

"PROVE ALL THINGS; HOLD FAST THAT WHICH IS GOOD."

TERMS HAVE BEEN ACCEPTED.

Queen Regent Approves the Reply to the United States.

SPANISH CABINET WANTS HOSTILITIES TO CEASE AT ONCE.

Anglo-Russian Dispute Over the New Chwang Railroad Extension Critical. Admiral Cervera's Reply to an Invitation of the Citizens of Greensboro, Ala., to Visit That City. Guyama Captured.

MADRID, Spain, (By Cable) - The cabinet council has completely approved the reply to the United States, which, it is said, accepts the American conditions.

LONDON, Eng., (By Cable) - That extreme diplomatic tension exists between St. Petersburg and London, is generally admitted, though the officials deprecate the alarmist reports which were recently current.

From a well-informed source it is learned that while the answer to the United States' terms does not discuss the four bases which the United States make an essential preliminary to peace, and which Spain accepts without reservation, it points out that in order to avoid the definite negotiations being any way complicated by incidents of the war, it is expedient to agree beforehand to a suspension of hostilities.

As evidence of the fact that Great Britain appreciates the gravity of the situation the Associated Press learns that the admiralty is preparing for all emergencies, and that it will soon be able to mobilize the entire fleet at the shortest notice.

POSCO, Porto Rico, (By Cable) - General Brooke's advance guard entered Guayama, after a sharp skirmish in which several on both sides were wounded.

It's Not All Sunshine and Gold. Returning Klondikers, who recently reached San Francisco without any gold, report the conditions existing at St. Michael's as being extremely precarious.

BARON BANFFY THREATENS COUNT THUN. The Vienna correspondent of the London Observer says that Count Thun, president of the Austrian delegation, and Baron Banffy, the Hungarian Premier, had a conference recently regarding Austro-Hungarian affairs.

SPANIARDS DISGUSTED WITH PORTO RICO. The news that has reached Madrid from Porto Rico regarding the cordial welcome given the American army by Spanish volunteers and natives of the island has disgusted the political leaders of Spain.

Supplies for the Army in Porto Rico. The steam yacht May recently sailed from Philadelphia carrying sixty tons of supplies, sent by the National Relief Commission to the American army in Porto Rico.

THE OPEN DOOR IN NORTH CHINA NOW SHUT. The Shanghai correspondent of the London Daily Mail says: "Russia is now practically in possession of New-Chang, and the open door in north China is already shut."

STREET CAR STRIKE SETTLED. The strike of employees of the Syracuse, N. Y., Rapid Transit Company has been settled. The company has revoked the rule requiring old employees to make a deposit of $25 as surety, and has agreed to receive at any time a grievance committee of its employees.

TEXAS DEMOCRATS FAVOR ACQUISITION. Congressman John H. Stevens, of the Thirteenth Texas District, was nominated by acclamation for re-election by the Democratic convention held at Abilene. A plank in the platform favors the acquisition of the Spanish West Indies.

A FAREWELL AUDIENCE WITH THE SULTAN. Dr. James B. Angell, who resigned in May last, and has been succeeded as United States minister to Turkey by Mr. Oscar S. Straus, of New York, had a farewell audience with the Sultan at Constantinople recently.

A RUSSIAN BACK-DOWN INDICATED. The correspondent of the London Daily News, at Odessa, gives under review a report that the Russian charge d'affaires, at Pekin, M. Pavloff, will soon be removed, and he regards it as indicating a Russian back-down.

THE PORTO HAS BEEN REPLIED TO THE AMERICAN DEMAND FOR COMPENSATION FOR LOSSES SUSTAINED BY AMERICAN SUBJECTS DURING THE ARMENIAN MASSACRES. The reply is the same as that given to other powers, repudiating all responsibility for the losses.

THE SIXTH MISSOURI VOLUNTEERS, NOW AT JEFFERSON BARRACKS, NEAR ST. LOUIS, HAS BEEN ORDERED TO PROCEED AT ONCE TO JACKSONVILLE, WHERE IT WILL BECOME PART OF THE CORPS UNDER GENERAL LEE.

WAR NEWS EPILOGIZED.

News of Interest Briefly Told for the Hurried Reader. The transports Massachusetts and Roumania are hard aground at Ponce. Gen. Breckinridge has assumed command at Chickamauga, relieving Gen. Frank.

