LOCAL.

Miss Hettie Darden of the Little River section is visiting Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Hales.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Pearsall spent last week with relatives at Mount Olive and returned Saturday.

Prof. Ed. Alderman and bride, of Davie county, passed through town last Friday on their way to his mother's in Sampson county.

Misses Josie, Sadie and Lyda Adams of Little River Academy, came over to the Progressive Institute commencement last week.

Miss Fannie Cox returned from LaGrange last week where she has been attending the Kinsey School for girls.

Prof. Garst a travelling Phrenologist, was in town last Friday feeling of some of the boys craium and telling them what they were good for and what they ought to pursue in life.

Hon. Edwin W. Kerr, Attorney for the W. & W. Railroad, from Clinton, was in the city last Friday looking after the colored man Billy Smith, who got knocked off the road by the train one night last week between Benson and Four Oaks.

The boarding students attending the Progressive Institute all left for their homes Friday and Saturday, since the close of the two schools, and all young ladies and gentlemen attending them have gone home. It leaves something of a quietus in the city.

Rev. Mr. Glenn of Elm City, is here assisting Rev. Mr. Simmons in a series of meetings at the Methodist church.

Messrs. J. H. Ballance, H. W. Jernigan, C. S. Phillips and I. W. Taylor are attending Court this week at Raleigh.

Mr. F. R. Hall, of Fayetteville, a former student of the Academic Institute, is in town this week visiting friends.

THE TIMES returns thanks to Mr. Jas. Pearsall for a sample of the first ripe peaches of the season. He made his first shipment today.

The old School Board of the county was re-elected by acclamation by the Magistrates. They are, Prof. D. B. Parker, D. B. McDonald and Jas. A. Smith.

The Wilmington Star says Col. Thos. B. Argo of Raleigh, was married to Mrs. Eliza Perry on the 6th. She recently procured a divorce from her former husband.

The Fayetteville Bank case in which Mr. E. F. Moore is defendant will come up today in the Federal Court in Raleigh.

The big rains for the past few days have damaged crops to some extent and almost blocked work, look out for the grass.

We want correspondents at all the postoffices in the county will someone be so kind as to send us notes each week from their community!

Don't forget to come in and pay up for THE TIMES when you come to town, those who are in arrears. It takes some money as well as wind and gas to run a paper.

Mr. W. J. Washburn and family passed through the city Tuesday morning enroute for Wilmington, where they will make their future home.

The School Board appointed committeemen for every Public School District Monday. The Committee for our district are Rev. N. B. Hood, Messrs. H. C. McNeill and Henry Tart.

Mr. W. J. Long of the Buies Creek section was elected Commissioner Monday to fill the vacancy of Mr. N. A. Smith, who resigned when elected as our Representative.

Miss Flandie Jones, who has been visiting the family of Mr. J. O. Gordon for several weeks, returned to her home near Nashville, N. C., last Saturday.

Harnett county Commissioners and Magistrates did the biggest days work Monday they ever done in this county before, and it will prove no doubt to be the most valuable.

The school at Benson taught by Mr. L. E. Reeves, a Harnett county young man, and a former student of the Progressive Institute, here, will close on June 15th with appropriate exercises. The exercises will begin at 8 o'clock p. m.

Dr. O. L. Denning left on the 6th for New York City, where he will attend the Summer course in Medicine at the New York Post-Graduate School and Hospital. He intends to pay special attention to Gynecology and General Operative Surgery. He will be glad to see his old friends and patrons again on his return which will be about the first or middle of August.

The Alliance have circulated a lot of circulars announcing a big speaking and dinner at Bunn's Level on the 16th of June and at Greens X Roads the 17th. Mr. Marion Butler will be the speaker. Mr. J. M. Byrd, County Lecturer, has a number of other appointments in the county. We hope they will talk Alliance doctrine and quit making Third party speeches to the Alliance.

Mr. Jas. Pearsall was elected chairman of the County Board of Magistrates Monday in their meeting.

Mr. H. L. Godwin opened a school Monday at Averasboro school house with 25 students. Bright beginning for a summer session.

We hope the postmasters along the Star Route mail lines in Harnett will be careful and not let our papers lay in the office, some of our subscribers are complaining about papers being delayed, getting them two or three days later than they should. We mail them right and they ought to go without delay.

While our town authorities have been doing much good work on the streets there is something still lacking. Railroad Street from Broad to the Postoffice sadly needs graveling, when it rains it is almost impassable, and no street in town is more necessary to be in good fix. THE TIMES don't want to be gentle reminder of all undone needs, but when one of such importance to the entire town as this piece of work, we cannot fail to ask the Street Commissioners to look after it and greatly oblige the public generally.

