LOCAL.

Mr. J. D. Barnes is having his dwelling painted.

Last Thursday the 22nd was the longest day of the year, 14 hours and 39 minutes.

Rev. Mr. Jenkins, pastor on the Newton Grove circuit, was in town Saturday.

Miss Minnie Best of Goldsboro, came home with her uncle, Lee J. Best, Esq., last week and will spend some time with Mrs. J. L. Thompson.

Mr. E. B. Grantham of Newton Grove, who had charge of the writing department in the Turlington Institute last year spent Saturday and Sunday in town with friends.

Mr. J. W. Lane and wife, Messrs. W. H. Lane, T. D. Stewart and Chas. H. Nowell attended the commencement of the Turlington Institute last week.

Isaac McLeod a colored man living on the farm of Mr. John A. Layton in Sampson, brought the TIMES the first cotton bloom of the season Saturday.

Mr. J. L. Hodges lost his dwelling and out houses by fire Monday morning about eight o'clock all his corn, fodder and household furniture was consumed. He lived on Mr. H. C. Avera's place about three miles from town. The origin of the fire seems to have been that a Mr. Junius Cox a painter was making some varnish on the stove and it got turned over and caught the house. Some few of Mr. Hodges articles of furniture were saved.

Miss Irene McKay returned Monday from a few days at Moorehead.

Miss Collie Avera went up to Clayton last Friday morning.

Mrs. P. J. Jeffreys is on a visit to her parents in Goldsboro.

Mrs. Wade, wife of S. A. Wade, Esq., living only a few miles from town, died Monday morning at 10 o'clock, after a very brief illness.

Notwithstanding the dull season of the summer Mr. P. T. Massengill is one of the happiest men in town. It's a boy.

When you come to town don't forget to call and subscribe for THE TIMES, the only paper in the county. Every family ought to know the county news.

Monday while Mr. Mc. Higgs was out driving Dr. Denning's horse, the horse ran away with him, got loose from the buggy and run about 4 miles in the country. No serious damage was done to the horse or buggy.

The colored people have arranged to have a big Fourth here. They will have some addresses in the afternoon by some invited speakers, and at night a big festival will be held at Charlie McDonald's. All invited to attend. A good time in store for every one.

Troyville Items.

Pleasant weather now.

Mr. John Barnes of Jonesboro spent part of last week with friends in this section.

Some of the farmers in our section are loosing their hogs, and the cause they say is from eating mushrooms this wet weather, but in our opinion with investigation they will find it is the cholera that is killing them.

Mr. A. W. Denning and Daughter Miss Fannie Hayes spent a part of last week with Mr. Martin Denning in Cumberland county. It is with much regret that Mr. Martin Denning has lost his mind.

Turlington Items.

June 27th, '93.

Mr. Editor:—We are having very fine weather now and the farmers are making good use of it in these parts. Corn is coming out right fast, but the cotton prospects are poor. Some say their cotton is not as large as it was 3 weeks ago. A good many are laying by their corn.

Messrs. W. F. Wiggins, W. R. Avera and J. B. Parker have had the misfortune to loose their horse, all died in the past few weeks.

Mrs. A. J. Turlington has been right sick for some days but is better now, we are glad to state.

Elders J. T. Coats and Wm G. Turner preached at New Hope Sunday. They had a large congregation as usual.

The school taught by Miss Watson has closed and she has gone to her home in Statesville, N. C. She is a fine teacher and has done good, training the young idea how to shoot, as could be seen last Friday at the closing exercises of her school.

It is thought that the State Collector will be appointed this week. Mr. Cleveland is taking his time, thereby doing his work well. He is travelling the straight and narrow way and will enter at the gate bye and bye.

Ho! for the Fourth of July.

Come one, come all, let us enjoy the day. There will be speaking on different topics. A grand entertainment at the residence of Chas. McDonald. All kind of refreshments can be obtained at low rates.

You can get the latest styles of Neckware in any shude at our store, for we carry the nicest line in town. Fleming & Co.

Died.

On Wednesday night June 21st. Mrs. Lula Poe, wife of H. H. Poe, Esq., of Buies Creek. She was a member of the Methodist church, a christian lady, a devoted wife and a useful woman.

She had been sick only a short while and her death was a shock to the entire community.

She was a young woman who was well prepared to do the people of this neighborhood much good as well as her family.

She was a graduate of St. Mary's School.

In January, 1892, she came to Buies Creek Academy and took charge of the music department. While she was in school here her pupils and all the school learned to love her. She was always kind and loving to all the school, and it was with sad hearts that we heard of her death. After the session closed she was married to Mr. H. H. Poe on June 1st, 1892, and made him a kind and loving wife till death laid its hand upon her.

But we must submit to the will of Him, "who doeth all things well." And while this family shall never again on earth behold her face as they once did, yet her Christian example will never be forgotten by them, but will remain a bright spot in the memory of her family and friends and relatives who are permitted to survive her. Her life was worthy of imitation for she was a Christian lady in the best sense of the word.

We tender our heartfelt sympathy to her husband and his children who are left to mourn their loss. May they bear their loss with a Christ-like spirit, and say in the language of our Saviour, "Thy will be done." "Blessed are those who die in the Lord for they shall see God."

She was buried at Pleasant Plains church June 22nd.

Some of our County Citizens Sustained Loss.

The failure of the Peoples' National Bank in Fayetteville in December 1891, is well remembered by our town and especially some few of our county citizens.

Mr. A. J. Turlington, a man noted for his industry, economy, fine judgment and good skill, and one whom all our people have explicit confidence in, was the only stockholder from this county that we have heard of, and it was fortunate that no others had stock for they would not only loose what stock they owned but be assessed to pay off the dividends.

