

THE COUNTY UNION

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 22, 1898.

DUNN, N. C.

LOCAL DOTS.

—Wash McNeill and wife, colored, were arraigned yesterday afternoon before Mayor Phillips for being disorderly and disturbing the peace and quiet of the town. Wash was found guilty and fined $1.00 and costs. He gave notice of an appeal to the Superior Court.

—The new tariff law goes into effect July 1st. Nearly everything that the people have to buy will bear the stamp of "Uncle Sam" after that date and the people will have to pay for the same. "Uncle Sam" is spending money at the rate of a million dollars a day now for war purposes and the people pay the bills. But after the war is over we may have islands to sell and get some of this money back.

—Some weeks ago a mule ran away with a buggy on which was a daughter of Mr. Autry Baggett, of Sampson county. Miss Baggett was thrown from the buggy on her face and severely hurt. One of her front teeth thought to be broken off. The tooth has been paining her more or less since. Monday her father brought her here to Dr. Goodwin, who examined it and found that the tooth instead of being broken off was driven into the jaw bone. The Doctor pulled the tooth out and relieved the suffering. When the tooth was pulled out blood gushed from the nostrils.

—The gentleman who wants to obstruct the factory enterprise on the Cape Fear by asking a tremendous sum for the right to the bed of the river has not the interest of the county at heart. He could probably sell his right for a reasonable sum, when, if he will not sell, he may never reap a penny therefrom. Should the work have gone on it would have probably put in machinery that would give employment to several hundred people, besides an expenditure of probably a million of dollars for construction. We hope he will reconsider and not run such a mammoth enterprise from the county.

Page--Williford.

On Sunday morning at 9:30 o'clock at the home of Mr. J. C. Williford, father of the bride, in Mingo township, Sampson county, Prof. J. M. Page and Miss Lettie Williford were married. Rev. S. W. Oldham, of Fish Creek, officiating.

The attendants were Miss Georgia Williford with W. S. Strickland, Miss Mary Strickland with L. E. West, Miss Elma Layton with J. R. Baggett, Miss Luda Dawson with L. W. Alderman.

The wedding party attended Spring Branch church where Rev. Oldham preached, and after services were over repaired to the home of Mr. O. D. Strickland where an elegant dinner was served.

To these popular young people THE UNION extends congratulations hoping they may find their new relations "one grand sweet song."

Died.

At her home in Cumberland county on Sunday morning, June 12th, Miss Eliza Ryals after an illness of two weeks in the 60th year of her age. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Lunda Lee on Monday afternoon at Long Branch church and her remains interred in the family burying ground. The deceased had been a member of the church at Long Branch for 35 years.

Discovered by a Woman.

Another great discovery has been made, and that too, by a lady in this country. "Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly, and could not sleep. She finally discovered a way to recovery, by purchasing of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, and was so much relieved on taking first dose, that she slept all night; and with two bottles, has been absolutely cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz." Thus writes W. C. Hamnick & Co., of Shelby, N. C. Trial bottles free at N. B. Hood's drug store. Regular size 50c. and $1. Every bottle guaranteed.

Everybody Says So.

Cascarets Candy Cathartic, the most wonderful medical discovery of the age, pleasant and refreshing to the taste, act gently and positively on the kidneys, liver and bowels, cleansing the entire system, dispel colds, cure headache, fever, habitual constipation, and biliousness. Captured an Escaped Convict.

Early Saturday morning town Marshal, M. L. Wade, received a telephone message from Benson to be on the lookout for a negro tramp who had broken into and stolen goods from two stores in that town Friday night. About 7 o'clock a young negro man was seen passing through town carrying a considerable bundle and policeman Wade arrested him. The negro proved to be the one wanted as he confessed that he entered the stores and took the goods. He gave his name as Ben Townsend and said that he had escaped from the penitentiary farm at Caledonia on Monday before, where he was serving a life sentence for burglary committed in Richmond county. He said he was 17 years of age and was sent to the penitentiary from Rockingham in 1896.

Policeman Wade, on the boy's statement, telephoned the Superintendent of the Penitentiary and was informed that his story was true and that there was a reward of $25 for his capture, and to carry him to Raleigh, which he did, arriving there with him in the afternoon. The warden of the penitentiary gave him a check for the reward and his expenses in taking the negro back.

When arrested the negro had on a new hat, a new pair pants and a new pair shoes. In his bundle he had two pairs of pants, two shirts and several pairs of socks which he had taken from the store of Mr. C. T. Johnson at Benson. Mr. Johnson came down and identified the goods and got them all back except the pants which the negro had on and the authorities at the penitentiary allowed him a dollar for them. The other store broken into was a bar room and he got but little there.

The boy said his home was in Bennettsville, S. C., and that another negro got out the same time he did but he did not know what became of him. Mr. Wade says that he learned at the prison that the other had been captured on Wednesday and taken back.