Mr. Allen Byrd, ex-Treasurer of the county, was before the Commissioners, Magistrates and Board of Education Monday to be relieved of the $700 which was stolen from him last November. After they carefully examined into the case a vote was taken and Mr. Byrd was not relieved from paying the school money which was lost. It seems rather hard for him or his bondsmen to have to pay it if he used his best effort in keeping the county funds. But at the same time in the present condition of the county and the special need for school funds it is still worse for the children of the county to lose the money which belongs to them by right and law. It was an unfortunate affair for the county and especially for Mr. Byrd, because people are so prone to look on the dark side of everything, and ready to shove a man down hill instead of lending an arm of assistance to those who have met misfortune.

Obituary.

Mr. Littleton Daniel, father of our townsman, Dr. J. H. Daniel, was born at Haywood, N. C., Feb. 8, 1801, and died in Dunn, N. C., on the 4th inst.

When only eleven years of age he went with his father to the State of Georgia, where he spent most of his life cultivating the soil, at which he was successful and accumulated considerable wealth, which he freely spent in caring for the widow, the orphan and the distressed until, when he came to die, he was almost penniless.

During the dark days of the late war his home was the home of the Southern soldier and the needy.

Mr. Daniel was twice married and was the father of seven sons and two daughters, five of whom survive him.

After the death of his last wife he spent most of the time visiting his relatives throughout the Southern States. During last February he came to Dunn to spend the remainder of his days with his son, Dr. Daniel, who, with his wife, took great pleasure in ministering to him in his old age and decrepitude. He had been stricken three times with paralysis and, in his last days, was quite feeble, being at times helpless. The immediate cause of his death was dysentery, from which he had suffered two weeks.

For fifty years he had been a consistent member of the Methodist church, and often said, during his illness, that he had made his calling and election sure, and died in great peace.

Thus closed the life of one who had been true to his God and to his fellowmen.

Turlington Items.

TURLINGTON, N. C., June 5th, 1893.

MR. EDITOR:—Desiring to be heard from, space is asked for in the columns of THE TIMES for the items from this community, and especially a word for our Congressman, Mr. Grady. I don't know that he has done anything special for our section as he has for the people around Falcon, in Cumberland county, but he is working for, and guarding the general interest of the people, and he stands ready to do something for us and we shall, as we have been in the past, be ever ready to raise our voice in his behalf.

We farmers are quite busy just now with our farms, which have improved very fast for the past two weeks. Friday and Saturday of last week we had very heavy rains doing some damage to crops.

Mr. Isaac Williams while fishing in Stewart's creek some days ago and unjoined his arm, is improving, we are glad to say.

Our school in charge of Miss Mary Watson is in a flourishing condition.

Misses Jane Utley and Alice Taylor of the Buies Creek section, were visiting in our section last week.

Mr. Jao. M. Stewart of the Troyville section, has a very fine pet mule colt about five weeks old which goes into the kitchen and drinks buttermilk. Mr. Stewart says the colt is very fond of buttermilk.

AMO.

The Progressive Institute Commencement.

The Progressive Institute commencement began Wednesday evening with a concert by the students at the school hall, the evening was a pleasant one and the house would not hold all who gathered to witness the exercises.

The program was a most excellent one. The young ladies and girls wore their best smiles and they looked very sweet. They rendered their pieces admirably and gracefully.

The following was the evening exercises:

Holding Out, Essay, Julia Jackson.

Thursday night Rev. Mr. Winfield of Washington, N. C., Editor of the Watch Tower, delivered the Annual Address before a large crowd. His theme was the "Ideal Woman," A subject which holds volumes of interest to every person. He began way back in the early history of time and well covered the broad latitude of which he had chosen, paying many beautiful and deserving tributes to the sex of which his theme upheld. His discourse was a lesson of well collected thoughts and showed that he was an able and deep man.

Thus ended the program of the 4th commencement of the Progressive Institute under its present principal, Prof. D. B. Parker.

The students, principal and Miss Eula Cox, the efficient music teacher are to be congratulated for their splendid success of the past term.

A Little Girls Experience in a Lighthouse.

Mr. and Mrs. Loren Treecott are keepers of the Gov. Lighthouse at Sand Beach, Miss., and are blessed with a daughter, four years old. Last April she was taken down with Measles, followed with a dreadful Cough and turning into a Fever. Doctors at home and at Detroit treated her, but in vain, she grew worse rapidly, until she was a mere "handful of bones."—Then she tried Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption and after the use of two and a half bottles, was completely cured. They say Dr. King's New Discovery is worth its weight in gold, yet you may get a trial bottle free at Harper & Hood's Drugstore.
