A Remarkable Vision.

At the Crumoler meeting held Sheriff McArtain, of Lillington, here last spring Mr. B. M F. Coats. a young man of this place who had lived up to that time a rather wayward life, professed religion and theu holy sanctification. He soon made himself a conspicious character at the meeting and when Crumpler was gone Coat's zeal for sanctification was such that he decided he must preach and Mr. Stephen Shelton, of Richmond, help his friends and comrades he had Va , was visiting in the city Sunday. known in sin to do better and lead them to the church. He made appolatments to preach at different places through the surrounding country and seemed to be thoroughly in earnest in his desire to help others

But recently is seems that some of thorn in his fl sh and he decided to some repairing done on the inside of Mr. G. F. Snead and wife spent a make amends if he could. It appears that some years ago Coats became in volved in some trouble here and went to Goorgia, and while there he mar-M.ss Basie Aldridge, who has ried a young woman. After a couple home here, and after a while married Miss Carrie Felton, who lives with a young lady in Cumberland county til recently. This wife now has one Miss Mattie Collins, after spending child and before leaving he took ber and the baby to her father's in Cumberland. He then hitched up his horse to a cart or buggy and left for Georgia on a preaching tour, helding holiness meetings as he went. In Robeson county he met one of his holiness brethren and to'd him that he had been shown in a vision that Mr. Nathan Creel, who, we believe, the wife in Georgia was his lawful again he would return to wife No. 2 the west by a.c. ay St. 100 feet, Being 3.0 feet and live with her.
