DUNN, N. C.

SPECIAL.
 A man's job work must be had when order is given and when delivered. Thirty days an advertising.

LOCAL DOTS.

—The ready for the big excursion Monday August 2nd.
 —The coming train belonging to Mr. H. T. Spears left Sunday.
 —The train will leave Monday at 6:30 a. m. Round trip. Don't miss it.
 —At the commendation of the Lee Cook Stoves in another column. They are sold in Dunn only by the Lee Hardware Company.
 —Five car loads of sheep passed through here on a north-bound freight train Saturday morning. A car load of sheep is not often seen passing here.
 —Mr. B. F. Smith is selling oranges and pears, and represents a first-class house. If you contemplate buying be sure to see him. See his "ad" in this issue.
 —Evangelist Leavitt's new gospel tent arrived at Benson yesterday. He will pitch it in Dunn next Wednesday. Quite a crowd is expected to attend the meetings.
 —In mid rains have fallen all through this section since Monday and we learn that over in Sampson in Westbrook's township the heaviest rain fell there yesterday ever known by the oldest inhabitants.
 —Ed Wilkins, Walter Justice and William Massey were arrested before Mayor Godwin Monday for fighting on Sunday. He fined each of them $1 and costs. All of them are colored.
 —We think it is necessary to call the attention of our city officials to the indecency of the raiment some of the colored boys appear in on our streets. If no copy of person is not a misdemeanor it should be. Too much ventilation is against the taste of the people.
 —See the advertisement of O. L. C. hogs for sale by Mr. A. W. Gregory in this issue. He makes this breed of hogs a specialty and he has some fine ones and everybody who have tried them speak highly of them. He will sell this lot on easy terms.
 —The annual installation of officers of Palmyra Lodge, No. 117, A. F. & A. M., will take place at their Lodge room on Wednesday, July 28th 1897, after which refreshments will be served. Cards of invitation have been sent out by the Marshal to a few members and friends of the order and their families.
 —Our esteemed townsmen, Mr. O. P. Shell is a pretty good grower. At any rate he can grow radishes. He planted some Spanish Radish seed in the spring and the other day he gathered 37 pounds of radish from a row ten feet long. They were the largest we ever saw and were perfectly sound.
 —Messrs. Hatch Bros., of Mt. Olive, will run a big excursion from Dunn to Wilmington and Beach Via. Wilson, on August 2nd, and will take on passengers at all stations from Dunn to Pikeville. It will be for white people only, and the fare cheaper than ever before. See posters.
 —James Gregory, a white boy about 12 years old who lives with Mr. Gaston Barnes at Averasboro, was bitten on the right wrist by a snake, pilot of moccasin, at Cape Fear river early this morning. He bound his arm with a strip of cloth and came over to town arriving here about 11 o'clock. Dr. Sexton prescribed for him. He was suffering considerably with it, the hand and arm below the cord being badly swollen.
 —Herbert Wilkins, colored, who has been doing the brick work on R. G. Taylor's store under contract from Mr. A. D. Newberry, quit work last week and refused to work more unless he got more money, having already received about the amount for which the contract called for when the work was completed. He was arraigned before Justice J. F. Phillips for obtaining money under false pretence and bound over to the next term of Harnett court.

People and Their Movement.

