

"What shall we do?" exclaimed lips. Mrs. Dent, glancing around at her three daughters with an expression of tragic despair.

bring a cook down with him," said looking at her with friendly-very Ange, the youngest, with an irrepres- friendly eyes, thought Ange, feeling a "Nousense! To-morrow is the twenty-fourth, and we will have to all enter the kitchen, and take it turn

"I am the cook, sir." "Ab, yes! It must be delightful to serve so charming a family," leaning "felegraph to Royal that he must against a low, sweeping bough, and physically on four hours' sleep. 'Early to bed and early to rise' is a splendid doctrine, but in cases where one cannot get to bed early they should not force themselves to rise early. Sleep all you can naturally, but never sleep for sleep's sake, or longer than is necessary."-Washington Star.

they are lying. They talk glibly about plutocrats and some of them, seem to think that wealth and Pluto and hell are all mixed up together. The fact is that Plutus, who was the god of wealth, was a very dif- but he needn't mourn about it. Let ferent person from Plato. For a long him fight the battle of life bravely .time he gave riches to the good only, BILL ARP, in Atlanta Constitution. but Jupiter did not like that and smote him with blindness so that he could and can hardly wag his tail, the big old oak in the back yard is dying at the top and man cannot escape the common infirmity. The poet says that "man was made to mourn," but I do not think so. He is born to trouble.

fr gation of Israel with a loud volce." The eight divisions of his prayer may be easily recognized by the eight times repeated, "Hear Thou in heaven" (verses 80, 82, 84, 36, 39, 43, 45, 49). The object of the temple is seen in the oft repeated phrase, "An house for the name of the Lord," or "For Thy name" (verses 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 43, 44, 48), in order that "all people of the earth may know Thy name, tc fear Thee, as do Thy people of Israel (verse 43), for there is no God in heaven above or on earth beneath like the Lord God of Israel (verse 23), who doeth wonders for His servants, requiring of them only that they walk before Him with all their heart. His people are a separated people only that they walk before Him with all their heart. His people are a separated people unto Him from all the people of the earth to be His inheritance" (verse 53). 56. "Blessed be the Lord that hath given rest unto His people Israel, according to all that He promised. There hath not failed one word of all His good promise, which He promised by the hand of Moses, His servant." Before he prayed he also blessed the congre-

It is stated authoritatively at the State De-partment that Consul General Lee's return to this country at this time is without any other significance than that the state of affairs in Havana is now so satisfactory that fairs in Havana is now so satisfactory that. his presence there is not urgently required and that he has been able to leave his office in the hands of Vice Consul Springer. Gen. Lee has merely seized this opportunity to visit his family as well as to see his son, who is a cadet at West Point, and possibly to take his family back to Cuba with him next about, until 1 can engage a cook." "On, mother! you know it would spoil my complexion to bend over the herself. She stole a glance at him. hot stove. That plan will never do," said fair Gertrude, folding her soft, lily-white hands.

"And if we do the cooking, who will man." entertain Mr. Estwald?" said Mira. "Well, you know we cannot get one now, for love or money," sighed the troubled matron.

"Yes, you can, mother mine. Here is one for love," said brown-haired, brown-syed Ange. "I will be the cook until you can get one, and Royal's fastidious friend need never know it. My name is Polly Ann, and I'll prepare the daiutiest dishes, and you can engage a boy to stay in the dining. room.

Mrs. Dent hesitated, but Gertrude and Mira applauded the plan eagerly, to the pretty cook, and she listened as it would leave them free to enjoy and felt the charm of his manner, the society of rich Mr. 'Estwald, and though laying up retribution for him. try their fascinations on him, for each, in the secret depths of her own mind, ning. A week passed, and every day determined to win him, if woman's Allen Estwald managed to see the cook, charms had any power.

Ange, my dear child, and I do not like she could not keep the tell-take red to have you banished in that style."

Arge, gaily, giving just one regretful of pleasure when the heard his voice. sigh, and then entering heartily into At last they succeeded in securing the work before her.

Royal came at the appointed time, of eight or nine and twenty, with blonde hair and moustache, keen, and grace of one long used to the refined and cultured circles of society. The Misses Dent were faultlessly dressed, and charmingly cordial, and with trembling dread, and finally de-tied look. "Where is Ange?"

"She-she-" the mother began, and then not being in the habit of tell. 10g falsehoods, she broke down.

"She has gone on a visit to Aunt Mary's," said Gertrude, smoothly.

