LOCAL.

Miss Annie Stansell of Se'ma, is visiting Mrs. J. W. Laae.

Miss Stella Bryant of Stedman, N. C., is visiting the family of Mr. F. P. Jones, this week.

Mrs. S. P. McKay and family of Summerville, spent a few days last week with the family of Mr. J. Pearson.

Miss Irene McKay went up to Raleigh this week, to visit relatives and friends.

Miss Clara Hodges of Little River, this county, left Raleigh last week with a party to the World's Fair.

Miss Hattie Barnes is spending the week in Sampson, with the family of Mr. Jim Parker.

Mrs. J. C. Cox and Miss Minnie McKay, spent several days last week at the pleasant home of Mrs. L. McKay's.

Misses Fannie Dupree and Loma Britt of Johnston county, are visiting the family of Mr. W. F. Dupree.

Mrs. J. F. Owens and little son Frank, are visiting relatives and friends in Sampson this week.

Mr. Doug Grady and wife of Fayetteville, passed through Saturday on their return from a visit to friends in Lillington.

Buie's Creek Academy opened on the 7th August, with an increased faculty and 54 students and every week new students arrive.

Miss Sadie Adams of Little River, returned from a visit to Four Oaks Monday and spent a day or two with relatives here.

Mess. Oliver and Gardner have begun publishing a little paper at Aberdeen, Moore county, their first issue is on our table, its a nice little three-column sheet. We wish them success.

Mrs. Henry Tart gave us a pear which weighed 16 ounces. The tree on which it grew, she says, bears twice a year. A very fruitful tree, and the pears are a most excellent flavor.

The Progressive Institute will open its fall session, Wednesday, Sept. 6th. The prospects are favorable for a good school. See the advertisement in another column.

Fayetteville celebrated the one hundredth Anniversary of its Military company yesterday in grand order. A number of visiting companies were present.

Last week the Buie's Creek items did not reach us till Thursday night, whether its the fault of the Post Master or mail carrier we don't know, but we hope the Post Masters will not let mail lay over longer than necessary.

The Smithfield Herald stated that a man named Suggs, a painter, tried to kill himself Monday eve at Four Oaks. We guess he is the same man that graduated at Keely for the whiskey habit, and since then fallen back in the old line of drinking. He has done painting here, and married a Miss Lee of Sampson.

Rev. G. T. Simmons closed a series of meetings Sunday at Black's Chapel. Six conversions, three connected themselves with the church. This week he is holding a meeting at Averys School House.

Mr. Ben Hardy a news-paper man, of more than State wide reputation, was in town Tuesday night representing the North Carolinian, of which he is business manager. He assisted by Mr. J. C. Cox of our town, gave a musical entertainment at the Progressive Institute. Mr. Hardy rendered the Mocking Bird, Little Brown Jug and other pieces of his composition in a very entertaining style, our people always welcome his visits here, and especially did they this trip.

It is with regret that we have to chronicle the death of Mrs. Isabella Wade, mother of our townsman Mr. J. J. Wade. She quietly departed this life, Saturday night at 9 o'clock, at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Cook. She was an estimable and Christian lady, born and raised in this county. She lived to reach more than the allotted life, her age was 71 years. She married Mr. Samuel J. Wade, who died some years ago. She has been a member of the Free-Will Church for more than forty years and always let her Christian light shine. In her death three daughters and four sons are left without a mother, or a mother's influence. She was interred in Greenwood Cemetery Sunday evening at 2:30 o'clock. Where a host of relatives and friends congregated to pay their last loving tribute to the remains. Rev. J. J. Harper conducted the burial services.

The catalogue of the Horner School, Oxford, N. C., shows a patronage extending over ten States. For years this school has been full and to meet the demand the principals two years ago put up a model school building with all the modern improvements—electric lights, scientific ventilating and heating, a complete gymnasium, and a steam laundry. The patronage was doubted the first session, reacting within ten of the increased limit. It is to be noted that this school still places such a restriction in the number of pupils admitted, that the principals can give due personal care to each pupil. It is probably just here that the reputation of the school for the highest standard of scholarship and morals has been won and maintained. If you send your son to a school to be instructed by a certain teacher, it is desirable that no more pupils shall be admitted than can receive a large part of the personal instruction of that teacher. Secure the very best advantages for your son by engaging a room before it is too late.

Turlington Items.

Fodder pulling is the order of the day, and all want fair weather.

A very heavy rain fell in this section last Friday evening.

Services next Sunday at New Hope by the regular preacher.

Crop prospects are encouraging, cotton is good and we never saw any finer outlook for a pea crop, everybody will have peas.

While Mrs. Cornelia Fowler was on her way to Prospect Church Sunday on a buggy she was thrown out, while going down a hill on the way, the buggy was turned over and all the contents likewise, no serious injuries sustained by any one, Mrs. Fowler was slightly hurt.

At an early day a singing class will be organized at New Hope Church for the benefit of those who wish to improve their voices.

Treyville Items.

Pleasant weather now.