LOVE, SAYS AGUINALDO.

He Resents the Newspapers' Imputation of "Big Head."

SUFFERING FROM FAMINE.

Spain Hopes for Foreign Intervention in the Settlement of the War. Spanish Prisoners at Santiago in Bad Condition.

The New York Journal prints a cablegram from Hong Kong, giving the text of a message sent by Aguinaldo, the Philippine insurgent leader, to Consul General Wildman. Aguinaldo says it has been reported that he "is getting the big-head and not behaving" as he promised Mr. Wildman. "In reply," says Aguinaldo, "I ask why should America expect me to outline my policy, present and future, and fight blindly for her interests, when America will not be frank with me? Tell me this, am I fighting for annexation, protection or independence? It is for America to say, not me. I can take Manila, and other Spanish cities at New York, but what would be the use? If America takes Manila, I can save my men and army for what the future has in store for me. Now, good friend, believe me, I am not both fool and rooster. The interests of my people are as sacred to me as are the interests of your people to you."

THROUGHOUT THE COUNTRY.

The Democrats of the First Virginia district met in convention at Urbane and unanimously re-nominated Hon. Wm. A. Jones, for Congress. The resolution adopted re-affirms the Chicago platform.

ASKS FOR MORE LIGHT.

The Peace Commission Will Meet in Paris to Settle Details.

SENSATION IN ARMY CIRCLES

Caused by the Resignation of Five Officers of the Sixth Massachusetts Regiment. A Revenue Ruling.

The Georgia Railroad Commission has rendered a decision that express companies in issuing a bill of lading were required to put a stamp upon it in order to make it legal, and that the companies had no right to exact the cost of the stamp from the shipper.

FIRMLY, but courteously, the President has declined the earnest appeal of the French ambassador to modify the United States' demands except in slight and comparatively unimportant respects. There is no doubt that the peace negotiations are progressing to the entire satisfaction of the President and the members of the cabinet.

The 18-year-old daughter of J. M. C. Howell, a prominent citizen of Knox county, Tenn., was outraged by a negro brute, who subsequently cut her throat, severing her fingers from her hands and otherwise butchered her body in a terrible manner.

It has been agreed upon that the commission to be appointed to settle the terms of peace shall meet in Paris. The Madrid government, through M. Cambon, has propounded a number of questions as to the time when Spain would be expected to evacuate Cuba and the territory to be ceded to the United States, and as to what provisions would be made by the United States to protect the interests of Spanish subjects in these islands while the evacuation was in progress.

The Hotel Berwyn was destroyed by fire and three lives lost at Chicago. Eight serious cases of typhoid fever are reported at the Fort Thomas hospital, at Cincinnati.

The movement which was begun at Falls River, Mass., last month for the purpose of closing twenty-five or thirty of the principal cloth mills of that city for four weeks has failed.

The schooner Cambridge recently arrived at Halifax, N. S., and brought a tale of terrible suffering on New Foundland and Labrador coasts. The party was on a prospecting expedition and included Dr. Morris, whose services were required at Lewis Inlet night and day to give relief to persons sick and dying from starvation.

A sensation was created in the Sixth Massachusetts regiment now in Porto Rico by the resignations of Col. Woodard, Lieut. Col. Chaffin, Major Taylor, Captain Donnell and Capt. Goodale. Friction between the line officers of the regiment and the officers of the brigade, which has been growing ever since the command left Cuba, caused the trouble.

At Detroit, Mich., the League of American Municipalities elected Samuel L. Black, mayor of Columbus, O., president.

Officers Resign. A sensation was created in the Sixth Massachusetts regiment now in Porto Rico by the resignations of Col. Woodard, Lieut. Col. Chaffin, Major Taylor, Captain Donnell and Capt. Goodale. Friction between the line officers of the regiment and the officers of the brigade, which has been growing ever since the command left Cuba, caused the trouble.

At a meeting of the municipal council of New York resolutions were adopted for an investigation into the alleged mismanagement of the Brooklyn Bridge, caused by the crowding of the trolley cars.

Bismarck's Funeral. The funeral services held at Berlin in memory of Prince Bismarck were of the most impressive character. They were attended by the Emperor and Empress of Germany, the various German Princes and Princesses, the members of the diplomatic corps, and the chief military and civil dignitaries. A guard of honor was placed in front of the Emperor William Memorial Church, where the services took place.