"Must have been rather sudden !" he said, surprised.

'Ob, yes. Ange, dear child, is so flighty," murmured Mira, turning to Mr. Estwald with a sweet smile, and averting her face. "What will I have there the subject dropped.

But passing through the back entry an hour later, Royal was astonished to | 1 give you a list of your duties?" find a young person, half hid in a huge cook apron, in his arms; to feel own daring. the fond pressure of soft arms around his neck, the touch of a velvet cheek duty will be to love me as deeply and to his.

"Halloo !" he cried, falling back a still, and stretching out his arm until step. "Oh, Royal, don't you know me?"

"Ange !" he gasped.

corrected, with a soft laugh. "What is the meaning of all this mystery?" he inquired sternly. "Don't speak so loud," she said, and then explained the situation.

"Are you laughing at them, sir?" "No, indeed; I am in earnest!" he quickly cried.

"Just as I thought-ready to flirt with mistress or maid," said Ange to "He is very handsome; but beauty sometimes covers a very deceitful heart. I shall test this fine gentle-

He interrupted her thoughts. "May I have an apple?" "If you like them so green. They are not good without salt."

"Then I wish I had some salt." "I will divide mine," she said, graciously, and held out her pretty hand with a lump of salt lying in it.

Encouraged by her friendliness the gentleman drew nearer, and while they partook of green apples and salt their acquaintance progressed rapidly. Mr. Estwald exerted himself to be particularly agreeable and interesting

That meeting was only the begin-for Ange still filled that position, and "You are making quite a sacrifice, though indignant at his persistence out of her face when she met his "But it is self-banishment," said frank, admiring eyes, or check a thrill the services of a stout woman, and with a little nervous laugh Ange said accompanied by a handsome man Aunt Mary wished her to return home. "I will come this evening, and be introduced at the tea table," she said, clear blue eyes, and the winning ease and went away to her favorite haunt in the orchard. She felt sorely troubled. It was her duty to betray Estwald, but she shrank from the task made his appearance.

from you?" he said, with grave concern.

"Yes," heaving a sigh. "What will you do?" "Try to find another."

"I can offer you one if you will accept it," speaking slowly and doubtfully, and coming quite close to her. "You are kind," she murmured, to do?" "You will not have to cook. Lhall "If you please," trembling at her

"Then, the first and most important as truly as I do you," coming nearer o'clock all are in bed. The boys are it half encircled her. "Mr. Estwald-sir ! how dare you ?" she cried out, turning her flushed face

"No-Polly Ann, the cook," she and flashing eyes toward him. "Hush, Ange! until I have finished.

Burglary is Now a Science. The modern burglar is a scientist and inventor in his way. Recently a new era in safe breaking and other branches of the cracksman's art has opened, and the famous jimmy, so long rampant on the successful burg. lar's coat of arms, is to be superseded by more convenient labor saving tools. In Marseilles, France, the other day a gang of ingenious cracksmen entered a banker's office armed with a steel saw of the newest construction and a handy little gas engine_ There was no need for the exercise of muscle, nor was there any necessity for a good strong wrist at the saw, as there was at one time in the annals of famous robberies.

The light engine was started, the saw put in the proper place, and the connections made. Seating themselves serenely upon a couple of chairs near | and it will be a great relief to us all. at hand, these modern burglars watched the true and rapid work of their appliances.

The big safe might have resisted for hours the force of human hands, but the saw, impelled by the engine, it could not stand against. The stout iron safe promptly yielded up its con. tents of many thousands dollars' worth of gold and bonds, and in a quarter of the time it would have taken to have committed the robbery under the old conditions the burglars were well out of the building with their booty.

Training of German Princes.

The life of the German Emperor's boys is by no means one of luxury; for they are allowed only about an hour and a half a day to themselves, while the remaining time, even on holidays. is given to study and physical culture. Up to the age of nine, Mrs. Dent beamed graciously; but cided to keep silent. Just as she had life for them is one grand holiday, but Boysl glanced around with a dissatis- arrived at the generous conclusion he after that works begins. Here is the routine followed: In summer they "So your situation has been taken are out, of (bed at 6 o'clock (in winter an hour later). Breakfast is served at 7.30, and consists of one cup of tea and a roll; from 8 to 9.30 they are studying, then a second breakfast of bread, and water tinged with red wine, is supplied. Immediately afterward they work at their books, the time is divided until 1.15 with some physical exercise in gymnastics and > is spent in company with the military and civil governors of the castle, they have a brief breathing time to them. selves. But this soon passes, and they are again with their tutors studying science and music until 6 o'clock. Thereupon supper is served, and at 8 ile and in all other outdoor sports. -New York Independent.

