

THE TIMES.

THURSDAY, NOV. 16, 1893

LOCAL.

Mr. G. H. Parker is still quite sick, we are sorry to say.

Johnston County Court convened Monday in Smithfield, with Judge Battle presiding.

Mess. G. O. Munns and Norfolk Bell, two young men from near here, left Tuesday for Florida.

The Progressive Farmer says Mr. Marion Butler will speak at Benson on Friday the 24th.

Gov. Carr has issued his Thanksgiving Proclamation, and set apart Thursday the 30th day of this month, as a day of thank offering.

We return thanks to Mr. B. T. Barnes of Grove Township, for two very fine turkeys of the White Globe kind. The largest one weighed 4 1/2 pounds.

In giving the Jurors for this term of Court last week, we were in error, as there will only be one week of Court, all the list is for the first week.

Mr. J. D. Phillips near Averbastro, while shooting Tuesday morning, had the misfortune to get his eye seriously hurt by the powder flashing in it.

Rev. Henry B. Coleman of Louisville, Ky., lectured Tuesday at Mingo Lodge and Tuesday night to the Lodge here. He is up on Masonry, so the Masons say.

We have a curiosity in the way of sweet potato, which was grown by Stokes McNeill of Stewart's Creek Township. It is the exact image of a snake, eyes, neck, tail and all, almost perfect.

Last Friday night Mr. George Miller a very old citizen of this county, died at the residence of Mrs. Winnie Stancill, where he had stopped to spend the night. His death was sudden. He was well known throughout the county.

Mr. Noah Massengill in Ingram's Township, Johnston Co., was before U. S. Commissioner J. B. Holland Tuesday the 14th, for illicit distilling and retailing liquor. He was found guilty and bound over, in a $200 bond, which he gave.

We regret to chronicle the death of Mr. B. Lucas of this Township which occurred last Friday morning suddenly. He was able to do his usual day's work on Thursday, and retired apparently well that night, in the night his wife woke and found him in a dying condition.

Mr. E. E. Hilliard, Editor of the Newland Neck Democrat, will deliver a lecture on Education at the Progressive Institute tonight and tomorrow, the 17th at Buie's Creek Academy. Mr. J. H. Mills styles himself an eloquent speaker. We will hear Mr. Mills, for we have

Public Debate.

The Prolific Literary Society of Buie's Creek Academy, will give a public debate on Nov. 24th, at night. Query: Resolved. That foreign immigration should be prohibited.

Speakers:
Affirmative. G. W. Naylor, J. W. H. Gregory, C. A. McNeill, D. M. Hamilton, J. Wood, A. C. Holloway, W. M. Montgomery, J. M. Byrd. Negative. W. P. Byrd, R. C. Bell, P. H. Rogers, C. H. Biggs, J. L. Hall, R. T. Kenedy, J. A. Campbell.
Declarators: W. M. Montgomery and C. H. Biggs.
The public are cordially invited.

Allen.—Strickland.

On last Sunday morning at the hour of 11 o'clock, at the residence of Mr. Isaac Strickland in Cumberland Co., the bride's father, Mr. Chas. E. Allen, a clever young business man of our town, led to hymen's altar Miss Maggie Strickland, one of old Cumberland's pretty and most amiable young ladies. Rev. W. B. Harrell of our town, tied the nuptial knot. The happy couple attended church at Antioch, after which, they, accompanied by a few friends returned to Mr. Strickland's, where a sumptuous dinner awaited the party. In the afternoon Mr. Allen brought his bride to Dunn, where they will reside. Mrs. Allen was a student of the Academic Institute last spring and has many friends here, who welcome her to our pleasant little town. THE TIMES wish them a pleasant union and long life.

Cumberland Court.

Superior Court for Cumberland Co. convened Monday in Fayetteville, Judge Shepard presiding. It is said that the criminal docket is very large, including one capital case, that of Mr. Fuller for killing B. C. Parker, on the 11th of August. The case will be of much interest to our county, as this was Mr. Parker's native county and his sisters and brothers all live in, and near our town. The Counsel employed for the prosecution, besides the Solicitor, Mr. Frank McNeill, are, Mr. Thos. Argo of Raleigh, Judge T. B. Womack of Pittsboro, and Mr. F. P. Jones of our town. Those by the defense, are, Mr. W. W. Fuller of Durham, Hon. G. M. Rose, H. Mc D. Robinson and John G. Shaw of Fayetteville. The case probably commenced yesterday, and will be watched with great interest.

On going to press we learn this case has been continued till Jan. term of Court.

The Cape Fear Free-Will Convention.

The Cape Fear Free-Will Baptist Convention convened with Shady Grove Church, Sampson Co., Nov. the 10th and 11th. The introductory sermon preached by Elder Robert Strickland, after which the Conference was called to order by the Moderator Elder Londie Lee and the names entitled to membership enrolled, there being a quorum present the Conference was then ready for the transaction of business. Mr. B. A. Hodges was treasurer and Mr. H. W. Jernigan secretary. Rev. J. J. Harper of Smithfield, J. L. Winfield of Washington, N. C., and J. H. Johnson from Wayne, fraternal messengers from the Disciple Church were present. The band of fellowship was extended to the visiting brethren and they were welcomed to seats with the Conference. The business was then transacted in the usual order, peace, harmony and love prevailed throughout the meeting. On Sunday Elder J. F. Hill of Wayne, and Rev. J. J. Harper preached good sermons to a large congregation. Elder Londie

Lee of Sampson, closed the services.

Turlington Items.

Mr. A. J. Turlington went to Raleigh last week on a business trip.

Mr. H. H. Penny of Pratt, Johnston Co., visited friends in this section Sunday.

Mr. B. R. Taylor of Fayetteville, was at the Cross Roads last week looking after the work there.

Some of our people would be glad to hear that Mr. Simmons had taken his position as Collector.

Mr. H. L. Godwin from Dunn, took charge of the public school in Dist. No. 18 last Monday. Success to the school.

Mr. J. R. Tew is pushing his work here, getting in turpentine and cutting cross ties, which gives working men something to do in this section. Mr. Tew is a hustler.

Mr. Wm. A. Johnson a good citizen of this section, died on Sunday the 5th. He was 77 years old. At his death, left a wife, several children and many friends. He was a good man, a good neighbor and had been a consistent member of the Missionary Baptist Church for many years.

Buie's Creek Items.

Mrs. Emma Blalock of Wake, is visiting relatives and friends in Harnett.

We were glad to have our old friend Mr. P. F. Pope of Cumberland, with us last Monday.

Mr. W. S. Strickland of Sampson, spent a few days last week with his friends and school mates in this section.

Mr. J. M. Page of this Co., spent Friday evening with us on his way to Sampson Co. to take charge of a school. Our wishes are with him in his work.

One of our Hector's Creek boys, while in Raleigh, stopped at a restaurant and called for a square meal, and so it was. The cook says he ate three pounds of sausage, drank ten cups of coffee, ate one pone of corn bread, one and a half pones of loaf bread, fish and beef accordingly, next day he was very sick, we hope he will soon recover. Filius.
