Man and the Book.

Last Sunday an Atlanta divine preached a sermon in which he warned his hearers not to worship the Bible—not to make the mistake of regarding the Book as the equal of Christ, but to look upon it simply as a help to Christ.

The preacher meant well, but in this age of free thinking, when scientists and critics are consciously or unconsciously unsettling the foundations of Christian faith, every word that minimizes the Word of God is doing a serious injury to the cause of religion.

Our Atlanta divine said, among other things, that a mother has not necessarily done much for her boy because she has bought him a nice Bible and put it in his trunk. We prefer not to hear any more of this sort of talk. The effect is half-always bad, and so splitting of hairs, and no higher criticism, and no subtle explanations can mend the matter. Give us the old-fashioned mother who sends her son out into the world with a Bible in his trunk, and give us the old-fashioned boy who reads that Bible every night, with tears in his eyes, as he thinks of the old folks at home, and their simple lives devoted to the cause of their Master. Give us the man woman or whose hands touch the Bible reverently, instead of clinging it about like a dictionary. Give us the plain old fellow who quickly takes leave of the circle in which critics are proceeding to ably explain away certain chapters of the scripture.

We live in an era of restless upheaval, and on every hand we see the thousands of men advocating theories calculated to overturn the law, destroy the state, undermine the church, separate families, and result in violence, anarchy and a red carnival of madness. As a safeguard against these dangers, hold fast to the old Bible of your fathers. The boy who is taught to reverence it will grow up a good citizen, if not a good Christian. Destroy the old-fashioned idea regarding this Book, and we shall have a republic of infidels defying God, defying the law, and repeating the licentiousness and the horrors of the French revolution.

We do not want any new theories about the Bible—no new versions—no new criticisms. If you cannot accept it as a whole and reverence it as the Word of God, then be silent. Say nothing that will weaken the faith of others. Never knock away the staff that supports the crippled wayfarer. Why tell the good, gray-haired mother that it will do no good to give a Bible to her child when he leaves home, unless you can suggest a better substitute? There is too much free, loose and irreverent talk these days, and people are the worse for it. Let us call a halt!—Constitution.

Advice to Young Ladies.

Don't marry a man with a limber tongue, he will provoke you to death.

Don't marry a man who has many sweethearts, he will love none.

Don't marry a man who does not love his mother, he will be unkind to you.

Don't marry a flirt, male flirts are an abomination.

Don't marry a dude, he is not worth marrying.

Don't be ever anxious to marry a rich man, he may become poor.

Don't marry a lazy man, you will have to support him.

Don't marry a poor provider he will starve you to death.

Don't marry a sickly man, you will have to pay his doctor's bills.

Don't marry a fiddler, you can't keep him home nights.

Don't marry a sailor, he will have a wife wherever he goes.

Don't marry a gambler, he will gamble you away.

Don't marry a man who swears, he has no manners.

Don't marry a man who drinks, his breath is unbearable.

Don't marry a man who reads novels, he will run away with your hired girl.

Don't marry a man who is not a Christian, he will make you miserable unless you can convert him.

Don't marry a man with magnetic fingers, he will be a candidate for the penitentiary and leave you a grass-widow.

Don't marry a man unless he loves you desperately.

Don't fail to read the Watch Tower, it will do you good.—Baltimore Sun.

This, we find in the Watch Tower, and the advice is worth something to all young ladies in the selection of a husband. When you think of getting married cut this article out, and when your selection for a husband comes, see if any of these habits take with him, if so let him pass, there are enough good honest real worthy boys in the land for you to get one for a husband. So don't be in a hurry. Ed.

A Little Girl's Experience in a Lighthouse.

Mr. and Mrs. Loren Treecott are keepers of the Gov. Lighthouse at Sand Beach, Miss., and are blessed with a daughter, four years old. Last April she was taken down with Measles, followed with a dreadful Cough and turning into a Fever. Doctors at home and at Detroit treated her, but in vain, she grew worse rapidly, until she was a mere "handful of bones."—Then she tried Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption and after the use of two and a half bottles, was completely cured. They say Dr. King's New Discovery is worth its weight in gold, yet you may get a trial bottle free at Harper & Hood's Drugstore.

Strength and Health.

If you are not feeling strong and healthy, try Electric Bitters. If "La Grippe" has left weak and weary, use Electric Bitters. This remedy acts directly on Liver, Stomach and Kidneys, gently aiding those organs to perform their functions. If you are afflicted with Sick Headache, you will find speedy and permanent relief by taking Electric Bitters. One trial will convince you that this is the remedy you need. Large bottles only 50c. at Harper & Hood's Drug Store.

Deserving Praise.

We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell so well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity by their ability to cure.

Pronounced Hopeless, Yet Saved.

From a letter written by Mrs. Ada E. Hurd, of Groton, S. D., we quote: "Was taken with a bad cold, which settled on my Lungs, cough set in and finally terminated in Consumption. Four doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Saviour, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. I gave it a trial, took in all eight bottles; it has cured me, and thank God I am now a well and hearty woman." Trial bottles free Harper & Hood's Drugstore, regular size, 50c. and $1.00.

In warm weather you need fans buy them from Fleming & Co.