Benefits of Aeraled Waters.

not tell the good from the bad, and ever since then everybody has had an equal chance to get his favors. Mythology says he was club footed and slow in movement when approaching a man to give him money, but when he took it away his feet took wings and he fairly flew away. They must have gotten that idea from the scriptures which say riches take wings and fly away. Plutus was a good hearted, clever, generous god, and I don't like to hear him slandered. The boy with the cornucopia was his mark, his ensign, and I never see that picture but what I think of him and wish he would come this way and empty his horn of plenty. I would like to feel the feeling of a plutocrat before I die. But the long agony will soon be over whether we lose or wip. Once I heard Bob Taylor, who was running sgainst his brother, make a speech, and in closing he urged his hearers to vote for him, but said he: "If you can't conscientiously do so, then vote for my brother Alf." If Brgan is not elected it will be a grain of comfort to know that some of my good neighbors are gratified. If I possibly can I am going to rejoice with those who rejoice. But there are some signs that I do not like. Who is backing up this anarchist, Lauterbach, in his treasonable utter-auces? He says that if there is not one way to prevent Bryan being president there is another. Does he mean to have him counted out by bribery as Mr. Tilden was? Has he got the scheme fixed, and is it to be done with Hanna's barrels of money? ] read sometime ago a boast that $10,000 apiece would buy every election manager in Chicago. That would take only a million to buy 100 managers, and they say they have got ten millions at their command. Is it possible that so good, so honorable a man as McKinley would consent to such iniquity? I don't believe it. Maybe the conspirators have plotted a scheme through the courts to get a bill of injunction and let Cleveland hold over pending the litigation. I wish I did know what Lauterbach means to do in case Bryan is elected. It is getting very close now. close in time and close in count. The betting is about even.

Two months ago it was fifty to one on McKinley. From time to time it dropped to ten to one, and then five to one and three to one and two to one, and now is about even and few takers. I know a New York man who writes for a Republican paper and scarrifices Bryan awfully, but says in a letter to me, "It looks now like he is going to be elected," Well, we will wait a few days longer and for the best, too. I have my con-victions and my hopes, but both may

LATEST NEWS.

At Norristown, Pa., C. O. Kaiser

killed his wife, hid all the valuables and charged the crime to bandits. Investigation followed and he committed suicide.

Advices from Constantinople say the commission appointed by the Sultan to investigate the recent riots in that city has submitted its report, which merely states the facts elicited. The commission estimates that the number of Armenians massacred is 2,250.

W. S. Stratton, the millionaire mine owner of Cripple Creek, Col., a few days ago took a bet of $100,000 on Bryan against $300,000 on McKinley.

At Louisville, Ky., Councilmen Geo. Weber and James Sowders and Aldermen C. J. Jenne and Richard V. Breuer have been indicted by the grand jury, the former on the charge of attempting to bribe Councilman W. J. Faller, and the others for selling supplies to the city contrary to law. Monday Wm. J. Bryan closed his campaign at Omaha, Neb., after delivering a dozen or more speeches in the different halls of the above city.

All of last week, up to Monday previous to the election, Mr. McKinley received throngs of enthusiastic gatherings from the different parts of the country.

The total visible supply of cotton for the world is 3,051,954 bales, of which 2,747,854 bales are American, against 3,261,549 bales and 2,992,339 bales respectively last year.

A cyclore swept over the city and province of Seville, Spain, last week, wrecking a great many houses and killing and injuring a number of the inhabitants.

R. A. Denmarck, of Savannah, Ga, has been elected president of the Southern Railway, to succeed President Baxter, deceased.

At Cleveland, O., The American Wire Works has started up on double time and is running full blast, over 1,300 men now being employed.

CHANGE FOR THE BETTER.