A Michigan Bank Sacked by Bandits. One of the most daring and successful bank robberies ever perpetrated in Michigan was carried out at Richland. According to witnesses, the gang was composed of six men, who came to town in a hand-car. Four were placed on guard outside the Union Bank, which is a small wooden building. Three charges of dynamite were exploded before the robbers got at the money and escaped. The loss is between $6,000 and $7,000, mostly farmers' deposits.

Cuban Tobacco Tariff. The Cuban tobacco tariff is 12 cents a pound on manufactured tobacco and snuffs; $3.00 per thousand on cigars, weighing more than three pounds to the thousand; $1.50 per thousand on cigars, weighing not more than three pounds to the thousand; and $1.00 a thousand on all tobacco cigarettes weighing not more than three pounds to the thousand.

A Ferment in Madrid. The Madrid correspondent of the London Mail says: "A majority of the politicians who conferred with Senor Sagasta counseled peace. But Senor Noceda, leader of the Ultra-Montanes, urged war all' out, even if the Yankees, he said, were to capture Spanish ports, as possibly, then an international conflagration would average Spain by placing her in a position to gain more than by making a shameful peace now."

A Revenue Ruling. The Commissioner of Internal Revenue at Washington rendered a decision in which he holds, in effect, that persons engaged in manufacturing sugar from cane or beets, and who do not buy and refine sugars, are not subject to the tax imposed by the new war revenue act.

Still Looking for a Way Out. In the conference between Senor Sagasta and Senor Silveira, at Madrid, the latter urged that it was imperative to summon the Cortes for the negotiation of a treaty of peace. General Alcarraza said that if Spain possessed adequate resources the war should be continued in order to secure more acceptable conditions; otherwise peace ought to be immediately concluded.

Courtmartialed and Shot. A dispatch from San Juan de Porto Rico says Colonel San Martin, who was in command of the Spanish garrison at Ponce, has been court-martialed and shot for abandoning the place without resistance. Lieutenant Col. Ruiz, the second in command, committed suicide.

Confederate veterans, survivors of Pickett's Division, and invited guests, numbering in all 109, participated in the commemoration of Union and Confederate soldiers at a resort on the New Jersey side of the Delaware river. Mrs. Pickett, the widow of General Pickett, accompanied the Southern soldiers.

A Large Liner Lost. The telegraph office at Tih Cove, the most northern office of New Foundland, wires that a report has just reached there of the loss of a large Trans-Atlantic Line steamer in the vicinity of Belle Isle with all hands.

Confederate veterans, survivors of Pickett's Division, and invited guests, numbering in all 109, participated in the commemoration of Union and Confederate soldiers at a resort on the New Jersey side of the Delaware river. Mrs. Pickett, the widow of General Pickett, accompanied the Southern soldiers.

Sayers Nominated. At the Texas Democratic State convention at Galveston, Congressman Joseph D. Sayers was nominated for Governor by acclamation and J. N. Browning for Lieutenant-Governor. In accepting the nomination Congressman Sayers said that he approved every plank of the Chicago platform.

Confederate veterans, survivors of Pickett's Division, and invited guests, numbering in all 109, participated in the commemoration of Union and Confederate soldiers at a resort on the New Jersey side of the Delaware river. Mrs. Pickett, the widow of General Pickett, accompanied the Southern soldiers.

Division of Great Britain's Wealth. Recently gathered statistics show that nearly all the real and personal property of Great Britain, amounting in value to $3,384,243,940, is in the hands of about one-thirtieth of the population, while twelve-thirtieths own so little as to escape the inheritance tax upon estates of $500 and over, and the tax upon all incomes of $750 and over.

Confederate veterans, survivors of Pickett's Division, and invited guests, numbering in all 109, participated in the commemoration of Union and Confederate soldiers at a resort on the New Jersey side of the Delaware river. Mrs. Pickett, the widow of General Pickett, accompanied the Southern soldiers.

Division of Great Britain's Wealth. Recently gathered statistics show that nearly all the real and personal property of Great Britain, amounting in value to $3,384,243,940, is in the hands of about one-thirtieth of the population, while twelve-thirtieths own so little as to escape the inheritance tax upon estates of $500 and over, and the tax upon all incomes of $750 and over.

Spain Hopes for Foreign Intervention in the Settlement of the War. Spanish Prisoners at Santiago in Bad Condition.

