Mrs. Lease come here? Did you ever see that gang who go to Washington advocating their woman's suffrage business? Of all the flat chested, slender ankle, thin faces, skinny neck brigade that was ever on top of God's green foot stool, they are the worst.

One could take Mrs. Lease by the heels and split an inch board with her face. Such as she to come into our Southland to teach the noble descendants of noble Southerners how to govern!

We are putting dynamite under Tommie Watson in the 10th district in Georgia, that will blow him so high the bluebirds will make nests in his hair, and when he hits the earth he won't have breath enough to ask, "where was I at?"

Brethren, be of good cheer. The golden glory of Democratic victory is already tingling the political horizon. The Empire State is going Democratic; (applause); New Jersey is going Democratic; (applause).

Indiana is going Democratic; (applause), and keep your eye, and hand back of your ear on and toward Illinois; (loud applause); West Virginia is going Democratic; (applause); and North Carolina is going Democratic; (loud and prolonged applause).

The Democratic lion will wake up and lay its paws on the Third party and nothing will be left of it but a little greasy spot and a little stink, and on the 8th we propose to kick out even the sand that has the stink on it.

As Mr. Ham took his seat a tumult of applause began and kept up for several minutes. "Hurrah for Ham" was heard from all over the house and the people expressed their delight with him and his speech in rousing cheers which could not fail to tell how he had captured the crowd.

was the sound which burst spontaneously from the immense audience, as the applause for Mr. Ham subsided and as the noble, loved, "Zeb" rose, the people went wild. Old men, young men, women and children jumped to their feet waving handkerchiefs and hats, and cheering until the very building seemed to rock.

as was expressed in the great ovation over Vance. On the rostrum every man rose, and following Mr. Ham's lead all waved their handkerchiefs and cheered for fully ten minutes. It was a great demonstration and one that did honor even to the loved Senator.

"Fellow-citizens and good friends" said the "Governor," and a stillness profound ensued as he began to speak "I thank you fr in my heart for the cordiality of this reception. I am deeply touched at this evidence of your e-tem, and wish I could do more than acknowledge it, but you all know that I have not been able to take part in this most important campaign since the reconstruction.

"I want to say this however. In my political career I have seen party after party rise up against Democracy, and all have died except the Republican party, which lives, but is not expected to live very long.

I gave myself up to my Saviour, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above.