The Sultan of Turkey 'Coming to His Senses

The latest from Constantinople, Turkey, says that since the recent visit of the Russian Ambassador, M. De Nelidoff, to the Sultan and the long and important audience that followed, it has been noticeable that another change for the better has taken place in the attitude of Abdul Hamid and his advisers towards the Armenians in particular and the reform policy in general. It is known that M. De Nelidoff used very plain language to the Sultan, and it is apparent that the latter and see. I am prepared for the worst, | was convinced that the Bussian Ambassador gation, re erring to the Lord's goodness and faithfulness in having fulfilled with His hand all that He spake with His mouth (verses 15, 24). In Joshua's farewell he also said, "Ye know in all your hearts and in all your souls that not one thing hath failed of all the good things which the Lord your God spake con-cerning you" (Joshua xxiii., 14.) 57. "The Lord our God be with us, as He was with our fathers. Let Him not leave us nor forsake us." God had, through Moses, His servant, spoken of this rest for His people, and this place where He would cause His name to dwell (Deut. xil., 10, 11), and He had also given them these promises: "The Lord thy God, He it is that doth go with thee; He will not fail these nor forsake thee. Fear not, neither be dismayed" (Deut. xxxi., 6, 8). His great encouragement to Moses himself and to Joshua and Gideon was 'I will be with thee" (Ex. iii., 12; Joshua I., 5; Judg. vi., 16). We may well be content with such things as we have since He hath said, "I will never leave thee nor forsake thee" (Heb. xiii., 5). 58. "That He may incline our hearts unto 58. "That He may incline our hearts unto Him to walk in all His ways." To know Him is the greatest thing on earth, and perhaps in heaven, too. It is better than wisdom or riches or might (Jer. iz., 23, 24). He said in His great prayer, "O, righteous Father, the world hath not known Thee, but I have known Thee" (John xvii., 25), and in verse 3 He said that it was eternal life to know

God and Jesus Christ. 59. "And let these my words, wherewith I have made supplication before the Lord, be nigh unto the Lord our God day and night." Solomon asked this in order that the Lord may maintain his cause and the cause of may maintain his cause and the cause of Israel as each day shall require. See margin and R. V., and also Jer. Iii., 34, where the Hebrew phrase is the same. It is a daily re-lying upon the Lord to manage all that con-cerns us, and He will surely do it for all who truly rely upon Him, not only day by day, but every moment (Isa. xxvii., 8). 60. "That all the people of the earth may know that the Lord is God, and that there is none else." For that reason way, Jordan know that the Lord is God, and that there is none else." For that reason was Jordan divided (Joshua iv., 24), and for the same reason will God yet do wondrous things for Israel (Ezek. xxxviii., 23). He would do wondrous things for His people to-day if they would but live wholly for Him and serve Him in sincerity with all the heart. He is still saying. "Call unto Me and I will answer these and show these great and answer thee and show thee great and mighty things which thou knowest not" (Jer. xxxiii., 3). It is written that "the pleasure of the Lord shall prosper in His hand." And if His saints would be cheerfully in His hand and at His feet for His pleasure, what might He not do? (Isa. liii., 10; Deut. XXX., 8.)

10; Deut. XXI., 8.) 61. "Let your heart therefore be perfect with the Lord our God, to walk in His statutes and to keep His commandments, as at this day." David, ere he died, admonished Solomon to serve the Lord with a perfect heart and with a willing mind, and prayed God to give him a perfect heart to keep His commandments (I Ohron. xxviii., 9; xxiz., 9). The Lord said to Abram. "Walk before Me and be thou perfect," and to Israel. "Thou shalt be perfect with the Lord thy God" (Gen. xvii., 1; Deut. xviii., 13). As to daily life there is no one perfect in the sense of being without sin. for of all men the Lord Jesus Chrisf was the only man that ever Jesus Christ was the only man that ever lived without sin, but any redeemed soul can by the grace of God live and walk up-rightly and have a whole heart for God, which is the sense of perfect in these texts. 62. "And the king, and all Israel with him, offered sacrifice before the Lord." Notice the oneness of the king and all Israel in the matter of the sacrifice. Every sacrifice truly offered to God from the time that the Lord God made unto Adum and Eve coats of skins and clothed them (Gen. iii., 21) pointed to the only sacrifice that could take away sins —that of the Lamb of God foreordained be-fore the foundation of the world (I Pet. 1.,

The President has denied a pardon to Luther A. Hull, of Georgia, sentenced in January, 1891, to imprisonent for life in the Ohio penitentiary for conspiracy and murder.

- -

The Treasury Department has instructed Dr. Serser, commissioner at New York to land 213 Armenians on their glving bond in $100 each. These Armenians had been de-tained as likely to become public charges.

A TALE OF HARDSHIP.

Whaling Bark Returns After Thirty-One Months of Absence.

