Trial to Light His Cigarette.

There are many green people in this world, but one of the greenest seen in Durham in many a day was here last evening. He was a tall, muscular fellow, and was walking down Main street when he came to Berry's store, in front of which was suspended an electric light. He stepped, pulled out a cigarette, and with a tragedian air, placed it against the globe and began to puff away but it did not light. When he discovered his mistake he stalked away and the bystanders roared with laughter. — Durham Sun.

A Costly Gobbler.

A $1,000 turkey will be served at dinner tomorrow by Hiram L. Light and a number of friends will help devour the expensive bird. About a year ago a turkey strayed away from the farm of John K. Light, of Swartara township. A few days later it was found in the possession of Ezra H. Light. A law suit followed to determine the ownership, and before it ended the parties to the suit were out over $1,000. To-day the bird was purchased by Hiram L. Light. — Lebanon (Pa.) Dispatch.

THE MT. AIRY NEWS SOLD.

Mr. Airy, Nov. 21—The Yadkin Valley News, of this place, has been sold by Mr. Geo. P. Pell, to Mr. P. B. Hamer, late his associate. This was done by Mr. Pell at a great sacrifice in order to allow him the opportunity of accepting a very flattering offer elsewhere. Mr. Pell has owned the News for more than two years, in which time it has been increased from a twenty-eight to a thirty column paper, and its circulation trebled. It is now a well equipped newspaper, with a good job office attached. Mr. Hamer, who is a graduate of Wafford College, recently came here from Marion, South Carolina, where he edited the Pee Dee Index. He will push the paper to greater success. — Cor. Observer.

Why Burglars Should Swing.

The law of North Carolina which prescribes capital punishment for burglary in the first degree, has been characterized as cruel and unnatural. The recent dispatches told of burglars having invaded a residence in Chicago and, being discovered, having shot three members of the family, one fatally. In this incident it is to be found the reason why North Carolina hangs for burglary. A person having entered a house in the night for the purpose of committing a felony, has the sleeping inmates at a disadvantage, and the theory of our law is that, rather than be taken, he will commit murder. How sound this theory is has been demonstrated in innumerable instances—that in Chicago is the latest. Our law has been modified by dividing the crime into degrees, which was no doubt, well enough, but it should never be modified to make burglary in the first degree anything short of a capital felony. — Charlotte Observer.

Inconsistency of a Populist.

There is a man, a Populist, in Union county, whose name we withhold, who refuses to pay his pastor simply because he votes the Democratic ticket. A man who does right and acts fairly and honestly, as does the pastor referred to, will never lose by it. An allwise and righteous Providence so rules affairs in this world that a man who does right and stands by his honest convictions and lets duty be his guiding Star will never lose by it, let bigots, fanatics and fools do what they may to injure him. The minister did not lose anything by voting as his judgment and conscience dictated, for a Democrat, not a member of any church, when he heard that the populist church member refused to pay his pastor because of the way he voted, went to the minister and paid him the amount the Populist was due him. — Monroe Inquirer.

Good Advice to Young Women.

There is nothing so certain to make you disliked as to tell your troubles to a friend. Prosperity means friends, but once you take it into your head to retail your woes you will soon discover that your Company is not wanted, and the people who once bowed to you in pleasant recognition now walk on the other side of the way with a cold and stony glare that looks over your or through your body, but never meets your eyes as of yore. The people are not hard hearted that turn the cold shoulder to you. They are only averse to knowing of any more misery than they already have to bear. We, every one of us, have our little troubles. In some cases they grow to be very large ones, and it isn't pleasant to have the dark side continually thrust before us just when we begin to feel a bit comfortable in our minds over some unpleasant occurrence, that has upset us for a time.

Take a bit of valuable advice, and when you feel like telling some one of your spat with your intended or how low your finances are, just remember our warning and don't do it. Your mother, your father and your husband are the true sympathizers, and, outside of them, you are certain to be soon called a bore if you persist in your harrowing confidences. — Philadelphia Times.