The New York Journal prints a cablegram from Hong Kong, giving the text of a message sent by Aguinaldo, the Philippine insurgent leader, to Consul General Wildman. Aguinaldo says it has been reported that he "is getting the big-head and not behaving" as he promised Mr. Wildman. "In reply," says Aguinaldo, "I ask why should America expect me to outline my policy, present and future, and fight blindly for her interests, when America will not be frank with me? Tell me this, am I fighting for annexation, protection or independence? It is for America to say, not me. I can take Manila, and other Spanish cities at New York, but what would be the use? If America takes Manila, I can save my men and army for what the future has in store for me. Now, good friend, believe me, I am not both fool and rooster. The interests of my people are as sacred to me as are the interests of your people to you."

The schooner Cambridge recently arrived at Halifax, N. S., and brought a tale of terrible suffering on New Foundland and Labrador coasts. The party was on a prospecting expedition and included Dr. Morris, whose services were required at Lewis Inlet night and day to give relief to persons sick and dying from starvation.

At Detroit, Mich., the League of American Municipalities elected Samuel L. Black, mayor of Columbus, O., president.

The schooner Cambridge recently arrived at Halifax, N. S., and brought a tale of terrible suffering on New Foundland and Labrador coasts. The party was on a prospecting expedition and included Dr. Morris, whose services were required at Lewis Inlet night and day to give relief to persons sick and dying from starvation.

A Michigan Bank Sacked by Bandits. One of the most daring and successful bank robberies ever perpetrated in Michigan was carried out at Richland. According to witnesses, the gang was composed of six men, who came to town in a hand-car. Four were placed on guard outside the Union Bank, which is a small wooden building. Three charges of dynamite were exploded before the robbers got at the money and escaped. The loss is between $6,000 and $7,000, mostly farmers' deposits.

A Ferment in Madrid. The Madrid correspondent of the London Mail says: "A majority of the politicians who conferred with Senor Sagasta counseled peace. But Senor Noceda, leader of the Ultra-Montanes, urged war all' out, even if the Yankees, he said, were to capture Spanish ports, as possibly, then an international conflagration would average Spain by placing her in a position to gain more than by making a shameful peace now."

Still Looking for a Way Out. In the conference between Senor Sagasta and Senor Silveira, at Madrid, the latter urged that it was imperative to summon the Cortes for the negotiation of a treaty of peace. General Alcarraza said that if Spain possessed adequate resources the war should be continued in order to secure more acceptable conditions; otherwise peace ought to be immediately concluded.

Confederate veterans, survivors of Pickett's Division, and invited guests, numbering in all 109, participated in the commemoration of Union and Confederate soldiers at a resort on the New Jersey side of the Delaware river. Mrs. Pickett, the widow of General Pickett, accompanied the Southern soldiers.

A Large Liner Lost. The telegraph office at Tih Cove, the most northern office of New Foundland, wires that a report has just reached there of the loss of a large Trans-Atlantic Line steamer in the vicinity of Belle Isle with all hands.

Sayers Nominated. At the Texas Democratic State convention at Galveston, Congressman Joseph D. Sayers was nominated for Governor by acclamation and J. N. Browning for Lieutenant-Governor. In accepting the nomination Congressman Sayers said that he approved every plank of the Chicago platform.

Division of Great Britain's Wealth. Recently gathered statistics show that nearly all the real and personal property of Great Britain, amounting in value to $3,384,243,940, is in the hands of about one-thirtieth of the population, while twelve-thirtieths own so little as to escape the inheritance tax upon estates of $500 and over, and the tax upon all incomes of $750 and over.

Division of Great Britain's Wealth. Recently gathered statistics show that nearly all the real and personal property of Great Britain, amounting in value to $3,384,243,940, is in the hands of about one-thirtieth of the population, while twelve-thirtieths own so little as to escape the inheritance tax upon estates of $500 and over, and the tax upon all incomes of $750 and over.

Division of Great Britain's Wealth. Recently gathered statistics show that nearly all the real and personal property of Great Britain, amounting in value to $3,384,243,940, is in the hands of about one-thirtieth of the population, while twelve-thirtieths own so little as to escape the inheritance tax upon estates of $500 and over, and the tax upon all incomes of $750 and over.

