Memorial Services at Chicora.

Memorial day at Chicora was appropriately remembered, a large crowd met at the Cemetery, decorated the graves of the fallen heroes of the Confederacy in a beautiful manner, and a speech was expected from our silver tongue orator, Hon. D. H. McLean, but he was forced to disappoint the audience who knew if he had been able to go, they would have heard something eloquent and well fitted for the occasion, but Cumberland court necessitated him to be there.

However pretty flowers were spread on the graves of those who fell while facing the battles sound and the bullets of their enemy. The ladies who acted their part so nobly in the Lost Cause, love to meet even now, 29 years since the sound of the last gun was heard, and tenderly pay tribute to the soldiers who sleep in the Confederate Cemeteries.

An Organization Termed.

The Commercial and Industrial Association of North Carolina, has been recently gotten up, with Mr. Alf. A. Thompson of Raleigh President, and Mr. Hal. W. Ayer Secretary. These gentlemen are trying to hold out inducements from our State to capitalists who desire locations for investments, or other words, desire to advertise North Carolina's resources of all kinds. So its very important that every town that wishes to induce manufacturing or show the special advantages it has or can offer to capital, belong to this association.

So we throw out these explanations that our business men may think of this and if they want to build up Dunn or invite any attention to our locality. Let's get together, organize here and join the State Association.

We have the locality and everything except capital and with the right kind of effort can bring it in our midst. The editor is in correspondence with the Secretary of the Association and will be able to enlarge on this brief notice later.

Business men of the town, land owners around here, what say you? This is a chance to draw men with capital in our town and county.

Round Trip Tickets can be purchased at John H. Giles' Barber Shop better known by the No Draw Back. Call and find out the price of one. Guarantee good work.
