The game was called Tuesday morning at 9:30 o'clock, and a very interesting game was expected. Each team went to the bat but not a single run was made on the first inning. The boys all played well and few sorry plays were made. One thing to be greatly admired of the visiting team they were all self-composed and acted the part of gentlemen, and thus avoided the everlasting harrangues that are so frequent on such occasions. The most of the sympathy of the by-standers was greatly manifested for our boys but with all this the score stood 11 to 18 at the close of the ninth inning.
