J. A. HARRELL FOR PUBLIC
Printer of the United States.

Mr. J. A. Harrell of Weldon, N. C., is a candidate for Public Printer of the United States. He has had a long experience in the printing business, is an honest, sober, well informed man, and will fill the place he desires with credit and honor to himself and the Old North State. North Carolina as well have that honor as any State, and Mr. Harrell would well wear this confidence and we can speak the sentiments of many of our people when we say we would like to see Mr. Harrell appointed to the place.

WHAT MR. WINFIELD, EDITOR of The Watch Tower, says of Dunn and His Trip to that Town.

It was our pleasure to attend the closing exercises of Progressive Institute at Dunn, Harnett county, June 1st. We had been invited by Prof. D. B. Parker to deliver the literary address, which we did to a very large, attentive and intelligent audience. The spacious hall of the Institute was full to overflowing, which is a guarantee that all the people have an enthusiastic interest in the cause of education. One of the essential elements to a successful and prosperous school is an interest manifested by the patrons and the immediate vicinity where the school is located. Progressive Institute enjoys, in a large degree, these advantages. The good effects of such an institution is seen and felt throughout the county and the adjoining counties, and it can now point with pride to the boys and girls whose minds and hearts have been developed within its walls.

Prof. Parker is a graduate of Trinity College and is one of the most thorough and efficient teachers in the State. He is a gentleman of rare traits of character, of a smooth, quiet disposition, and will ascend and not descend in any place where his lot is cast. We had a most pleasant conversation with him on the management, discipline and methods of teaching, and we found him fully abreast with the times. He has no clap trap plans and no scheming methods, but in a straight forward manner he imparts to his pupils lessons of wisdom knowledge and honor. He has associated with him Miss Eula Cox, a graduate of Salem Seminary, who teaches music. Miss Eula is an exemplary lady and fills her department with marked satisfaction. She is energetic, ambitious and progressive.

We can safely commend this school to all our readers. Your sons and daughters are secure while in charge of Prof. Parker. Their moral as well as intellectual natures will not be neglected. The next session will open about the middle of August and the outlook is very promising for an increase of attendance over last session.

We spent one night with Prof. Parker and were royally entertained by his mother and sisters. We called upon several of our friends in town and spent a short while very pleasantly. We always enjoy a visit to Dunn and feel at home with these hospitable people. All will accept thanks for the many courtesies of which we were the recipient.

Hon. Henry W. Watterson's address before the A. & M. College was highly complimented by those who heard it. The News and Observer said it ought to be published and every body ought to read it. Mr. Watterson is a Kentuckian and one of the finest orators of the day.

THE FOLLY OF PUTTING NEW WINE IN OLD BOTTLES.

Let the people remember that every reform that has ever been secure, was originated among the rank and file of the people and that they had to demand it and fight for it before they got it.

Let the people remember that when those, who were opposing the people, offer reform (?) that it is only a bogus reform, for it is not to their interest to give the people relief. Their prosperity comes by opposing the people. If the reforms they offer were honest and just reforms, it would break up their business. They are not fools, therefore they will not do anything to lessen their profits drawn from the toil and labor of the people. Then how foolish we are to expect reform and justice from such a source. Even if the reform is a good one per se it will never be honestly carried out if the people leave the same crowd in office to administer the government. The people have tried this to their sorrow by electing alliancemen to office in the old parties. (Example, Benjamin of the House of Grady.) Let the people remember that the Bible warns us against this kind of folly when it tells us not to put new wine in old bottles.—Caucasian.

Yes, the Caucasian would have you think there is not an honest man in the Democratic party, and especially an office holder, that none are trying to reform the country except those who belong to the 3rd party. That all the measures of reform advocated by the democrats and Mr. Grady are bogus. That the party is sailing under false colors, etc. Well, that leaves the idea that Mr. Butler and his followers are right and advocate nothing but what is right.

He congratulates himself that he is no machine politician and belongs to no ring or clique. All we can say is he reminds us of the self-righteous Pharisee, and he will be rewarded likewise unless he changes his course. And to those who are following the Caucasian and its Editor, we ask you to read in the Bible where you are admonished to beware of false Gods and false teachings lest you be led astray.

Edwin Booth the great American actor passed from his earthly career last week in New York City. He was born in Maryland near Baltimore, and was famous on the stage.

While at Dunn all of our subscribers paid up to January, 1894, except one, and he was confined to his bed. When you see such promptness you can always expect good things to follow. The church at Dunn, under the pastorate of Bro. J. J. Harper, is doing well. It has some of the best business men in the town on its register and the greatest unity seems to prevail. Bro. D. W. Davis will hold a series of meetings with the church next month and we hope for good results.—Watch Tower.

Specimen Cases.

S. H. Clifford, New Cassel, Wis., was troubled with Neuralgia and Rheumatism, his Stomach was disordered, his Liver was affected to an alarming degree, appetite fell away, and he was terribly reduced in flesh and strength. Three bottles of Electric Bitters cured him.

Edward Shepherd, Harrisburg, Ill., had a running sore on his leg of eight years standing. Using three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and his leg is sound and well. John Speaker, Catawba, O., had five large Fever sores on his leg, doctors said he was incurable. One bottle Electric Bitters and one box Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him entirely. Sold by Harper & Hood Druggist.