The whaling bark John Winthrop has returned to San Francisco, Cal., after an absence of thirty-one months during the greater portion of which time she has been within the arctic circle. There is not a barrel of oil in her hold, or a pound of whalebone and her logbook shows only hard luck. The Winthrop brings additional particulars of riots last winter among the whalers. When a party of twelve left Herchell Island for the mines last March they stole all of the Win-throp's dogs, sleds and firearms. A searching party went in pursuit and was mostly made up of officers, the bark's crew was so mutinous that the officers were obliged to stand two out of three watch and it became ecessary to doubly guard the store-ho Several deserters were captured and brought back; at least one froze to death and awful hardships were encountered. Captain Simmons says sailing vessels are useless in the Arctic regions because the currents are so strong that the ship is unmanageable in Massacre in Eastern Turkey.

the gale of wind,

Advices from Harpoot, Eastern Turkey, eccived at Boston, Mass., confirms the dispatches to the Associated Press in regard to the extent and barbarity of the recent massacre at Egin. These advices state that many of the dead were left in the streets for days as the food for dogs, and large numbers were thrownsinto the Euphrater. The bodies were seen floating down the river forty or ility miles below the city. In some cases whole families were obliterated. Exact statisfics, of course, cannot be given now, but it is feared that 2,000 is an under-estimate. All the testimony at hand concurs in showing that the massr ore was official and that it was wholly without reason.

Shot Her Son and Husband.

Mrs. J. W. Allen, of Marysville, Mont., sho at her husband with a rifle, but missed him and killed her twelve-year-old son. She then fired two more shots at her husband, one ball fracturing the skull and the other breaking his arm. He will probly die. The couple have not been living happily together. Allen whipped his son and this so enraged Mrs. Allen that she picked up the rifle and began shooting.

Georgia Legislature Meets.

The Georgia legislature met last Wednesday and was immediately organized. There was no contest of any offices, all being setlel by cancus. The Hon. Robert Berner was elected president of the Senate; Hon. C. ... Fray, president, pro tem.; the Hon. H. A. envine of Putnam, was elected Speaker; the For. W: A. Dodson, of Sumter, Speaker pro tem., and Hon. Mark Hardin, clerk.

AND

horse exercise. After dinner, which considered very proficient in the sad-

A very general impression prevaile

"Hang it all! I'll have a cook, if I have to go back to town after one. Here I brought Estwald down to see you, and then find you banished to the kitchen! I've a great mind to raise a 10w."

"If you do, I-I will spoil the dinner !" she cried, in alarm, then disappeared in the pantry.

Royal glowered at the bare wall for a minute; then a smile suddenly spread over his face, and he went back to the parlor, whisting cheerfully.

The dinner was faultlessly cooked could." and served, and after it was over, and her mother came out, insisting on washing the dishes, Ange bathed her face, put on a fresh, white gown, and taking a book, sought the solitude of the orchard.

She climbed to her favorite seat in the fork of an old apple tree, and had been there long enough to get rested and cool, when a gentleman came sauntering through the shady sweetpess of the old orchard.

Ange did not see him in time to ran Ange's happiness, but they were never away, or even get down from her able to understand how she won Allen erch, and sat still and almost breath- Estwald's love. - tion.

"Ange? You know me, then? "Yes," he said, and boldly took her for ordinary drinking water is a great band. "Now, how long have you known?" she faltered, blushing deeply.

"Royal told me the first day. Now, may I go on and tell you about that?"

"No." "Why not, Ange, darling?" "Because I am angry-very angryand I wish you would go away," with quivering lips and tears trembling on her eyelashes. "Not until I ask you to be my wife, dear. I fell in love with your picture before I saw you, and Royal's account of your manifold perfections deter- gree of safety from them is secured mined me to see and win you, if I

He talked eloquently, and must have won her complete forgiveness, for when he lifted her down from her perch, he kept her close in his arms a minute, and stole a kiss from the sweet lips, unrebuked.

They met Royal at the upper edge of the orchard, and he came near hug- tion or sufficient filtration. Mrs.

Gertrude and Mira could not grudge ging them both in his intense satisfac- Frankland recommends it as a measure of great hygienic importance.

