LOCAL.

We regret to say that Rev. R. A. Johnson remains quite sick yet.

Mr. J. R. Godwin went up to Raleigh Monday to serve on the Jury this week of the Federal Court.

Mr. G. Rosenthal of Raleigh, succeeds D. W. Bain as Grand Secretary of the Masons of the State.

The Headlight says a girl baby which was born to a 3rd wife in Saulton township recently, was named Mary Ellen Lease.

We did not know there were so many office seekers in the Democratic party until since Cleveland was elected, but this is the first opportunity they ever had the fun of being candidates so we will excuse them this time.

The State Baptist Convention meets in Raleigh on the 8th of Dec. and convenes until the 15th. Bro. Bailey in writing to the delegates says: Let no one come to the convention with new squeaking boots or shoes on, except he keeps still after getting there so states the North Carolinian.

Mr. W. C. Douglass of Carthage, and who our people remember well for the impressive speech he made here still lingers on some of our minds is spoken of by Assistant District Attorney. While he is not in our District, we would like to see him have the place.

The State Seed Law requiring all packages to be marked, the date the seed were grown, was decided to be unconstitutional by Judge Goff in a special session of the U. S. Circuit Court held at Wilmington last week. The truckers and seed-men will hear this with pleasure.

The State Returning Board meets today to canvass the returns of the election. The Board consist of the Governor, the Secretary of the State, the Attorney General and two State Senators appointed by the Governor. He has appointed Hon. James H. P. Jones and W. D. Henderson, (col.) a republican from Vance, and the only republican that will be in the Senate this session.

It is said that Ex. Congressman Waddell's name of Wilmington will be presented for appointment for first Assistant Postmaster General under Mr. Cleveland. Mr. Waddell was chairman of the Com. on Post Offices and Post Roads in the 44th Congress and is well fitted to fill the position of Assistant Post Master General and his many friends of the old North State would like to see him there.

Wednesday evening while Mr. Alex. Norris, a farmer living about a mile from here, was out in the woods with his three boys cutting some saw logs, two of them were cutting a tree down and his son about 12 years old was laying near by resting, when the tree began falling it struck one near knocking off some limbs one of which fell and killed young Norris instantly. Mr. Norris was also struck by some of the falling limbs and seriously hurt, but think he will get well.

Solicitor Ed. W. Pon is quite sick and unable to attend Harnett Court this week.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Dr. J. Hill Daniels of this place, to Miss Lula Leverette of Cecil, Ga.

Mr. Julius Culbreth, one of our most gallant and handsome young men, spent Sunday and Monday in Fayetteville "on business."

Miss Mabel Harrell left Tuesday morning for Washington City, where she will spend the winter with relatives.

Mr. T. R. Hood of Smithfield, N. C. spent Monday night in the city with Mr. D. H. Hood.

Mr. Allen B. Godwin is having quite a large livery stable erected on the lot behind Dupree & Lane's store.

Services at the Baptist church will be held twice a month only. On the second and fourth Sundays. Rev. W. F. Watson, we are glad to say, will be the Pastor another year.

The M. E. Quarterly Conference was held Saturday with the church here. All the churches in the charge were represented. Sunday Presiding Elder Oglesby preached and the sacrament was administered.

Cleveland votes at last to have 278 Electoral votes. Harrison 138, Weaver 28 His majority over Harrison alone 140, over Weaver 416, over both Harrison and Weaver together 112 Cleveland carried California.

Mr. N. A. Smith our representative elect from this county will guard the interest of every class of his constituents while in the legislature and you may be sure he will never cast a vote for anything that he thinks will be against the farming class of people, he is one himself and knows some of their needs.

Winston seems to be unfortunate. Last week the bustling town was laid by another disastrous fire, laying into ashes the Zinzendorf Hotel, one of the finest hotels in the State which cost $125,000. It was insured for $100,000. The managers propose to rebuild soon.

On Wednesday of last week Miss Todic McLean, one of Harnett's most popular and sweet young ladies, was led to hymens altar by Mr. Alex. Campbell of Aberdeen. The marriage took place at the residence of the bride's uncle, Hon. D. H. McLean. The happy couple left immediately for the home of the groom.