Mr. T. L. Gerald made a trip to his old home near Selma this week.
 Mr. H. T. Spears spent Sunday with his family at Lillington.
 Miss Josie Adams, of Little River Academy, spent Sunday in town.
 Mr. J. W. Whittington, the clever jeweler of Benson, was in town yesterday.
 Mr. Hatch, of Mt. Olive, was in town to-day in the interest of the excursion.
 Miss Sadie Adams returned to her home at Little River Academy Monday.
 Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Wade spent last night at Godwin and returned home this morning.
 Miss Lula Kirkman, of Smithfield, is visiting her uncle, Mr. D. H. Hood this week.
 Mrs. Dr. Crawford returned to her home at Raleigh Saturday.
 Mr. A. D. Newberry made a trip to Fayetteville Saturday and returned Sunday.
 Miss Nettie Barnes left today for Raleigh to visit her sister, Mrs. Fordham.
 Messrs F. M. McKay and J. A. Green, of Lillington were on our streets Saturday.
 Mrs. P. J. Jefferys and children returned from a visit to relatives at Fremont Monday.
 Mr. P. T. Massengill and family returned yesterday from Carolina Beach where they spent several days.
 Prof. Z. B. Turlington, of Benson, accompanied by Miss Mattie Woodall, of Smithfield, spent Sunday in town.
 Miss Daisy Hood, accompanied by Miss Fannie Cox, returned to her home in Goldsboro today.
 Miss Addie Byrd and brother, of Little River Academy, spent Sunday in town, the guests of Mrs. J. H. Pope.
 Mrs. James Parsall, accompanied by her children, is visiting her sister Mrs. H. T. Spears at Lillington.
 Register of Deeds J. McKay Byrd was in town to-day. He says crops are looking well around the capital of Harnett.
 Mrs. J. W. Bets and little son Richard, who have been visiting Mrs. G. H. Parker for some time left to-day for their home in Raleigh.
 Mr. E. F. Young and family left Saturday for Wilmington and Carolina Beach where they went for several days' recreation.
 Mrs. L. J. McKay, our ex-postmistress, left Saturday for Wilmington to visit her son, Dr. Malcolm McKay, who has been transferred from the Marine Hospital of Wilmington to the hospital in Boston, Mass. Mr. McKay is a young man of who Dunn is glad to claim.
 Prof. J. T. Prince, formerly of Harnett county, who has been teaching penmanship in South Carolina for several years, spent Sunday in town the guest of Mr. W. F. Utter. He has recently accepted a position in the Augusta Business College as instructor in penmanship and soliciting agent. He will spend a few weeks at his old home at May.
 —Watch out for mad dogs. A dog was seen in town Sunday afternoon that was supposed to be mad.
 —Mr. D. Mc. Brown has had some new shelves and counters but in his store and now has one of the most attractive grocery stores in town.
 The town aldermen passed an ordinance last night as follows. Any person who shall manufacture or sell any spirituous or malt liquors, cider, beer or anything that will produce intoxication shall be fined not more than $20, one-half of which will be paid to any informer who makes proper proof for conviction.
 —A sad death occurred in Raleigh last Tuesday night. The Gov'n'r's guard went out to Puley Park for a sham battle; they were divided and fronting each other began firing with blank cartridges. A cartridge with a ball in it was fired by some one and it struck private Geo. N. Banks in the forehead killing him instantly. This broke up the battle and will probably put a stop to all such foolishness.

Charged With Burglary.

Isham Smith has probably seen his last day of liberty and will be fortunate indeed, if he does not hang at the end of a rope. He is now in custody of Sheriff Pope, who has a commitment to keep him in jail without bail until the next term of the Superior Court of Harnett county, charged with burglary in the first degree. He is a coal-black bullet-headed negro about 23 years of age and lives at Averasboro.
 The evidence in the case is about as follows: Between the hours of 12 and 1 o'clock Saturday night Mrs. F. A. Parker, who resides at Averasboro, was awakened by some one in her bed room. She and four daughters were sleeping in the room. When she went to bed a lamp was left burning in the room; when she awoke the lamp was out but by the light of the moon she detected the form of a negro man who thrust open the blinds and jumped out at the window. She called her son who is about grown and he rushed out into the yard to see if he could find the negro, but he was gone. From some previous actions of Isham Smith he was suspicious, beside an umbrella was found sitting outside the house was thought to be his. Some of the neighbors were aroused and search was instituted for him. They went to the house where he had been sleeping but he was not there; they then went to another house where he had been sleeping but he was not there; they then went to another house where he had slept some time previous but still did not find him. This last house was an old kitchen at Mrs. Barnes. Pretty soon after the searching party left Mrs. Barnes heard some one go into this old kitchen. She sent one of her little boys up to Mrs. Parker's to tell the boys that she thought he was there. They went there and opened the door and found him apparently dead asleep and hard to awake. As soon as he awoke he said "Dat won't me dat went into dat house. It was a white man I loaned my umbrella to who said he was going to Mrs. Parker's to stay all night." They took him to Mrs. Parker's and stood him in the tracks that went off from the window and his bare feet made exactly the same prints. They kept him until morning and brought him to Dunn and placed him in the guard house. The preliminary hearing was had before Justice H. C. McNeill Monday morning. Mr. F. P. Jones appearing for the State and Mayor H. L. Godwin for the defendant. The sheriff says he will keep him in chains until court.
 This same negro was up before Justice McNeill Friday charged with throwing stones at Mrs. Sallie Smith an old blind lady at her home, but no witness would swear that this negro did it and the old lady being blind could not be released. We learn that he has a bad reputation and all the ladies around Averasboro feared him. He may be thankful that he ever had a chance for a trial. Such fiends are a menace to any community and deserve death for their hellish intents.
 —Two mad hogs were killed in town last week. They had all the symptoms of hydrophobia, frothing at the mouth, biting and snapping at everything that came in their reach.
 —Lucknow Square is gaining more residents. Mayor H. L. Godwin is having a nice law office fitted up up stairs in the Godwin building. Several improvements in the buildings on that block has an will soon be made.
 —John McLendon, colored, was before Mayor H. L. Godwin this morning charged with the larceny of two pair of pants. He went into Mr. R. G. Taylor's store this morning early and while the boys James and Brainerd were sweeping the floor he slipped the pants under his coat and started out. The boys, both small, suspicioned his action called him and asked what he had under his coat. He replied nothing, but a pair of overalls which he had bought at Massengill's store. They did not believe him and examined him and found the pants. He then begged them not to tell as he was just pranking with them. When Mr. Taylor came down they told him of the occurrence and he had him arrested. He was held in $100 bail for his appearance at the next term of the court. He will probably go to jail.

