THURSDAY MAY 18 1893.

Our neighboring cotemporary, the Mt. Olive Review, makes the following comments upon Representative Grady and his plan of selecting postmasters for the offices of his District:

"As a dream the plan of Mr. Grady is a beautiful conception of what may some day come to pass, but not during the present century. We look upon the plan as being an evidence of spinal weakness on the part of Mr. Grady, and the sooner he exercises his power and endorses some of the applicants, the sooner he will restore himself in the good will of his constituents and the graces of the great party he so miserably represents."

Mr. Grady's plan may not have worked as satisfactorily as he supposed it would, but it was based on justice and is decidedly more Democratic than for the appointment of postmasters to be left solely with a representative. We do not think Mr. Grady deserves the gratuitous rebuke of the Review, which is not published in his district and can therefore hardly be expected to voice the sentiments of his constituency. Mr. Grady is now in Washington doing all in his power to have Democratic postmasters appointed. His tilt with Postmaster General Bissell evidences that he is not wanting in backbone, and those who know him best would be the last to say he is wanting in ability. The statement that he has so "miserably represented his district will make Mr. Grady's constituents smile, if not laugh outright. As a public servant Mr. Grady has been faithful, prudent and safe, and has served his Congressional apprenticeship with becoming modesty. His character and qualifications are too well known for him to suffer much from the Review's unjust and uncalled for attack.—Clinton Democrat.

State Chronicle has the following to say of Hon. T. W. Mason and his Oration at Buies Creek commencement:

"Capt. T. W. Mason returned to the city yesterday from Harnett county, where he delivered the annual commencement oration at Buies Creek Academy, situated about ten miles from Dunn. We are informed that Capt. Mason's address was a splendid effort, doing full justice to his fine powers of oratory. There was an immense crowd present, numbering probably about two thousand, and great interest was manifested in the closing exercises. The school, of which Rev. J. A. Campbell is principal, had a very prosperous term and a large number of students."

Trinity College Commencement.

This year's commencement of Trinity College, Durham, will occur June 7, 8, and will include the following important features: 1. Baccalaureate sermon, Rev. Dr. R. Sledd, Richmond, Va., at 11 a. m., Wednesday, 7th, in the Main Street Methodist Church. 2. Literary Address before the Columbian and Hesperian Literary Societies, by Hon. A. M. Waddell, of Wilmington, N. C., at 4 p. m., Wednesday 7th, in Stokes's Hall. 3. Annual Address before the Alumni Association, by Walter P. Andrews, of Atlanta, Ga., at 8 p. m. in Stokes's Hall, Wednesday. 4. Graduating Exercises at 11 a. m., Thursday, 8th, in the Globe Warehouse. Reduced rates have been applied for over all railroads in the state.

A Million Friends.

A friend in need is a friend indeed, and not less than one million people have found just such a friend as in Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs, and Colds.—If you have never used this Great Cough Medicine, one trial will convince you that it has wonderful curative powers in all diseases of Throat, Chest and Lungs. Each bottle is guaranteed to do all that is claimed or money refunded. Trial bottles free at Harper & Hood's Drug store. Large bottles 50c. and $1.00.

Pronounced Hopeless, Yet Saved.

From a letter written by Mrs. Ada E. Hurd, of Groton, S. D., we quote: "Was taken with a bad cold, which settled on my Lungs, cough set in and finally terminated in Consumption. Four doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Saviour, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. I gave it a trial, took in all eight bottles; it has cured me, and thank God I am now a well and hearty woman." Trial bottles free Harper & Hood's Drugstore, regular size, 50c. and $1.00.