Some one suggest, some new enterprise to be started in our town! We need some kind of manufacturing establishment in our midst. We make plenty of nearly all kinds of raw material in this section, so we might utilize that per cent. on it by manufacturing at home.

The University Foot Ball Team have beat in all the games they have played this season. They cleaned up South Carolina and Georgia and on Saturday last played a match game with the University of Virginia in Atlanta. The score resulted in 27 for North Carolina and nothing for Virginia a skunk. So our boys are now the champions of the South.

The lawyers who were in attendance at the Lillington Bar this week were Judge Buxton and H. McD. Robinson of Fayetteville, Mr. W. E. Marchison of Jonesboro, Col. Argo of Raleigh, Messrs. D. H. McLean, O. J. Spears, L. B. Chapin, F. P. Jones, Lee J. Best, Col. Jno. A. Spears and J. A. Farmer, of Barnett.

Court convened Monday and tried one case, a negro boy for firing the jail who was then in jail. Judge Bryan sentenced him to 3 years in the Penitentiary. On account of the burning of the records with the Court House, in the recent fire, Court adjourned and made an order to renew all papers where pending suits had been entered.

Among those who took an active part in our county campaign and worked for the Democracy of both State and National success, were Hon. D. H. McLean, ex-Senator J. A. Green and our chairman, Mr. J. M. Davis. While our candidates did their duty well and met the opposing forces at all times, these gentlemen stood ready to advance our cause when an opportunity presented. Mr. Davis managed the canvass with skill and success, the success that the good people of Harnett now feel proud of. He left no effort unturned, but always dealing fair and square with the opposing parties. Hon. D. H. McLean and Mr. Green were always found ready to respond, and worked manfully through the hottest of the battle, and their valuable work will ever be remembered by the Democrats of this county. To these gentlemen we owe much of our success and thereby return thanks for their unbounded effort.

Mr. A. J. Turlington went down to Wilmington to see the sights of Gala Week in that city.

Messrs. Laudie and Mangrum of Clinton, formerly of the Caucasian, spent Tuesday night in town prospecting for a newspaper opening.

Mr. Josiah Carter of Dismal, N. C. is spending a few days in Dunn, and is under Dr. J. H. Daniel's treatment for Cancer. The Dr. is meeting with wonderful success in every case.

The Progressive farmer makes an appeal to the Alliancemen to stand together and make it a non partisan organization, but still it says there demands are the same now as before the election. That does not harmonize quite right to us.

Madam Rumor, who is always prying into young folks secrets, says that two other of our business young men will ere long take unto themselves a better half to commence the New Year with.

The much talked of comet for Sunday night failed to be visible in this section to the naked eye. The Astronomers, like all other people, miscalculate sometimes, and we judge this was one of the times.

News came to us yesterday that Fayetteville had a big fire early yesterday morning. Some 9 or 10 stores were burned, among them Mr. Frank Beasley's Jewellery store, McDuffies Drugstore and others, did not learn the names. We are not able to give any of the particulars about the fire.

We met the other day, what we term a singular man to live in this age he said he was 60 years old, and had never given a mortgage, never been a juror, never been a witness in court never had a law suit, and had never given but one or two plain notes, men like he comes only one in a package, and never more than one in a package.

Rev. Sam Small preached in Raleigh at Edenton street Methodist church Sunday and Sunday night, to a crowded audience at the morning service and at night, his already wide reputation as an eloquent speaker had been spread over the city so that several hundred, who went out to hear him, were turned away being unable to even secure standing room in the gallery. On Wednesday night Mr. Small delivered his great lecture on the subject: "From Bar-room to Pulpit," at Metropolitan Hall, and no doubt would have had quite a large audience had the night not been so chilly.

Tuesday night as had been announced the young men of the Philomathean Literary Society entertained the town with a Public Debate. The Query: Resolved that women should be allowed to vote. On the Affirmative Messrs. C. C. Fordham, E. L. Lee, F. R. Hall and Prof. Mason. On the Negative Messrs. H. L. Godwin, G. A. Bain, McD. Higgs and J. W. Smith. The school hall was packed full, and most of the ladies of the town gave their presence to the occasion. The young men made interesting and breezy speeches and acquitted themselves with credit. After the debate the question was decided in favor of the Affirmative side by the committee.