Division of Great Britain's Wealth. Recently gathered statistics show that nearly all the real and personal property of Great Britain, amounting in value to $3,384,243,940, is in the hands of about one-thirtieth of the population, while twelve-thirtieths own so little as to escape the inheritance tax upon estates of $500 and over, and the tax upon all incomes of $750 and over.

Division of Great Britain's Wealth. Recently gathered statistics show that nearly all the real and personal property of Great Britain, amounting in value to $3,384,243,940, is in the hands of about one-thirtieth of the population, while twelve-thirtieths own so little as to escape the inheritance tax upon estates of $500 and over, and the tax upon all incomes of $750 and over.

Division of Great Britain's Wealth. Recently gathered statistics show that nearly all the real and personal property of Great Britain, amounting in value to $3,384,243,940, is in the hands of about one-thirtieth of the population, while twelve-thirtieths own so little as to escape the inheritance tax upon estates of $500 and over, and the tax upon all incomes of $750 and over.

Division of Great Britain's Wealth. Recently gathered statistics show that nearly all the real and personal property of Great Britain, amounting in value to $3,384,243,940, is in the hands of about one-thirtieth of the population, while twelve-thirtieths own so little as to escape the inheritance tax upon estates of $500 and over, and the tax upon all incomes of $750 and over.

He Resents the Newspapers' Imputation of "Big Head."

SUFFERING FROM FAMINE.

Spain Hopes for Foreign Intervention in the Settlement of the War. Spanish Prisoners at Santiago in Bad Condition.

The New York Journal prints a cablegram from Hong Kong, giving the text of a message sent by Aguinaldo, the Philippine insurgent leader, to Consul General Wildman. Aguinaldo says it has been reported that he "is getting the big-head and not behaving" as he promised Mr. Wildman. "In reply," says Aguinaldo, "I ask why should America expect me to outline my policy, present and future, and fight blindly for her interests, when America will not be frank with me? Tell me this, am I fighting for annexation, protection or independence? It is for America to say, not me. I can take Manila, and other Spanish cities at New York, but what would be the use? If America takes Manila, I can save my men and army for what the future has in store for me. Now, good friend, believe me, I am not both fool and rooster. The interests of my people are as sacred to me as are the interests of your people to you."

The schooner Cambridge recently arrived at Halifax, N. S., and brought a tale of terrible suffering on New Foundland and Labrador coasts. The party was on a prospecting expedition and included Dr. Morris, whose services were required at Lewis Inlet night and day to give relief to persons sick and dying from starvation.

At Detroit, Mich., the League of American Municipalities elected Samuel L. Black, mayor of Columbus, O., president.

The schooner Cambridge recently arrived at Halifax, N. S., and brought a tale of terrible suffering on New Foundland and Labrador coasts. The party was on a prospecting expedition and included Dr. Morris, whose services were required at Lewis Inlet night and day to give relief to persons sick and dying from starvation.

A Michigan Bank Sacked by Bandits. One of the most daring and successful bank robberies ever perpetrated in Michigan was carried out at Richland. According to witnesses, the gang was composed of six men, who came to town in a hand-car. Four were placed on guard outside the Union Bank, which is a small wooden building. Three charges of dynamite were exploded before the robbers got at the money and escaped. The loss is between $6,000 and $7,000, mostly farmers' deposits.

A Ferment in Madrid. The Madrid correspondent of the London Mail says: "A majority of the politicians who conferred with Senor Sagasta counseled peace. But Senor Noceda, leader of the Ultra-Montanes, urged war all' out, even if the Yankees, he said, were to capture Spanish ports, as possibly, then an international conflagration would average Spain by placing her in a position to gain more than by making a shameful peace now."

Still Looking for a Way Out. In the conference between Senor Sagasta and Senor Silveira, at Madrid, the latter urged that it was imperative to summon the Cortes for the negotiation of a treaty of peace. General Alcarraza said that if Spain possessed adequate resources the war should be continued in order to secure more acceptable conditions; otherwise peace ought to be immediately concluded.

Confederate veterans, survivors of Pickett's Division, and invited guests, numbering in all 109, participated in the commemoration of Union and Confederate soldiers at a resort on the New Jersey side of the Delaware river. Mrs. Pickett, the widow of General Pickett, accompanied the Southern soldiers.