 DUNN, N. C., July 19, 1897.
 This is to certify that we have a New Lee Cook Stove that we purchased of the Lee Hardware Co., and it has given very good satisfaction so far. We can safely recommend it to the trade.
 O. L. DENNING, M. D.
 DUNN, N. C., July 16, 1897.
 I bought of the Lee Hardware Co. a New Lee Cook Stove about two years ago. It has given satisfaction.
 D. H. HOON.
 To The Lee Hardware Co., Dunn, N. C.
 Gentlemen:—The New Lee Stove bought of you about 12 months ago, I am glad to say is giving entire satisfaction. It is the best stove we have ever had, and we have used several other kinds. Also my son is using one which he has had in use two years or more which is giving the utmost satisfaction. I advise all my friends who wish to purchase a stove to buy no other but the New Lee. I would not now take the money I paid for mine.
 Very respectfully,
 J. R. GODWIN.
 We have numerous other testimonials attesting the good qualities of the New Lee Stove some of which will appear in these columns from time to time.

Miss Cromartie Dead.
 A telegram Monday afternoon brought the sad news to Mr. R. L. Cromartie and Mrs. L. H. Lee of our town of the death of their sister, Miss Lela Cromartie, at her home in Bladen county at 2:30 o'clock that afternoon. She had been sick for two months with a fever. She was just reaching womanhood being in her 18th year. She had many friends here who learn with sorrow of her seemingly untimely death. She was an attractive young lady of pleasant manners, sweet disposition and christian character. She was a member of the M. E. Church and left the blessed assurance with her friends that she is not dead but just crossed over the river to the Eternal City where ever liveth the pure in heart.
 On account of the bad railroad facilities and the down pour of rain Monday evening and Tuesday morning Mr. Cromartie and Mrs. Lee did not attend the funeral. The Union extends its tenderest sympathy to them in their sad bereavement.

Wedding Bells at Wallace.
 One of the prettiest weddings that ever took place in Wallace was that of the attractive Miss Ella Boney to Mr. J. H. Westbrook, July 14th, at 9 o'clock p. m.
 The Presbyterian church was beautifully decorated by the artistic hands of the bride's sisters and intimate friends. The large crowd of interested friends was gracefully ushered in by the accomplished Misses Lula and Lillie Boney, Hettie and Estelle Westbrook.
 Promptly at 9 o'clock to the thrilling strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march rendered by the sweet touch of Miss Lottie Utley, of Apex, the wedding party came into the church and marched up the aisle to the altar where the ceremony was solemnized by the Rev. Peter McIntyre, of Faison.
 Miss Boney has many friends in Dunn, having visited our town over a year ago. She possesses those accomplishments which make her a favorite wherever she goes. Our people join in wishing for her a long life of happiness filled with marriage bliss.
 Have tried others, but like Ayer's best is the statement made over and over again by those who testify to the benefit derived from the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Disease never had a greater enemy than this powerful blood purifier. It makes the weak strong.
 At a recent competitive examination for appointments to West Point and Annapolis both appointments were awarded to boys prepared at Horner School Oxford N. C.