NOTICE.

I have a pair of good mules I will sell cheap for cash or on time. J. G. LAYTON, JR. Dunn, N. C. dec 1st 1892.]

GROVER CLEVELAND.

Grover Cleveland is our leader. The good, the true and brave. We have given him our ballots, And our land he will save.

CHORUS.

Hold the fort for we are coming, Democrats must win. Now, the fins can have their outing, And the outs go in.

Illinois sends her kindly greeting, From the far off west. Of all her grand and noble statesmen, She gives us the best. Hold the fort, etc.

Thanks to Harrity, son of Erin, All the way from Cork, He met the Rads at Harlem river, And saved to us New York. Hold the fort, etc.

Now, Grover don't forget Bill Whitney, Dickerson, and the rest, Of those grand men, good jolly fellows, Who did their level best. Hold the fort, etc.

Carri's elected, Carolina's Governor, Honest, modest and plain, He kicked against St. Louis' platform, But got there just the same. Hold the fort, etc.

North Carolina's gallant Simms, Foremost in the fight, Never laid down his battle armor, 'Till he put our foes to flight. Hold the fort, etc.

For Thomas Holt, retiring Governor, I've naught but words of praise, May he live in the hearts of a grateful people A life of many days. Hold the fort, etc.

Honor to Ransom, Jarvis, Peebles, And all the noble band, Who denounced the force bill and tariff, From the mountains to the sand. Hold the fort, etc.

The Old North State, may heaven bless her, Our free and happy land, She wiped out Furches, Exum and Wjlsin And the whole of Gideon's band. Hold the fort, etc.

All ye loyal heed this warning, Don't be to bold and fast, Be patient, calm, don't bother Grover, Till a week at least has passed. Hold the fort, etc.

When you've waited till uneasy, Write to the President, And put your message on a postal, It will cost you but one cent. Hold the fort, etc.

Well! its over, go tell Benny, Grandpa to baby McKee, That Ruth will want the White House nursery. Early in ninety-three. Hold the fort, etc. —By an enthusiastic Seaboard Democrat in News & Observer.

Died.

On Wednesday Nov. 23rd Mr. Malcolm McKay, Sr. of Summerville, passed from this life. He was one of Harnett's oldest and most esteemed citizens. He was born and raised in this county and had lived more than man's allotted time, being at his death 82 years old. He has been a consistent member of the Presbyterian church since his boyhood days. He had been twice married, neither of his wives survive him. He leaves five children behind, three sons and two daughters, besides many relatives and friends.

In the death of him we truly say the children have lost an affectionate father, the county a good and highly esteemed citizen, and his community a most excellent neighbor and benefactor.

The TIMES tenders most heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved ones in this their hour of affliction.

At his home in Hectors Creek township, Harnett county, on November 12st, Mr. James T. Matthews passed from earth to an unknown world beyond, aged 19 years.

He was a young man highly respected by all who knew him. If he ever had an enemy we never knew it. He professed faith in Christ at the age of 17, and connected himself with Hectors Creek Baptist church, and lived the life of an exemplary christian young man. He was sick two weeks with Typhoid fever, and bore his afflictions with which only a christian could fear them.

His church has lost one of its promising young members, society has lost one of its fairest flowers. But we weep not for him as we would for one who had no hope, we believe he has gone to the home of the good. His remains were laid to "await the resurrection morn," at Olive Branch church. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. A. Campbell, his pastor, and was attended by a large concourse of relatives and friends.

Weep not for death! 'Tis but a fever stilled, A pain suppressed—a fear at rest, A solemn hope fulfilled, The moonshine on the slumbering deep, Is scarcely calmer. Wherefore weep?

Weep not for death! The fount of tears are sealed, Who knows how bright the word light, To those closed eyes reveal? Who knows what holy love now fills, The heart that seems so cold and still. D. H. S.