Some eighteen years ago Mr. Turlington bought $500 worth of stock, being 5 shares which he held until the failure. Soon after the failure the bank paid a small dividend, and since then another to the depositors, and it is thought another will be paid soon of 25 or 30 per cent, which will be all very likely that the depositors will get. In order that the last dividend might be paid an assessment on the stockholders had to be made, so on the first of this month Mr. Turlington had to pay $250 more to get out of the broken bank.

Messrs. Raiford Lucas and Bud Tart had deposits in the bank when it failed. So if there were no others in Harnett, the loss was about $2,250. The financial world is in just such a fix that men are afraid to put out their money as no place is absolutely safe.

The State Fair For 1893.

We have received from the Secretary, H. W. Ayer, a copy of the premium list for the State Fair of 1893. It is a more artistic publication than ever before, being embellished with handsome illustrations of North Carolina scenery, agricultural and fishing industries, etc.

The list has been thoroughly revised, especially in the departments in which ladies are interested, and the premiums are very liberal. The usual star premium of Fifty Dollars in gold is offered for the best exhibit made by a lady resident of the State, with a second premium of Twenty Dollars. There is also a premium of Fifty Dollars for the best display of any kind in the Main Exhibit building. Fruit growers, and Poultry fanciers, as well as others, will find the list for this year very interesting. Anybody can get copies by applying to H. W. Ayer, Raleigh, N. C. Everybody should have one.

Masonic.

GODWIN, N. C.

June 20th, '93.

Thinking it might not be amiss I have decided to send you a description of our meeting at this place last Saturday, the object of which was the public installation of the officers of Greenwood Lodge No 119, A. F. & A. M.

The officers performing the duty were Messrs. Z. and I. W. Taylor of your town, and their part, in the opinion of all present, was well performed.

Officers installed were as follows: K. J. Rhodes, W. M.; T. B. W. Jackson, S. W.; D. A. C. Denning, J. W.; C. C. McLellan, Treas.; D. G. McLellan, Secy.; W. J. Smith, S. D.; L. J. Tew, J. D.; W. A. Baggett and S. T. Stalling, Stewards; W. E. Rhodes, Tiler.

After the installation we listened to a public Masonic address by Col. F. P. Jones of Dunn, this occupied about two hours, and I have it from those competent to judge, that they never heard the subject handled better.

Next came the refreshments, which were daintily and temptingly spread by the mothers, wives, sisters, daughters, and last—but not least—sweethearts of Masons. The supply was amply equal to the occasion, with baskets and boxes of fragments over.

OBSERVER.

Big Pay For Writing.

The largest amount per word ever paid to an American writer is said to be received by the late Henry W. Grady, editor of the Atlanta Constitution, from the New York Ledger, Mr. Grady wrote to the journal five letters on the condition of the South. They averaged 1000 words each, and were paid for at the rate of twenty cents a word. Mr. Grady dictated the first letter to his stenographer in twenty minutes, thereby earning $10 a minute, and the letter was pronounced to be the best of the series.

A Literary Sensation.

"Uncle Tom's Cabin" has certainly "broke loose"! The copyright on this most famous of American novels, by Mrs. Stowe, has recently expired, which frees its publication from the monopoly of the high priced publishers, and though in anticipation of this fact they have within a few months greatly reduced its price, now that is really "unchained" the consequences are something surprising. John B. Alden, Publisher, of New York, issues several editions, selling them only direct (not through agents or book sellers); one in good type, paper covers, for 5 cents, sent postpaid, or the same bound in cloth for 10 cents with postage 7 cents extra; also an excellent large-type edition, on fine paper, handsomely bound in cloth for the price of 25 cents, postage 10 cents. Surely a copy of "Uncle Tom's Cabin" will soon be found in every home where it is not already. Mr. Alden sends a 32-page pamphlet describing many of his publications free, or a catalogue of 128 pages of choice books, a veritable "literary gold mine" for book-lovers, for 2 cents. Address JOHN B. ALDEN, Publisher, 57 Rose Street, N. Y.

The University.

The rapid and wholesome growth of the University is matter for State pride and rejoicing. In two years the student roll has grown from 198 to 316. $20,000 worth of repairs is being made on the buildings this summer; water works, baths, etc. are being supplied. The scholarship of the institution is being recognized everywhere as equal to that of the leading Universities, and soon we shall have in North Carolina the great Southern University. See advertisement.

INTEGRITY.

Without honesty of purpose and integrity of character, true and permanent success would seem to be impossible. Wrong actions, wrong principles, wrong conceptions of mutual obligations, may sometimes lead to temporary success; but in the end, "the wicked shall perish." So it is written, so all experience has demonstrated, and so it must ever be. The roguish merchant must eventually see the fruits of his roguery; treacherous minister, having "sown to the wind" must "reap the whirlwind;" the dishonest employe must come to grief at last. Success that is enduring must be achieved by the strictest laws of honor and integrity.

The young man who starts in life with a purpose to follow that ancient rule, "Do unto others as you would that others should do unto you," and is at the same time confident of his own capacities, and persistent in following a specific line of action or course of business, must inevitably succeed, not only in a temporary, but in a permanent sense.

Cincinnatus was recognized as a man of integrity, and though he followed the humble avocation of a farmer, yet he was summoned by the Senate of Rome to render assistance to the Republic. A simple Roman citizen, he patriotically abandoned the pursuits he loved best, went to serve the State, and became enshrined in history as an exemplar of purity of character. The inflexible rules laid down for their own guidance by men who have commenced at the very lowest round in the ladder might be introduced here were it practicable to give so much space.

John Jacob Astor and Abbot Lawrence, among Americans, and John Bright and the Crossleys, of England, are eminent examples of men who, while rigidly adhering to the strictest rules of honesty and fair dealing, have yet achieved the highest stations.