Our farmers are very busy now pulling fodder.

Mr. John M. Stewart went up to Raleigh Tuesday.

Miss Fannie Ennis returned Thursday from visiting friends and relatives in Johnston county.

Little Ida May, the two year old daughter of Mr. R. E. Williams is very sick with Erysipelas.

The pea crop in this section promises to be exceedingly fine.

In the consequence of the heavy rains in June and the drought in July, the cotton plant in this section is rather small, but is heavily balled, and we think there will be a fair crop after all.

Ex-Alasca Items

Our debate is still progressing, some addition has been made to the house by the society.

Rev. N. B. Gibbs preached an interesting sermon for us last Sunday. The text was, Mathew, 20th chap. and 33rd verse. Mr. Gibbs is a hard worker, and is aiming to commence a series of meetings the first Sunday in September here.

The committeemen have decided to continue our school for two more weeks, it didn't stop the 19th as the last issue said, but will close Friday, Sept. 13th exercises will commence at 7 o'clock p. m. strictly. We hope to see our friends and patrons mingled in the audience assembled to hear. I would venture to say, that those who fail to come will fail to partake in a rare treat. All invited.

OBITUARY.

Perry Lawson, the third child, and second son of Mr. F. A. and Mrs. M. D. Parker, was born Feb. 16, 1883, and died at his home in Averashoro, August 15, 1893, being ten years and six months old.

Lawsie, as he was affectionately called, was a model boy. Courteous to all, obedient to his superiors, studious at school, gentle in manners and kind and generous in disposition. He was the idol of his home, the pride of his teachers and the emulated model of his associates. On account of his noble qualities he was loved by all who knew him, especially his playmates, who knew him best. His life was as to impress one that he made Jesus his daily companion, and now the hearts of loved ones are turned towards heaven, where they feel there is another tie to bind them to that better world, and the hearts of the writer and many friends go out in loving sympathy to the bereaved ones.

"Go to thy rest, fair child!
Go to thy dreamless bed,
Gentle, meek and mild,
With blessings on thy head!"

"Hope looks beyond the beauties of time.

When what we now deplore,
Shall use in full, immortal prime,
And bloom to fade no more."

Death of Mrs. A. B. Alderman- ON THE 18

It is with sad regret that we chronicle the death of Mrs. A. B. Alderman, of Sampson. She had been in feeble health for some weeks, during which time she went into the Western part of the State to see if it would improve her, but she grew worse, and after spending some time with her son at Concord, Rev. Jacob Alderman. She came to her home in Sampson and passed away in a few days afterwards. She was a remarkable lady, with an intellect and constitution far above the average woman, and both were spent in doing good in her community, for the betterment of her race and the promotion of Christianity. She was the mother of ten children, eight of whom survive her, her husband Rev. A. B. Alderman, died some five years ago and was buried in the Cemetery here. Her remains were brought here Sunday and interred. In her death the children have lost an affectionate mother, the community a kind neighbor and the church one of its most magnifying lights. THE TIMES extends sincere sympathy to the bereaved family.

Opening of the University.

The next session of the University will open Thursday, Sept. 7th, Tuesday and Wednesday, Sept. 5th and 6th, will be devoted to registration and the allotment of rooms. Lectures will begin Thursday. President Winston has had over 1,000 letters during the summer, and the prospects are fine for a large attendance.

It will pay you to advertise in THE TIMES.

A Little Girls Experience in a Lighthouse.

Mr. and Mrs. Loren Tregcott are keepers of the Gov. Lighthouse at Sand Beach, Miss., and are blessed with a daughter, four years old. Last April she was taken down with Measles, followed with a dreadful Cough and turning into a Fever. Doctors at home and at Detroit treated her, but in vain, she grew worse rapidly, until she was a mere "handful of bones."—Then she tried Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption and after the use of two and a half bottles, was completely cured. They say Dr. King's New Discovery is worth its weight in gold, yet you may get a trial bottle free at Harper & Hood's Drugstore.

Strength and Health.

If you are not feeling strong and healthy, try Electric Bitters. If "La Grippe" has left weak and weary, use Electric Bitters. This remedy acts directly on Liver, Stomach and Kidneys, gently aiding those organs to perform their functions. If you are afflicted with Sick Headache, you will find speedy and permanent relief by taking Electric Bitters. One trial will convince you that this is the remedy you need. Large bottles only 50c. at Harper & Hood's Drug Store.

Deserving Praise.

We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell so well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits. Harper & Hood Druggists.

Pronounced Hopeless, Yet Saved.

From a letter written by Mrs. Ada E. Hurd, of Groton, S. D., we quote: "Was taken with a bad cold, which settled on my Lungs, cough set in and finally terminated in Consumption. Four doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Saviour, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. I gave it a trial, took in all eight bottles; it has cured me, and thank God I am now a well and hearty woman." Trial bottles free Harper & Hood's Drugstore, regular size, 50c. and $1.00.

In warm weather you need fans buy them from Fleming & Co.