A new copper mining field is to be County, Colorado.

that the substitution of aerated waters safeguard against zymotic disease, Mrs. Percy Frankland shows, in a recent article in Nature, that though this impression is more or less justified by investigation, it should only be encouraged to a moderate extent. The most satisfactory fact established by the experiments of several investinot. He delights to say, "I told you gators refers to cholera germs, and is Now I am going to quit thinking that these bacilli cannot live in ordiabout politics for a day or so at least. nary seltzer and soda water longer For my wife has forewarned me that than three hours. The bacilli 'of it is the right time to take up the typhoid fever live much longer under plants and bulbs and pot them and the same circumstances, and no deput them in the pit. She is very careful about the kind of soil I plant them unless the aerated water infected by in, and so I have to take the wheelbar. them has been stored for at least a row, which is the unicycle now, and fortnight before use. Storage of the get some leaf mold from the corners waters has been proved of undoubted of the fence. Then I have to get some service in the destruction of disease fertile from the barn yard and mix germs, and, in the absence of preliminary precautions by the manuwith it and some sand to go on top.

facturers such as the removal of all She bosses it all very kindly, and I have bacteria present, by boiling, distillanothing to do but the work. I like that. It relieves me from responsibility. If a plant dies in the pit I can say, "I fixed it just as you told me." She has given the heifer calf to one of the children and now the old cow is lowing opened up near Silver Cliff, in Custer all the day long and the calf is bleating at its new home and my wife is so sorbe wrong—but I am no pessimist. I do not fear that the nation will be ruined if things do not go my way. Man is naturally a vain, conceited creature, and when he forms an opin-ion he wants things to happen that way whether it is the right way or not. He delights to say. "I told you

BOLD. BAD ROBBERS.

They Had Things Pretty Much Their Own Way in Oklahoma.

A special from Guthrie, Okla., says: The Sac and Fox Indian agency, sixty miles southeast of Kansas City, Mo., was held up and looted by the same gang of bandits who looted the town of Carney recently. Sae and Fox is only thirty-six miles from Carney. There were four masked robbers mounted and armed. They first rode to the office of Agent Thomas, presumably to demand $46,000 in greenbacks to be paid as annuities to the Sec and Fox Indi ans soon. Mr. Thomas was out, and the robbers went to the store of Mrs. Fannie Whistler and took $430 and valuable papers from the safe. They then held up J. W. Moffitt's place and got $59 then held up J. W. Momit's place and got $59 and a gold watch. Chief Keokuk's place was robbed of $80 and $3,000 worth of notes. The boldness of the robbers frightened the traders and people so badly that they were nuable to resist. The bandits, on leaving, rushed through the grounds of the govern-ment Indian school firing their gups.

it with His glory, as we have seen. We are commanded to present our bodies a living sacrifice as temples in which God the Father, Son and Spirit may dwel! (Rom. xit., 1, 2; John xiv., 17, 23). And as truly as we do this by virtue of His blood shed for us, He this by virtue of His blood shed for us, He will accept the offering through the merits of Jesus Christ and fill us with His Spirit, even with all the fuliness of God (Eph. iii., 19). Thus shall we know the exceeding greatness of His power toward us who be-lieve (Eph. 1., 19).—Lesson Helper.

Money Lend ers Now in Politics. The People's Party State Central Commitbe, of Minnesota, announces that it has received over 500 letters from different section of the State saying that mortgage loaners are giving warning that in case Bryan is elected giving warning that in case Bryan is elected they will promptly commence foreclosure proceedings on every mortgage in their pos-session which is oferdue, and that insurance agents are notifying policy holders that they will cancel all insurance in case Bryan wins. This information has greatly intensified the political feeling in Minnesola, and threatens to make the election the warmest which ever occurred there.

Cigarmakers on Strike.

Six hundred operatives in Manrara's cigar factory struck at Tampa, Fla., because their demands for an increase in wages were not acceded to. The cigarmakers are all Cubans and Spaniards. Much bad blood prevails and serious trouble is apprehended. The men will not allow other workmen to take their places.

SEWING ACHIN MONEY MADE WE OR OUR DEALERS can Loll WE OR OUR DEALERS can (d) you machines cheeper than you can get elsewhere. The NEW HOME is our best, but we make cheaper kinds, such as the CLIMAX, IDEAL and other High Arm Full Mickel Flated Sowing Machines for $15,00 and up. Call on our agent or write us. We want your trade, and if prices trans have it. We challenge the world to produce a BETTER $50.00 Sewing Machine for $50,00, or a better $20. Sewing Machine for $20.00 than you can buy from its, or our Agents. THE NEW HOME SEWING MACHINE CO. THE NEW HOME SEWING MACHINE CO. CHICAGO, M.L. ST. LOUIS, MO. DALLAS

11 15

BSOLUTELY

The Best

FOR SALE PY

RAINEY & JORDAN Bunn, N. C.