

THE TIMES.

PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY, BY YOUNG & GRANTHAM.

North Carolina has 31 more young lawyers than ever before. Last week a class of 34 applicants stood a successful examination and got license. Look out for more law suits.

The Memphis Commercial says "Mrs. Mary Yella Love" has a breath that is rank, ripe, that a whiff of it would kill a 244 of growing corn. We say let her blow it in Love and not let it blow any more.

It is said that James Gordon Bennett's annual income from the New York Herald is $750,000 and Mr. Pulitzer's from the World is $500,000. But our Exchange says don't rush into the newspaper business all at once, because that might over do the business.

Last week an awful riot and lynching took place in Roanoke Va., in which the mayor of the city and most of the best citizens of the town and community were engaged in. Great trouble seemed to brew at one time, but the riot has quieted at last and all is quiet and serene in the city now, but one man with his neck broke was the final result.

Congress don't seem to heed President Cleveland's address to that great body. He said, act and act quick, but they still make long speeches and get very little, if any nearer to the necessary action or relief. The people have waited and looked for something until patience has ceased to be a virtue. Why an assembly like this Congress can not settle on some move and go on is a question asked every day. However, we will have to tie the thread of patience and wait a while longer, it will come some time.

THE STATE FAIR.

Bright prospects for the Best one on record. The State fair will be held at Raleigh Oct. 17, 18, 16 and 20. Senator Z. B. Vance will be present on the opening day October 17th and will speak to the large crowds. On the same day (the 17th) there will be a hotly contested game of foot ball between the Wake Forest College and Trinity College teams. Both teams are now in training and will play to win. On every day "Cyclone John's" Wild West Show will give thrilling exhibitions of incidents in the life of the great Wild West. This show includes such noted Cowboys as "Texas Claude" "Mustang Jim" Cowboy Kid and others; also "White Bull" the boy chief of Iroquois Indians with ten of his braves, four handsome Indian girls and two little papooses. There are four dashing Cowgills who will astound the public by their wild daring riding etc. There will be Indian fights, ghost dances, war dances and other wild features. Some Mohawk Indians will show the wonderful tricks of Indian riding. All this will be free every day to everybody on the grounds. The Second Regiment Band of Wilmington has been engaged to make music during the week. There will be various side attractions including an Indian Village a menagerie of North Carolina Wild animals, a grand Cyclorama of the Battle of Gettysburg and an acre or more of other circus. On Friday night of that week there will be a grand State ball complimentary to the Marshals. Every day will have its attractions, and every night there will be first class Theatrical and Opera companies in the Opera houses. The various social clubs of the City will arrange dances for nearly every night in the week.