A Large Liner Lost. The telegraph office at Tih Cove, the most northern office of New Foundland, wires that a report has just reached there of the loss of a large Trans-Atlantic Line steamer in the vicinity of Belle Isle with all hands.

Sayers Nominated. At the Texas Democratic State convention at Galveston, Congressman Joseph D. Sayers was nominated for Governor by acclamation and J. N. Browning for Lieutenant-Governor. In accepting the nomination Congressman Sayers said that he approved every plank of the Chicago platform.

Division of Great Britain's Wealth. Recently gathered statistics show that nearly all the real and personal property of Great Britain, amounting in value to $3,384,243,940, is in the hands of about one-thirtieth of the population, while twelve-thirtieths own so little as to escape the inheritance tax upon estates of $500 and over, and the tax upon all incomes of $750 and over.

Division of Great Britain's Wealth. Recently gathered statistics show that nearly all the real and personal property of Great Britain, amounting in value to $3,384,243,940, is in the hands of about one-thirtieth of the population, while twelve-thirtieths own so little as to escape the inheritance tax upon estates of $500 and over, and the tax upon all incomes of $750 and over.

Division of Great Britain's Wealth. Recently gathered statistics show that nearly all the real and personal property of Great Britain, amounting in value to $3,384,243,940, is in the hands of about one-thirtieth of the population, while twelve-thirtieths own so little as to escape the inheritance tax upon estates of $500 and over, and the tax upon all incomes of $750 and over.

Division of Great Britain's Wealth. Recently gathered statistics show that nearly all the real and personal property of Great Britain, amounting in value to $3,384,243,940, is in the hands of about one-thirtieth of the population, while twelve-thirtieths own so little as to escape the inheritance tax upon estates of $500 and over, and the tax upon all incomes of $750 and over.

Division of Great Britain's Wealth. Recently gathered statistics show that nearly all the real and personal property of Great Britain, amounting in value to $3,384,243,940, is in the hands of about one-thirtieth of the population, while twelve-thirtieths own so little as to escape the inheritance tax upon estates of $500 and over, and the tax upon all incomes of $750 and over.

Division of Great Britain's Wealth. Recently gathered statistics show that nearly all the real and personal property of Great Britain, amounting in value to $3,384,243,940, is in the hands of about one-thirtieth of the population, while twelve-thirtieths own so little as to escape the inheritance tax upon estates of $500 and over, and the tax upon all incomes of $750 and over.

Division of Great Britain's Wealth. Recently gathered statistics show that nearly all the real and personal property of Great Britain, amounting in value to $3,384,243,940, is in the hands of about one-thirtieth of the population, while twelve-thirtieths own so little as to escape the inheritance tax upon estates of $500 and over, and the tax upon all incomes of $750 and over.

Division of Great Britain's Wealth. Recently gathered statistics show that nearly all the real and personal property of Great Britain, amounting in value to $3,384,243,940, is in the hands of about one-thirtieth of the population, while twelve-thirtieths own so little as to escape the inheritance tax upon estates of $500 and over, and the tax upon all incomes of $750 and over.

Division of Great Britain's Wealth. Recently gathered statistics show that nearly all the real and personal property of Great Britain, amounting in value to $3,384,243,940, is in the hands of about one-thirtieth of the population, while twelve-thirtieths own so little as to escape the inheritance tax upon estates of $500 and over, and the tax upon all incomes of $750 and over.

Tetter, Salt-Rheum and Eczema. The intense itching and smarting incident to these diseases, is instantly allayed by applying Chamberlain's Eye and Skin Ointment. Many very bad cases have been permanently cured by it. It is equally efficient for itching piles and a favorite remedy for sore nipples, chapped hands, chilblains, frost bites and chronic sore eyes. 25 cts. per box.

Dr. Cady's Condition Powders, are just what a horse needs when in bad condition. Tonic, blood purifier and vermifuge. They are not foot medicine and the best in use to put a horse in prime condition. Price 35 cents per package. For sale by N. B. Hoel, Dunn, N. C.

Professional Cards. J. C. CLIFFORD, Attorney at Law. DUNN, N. C.

Will practice in all the courts of the State where services desired. D. H. McLEAN, Counsellor and Attorney at Law. DUNN, N. C.

Practise in all courts. Collections a specialty. W. E. MURCHISON, JONESBORO, N. C.

Practices law in Harnett, Moore and other counties, but not for fun. 3201y. ISAAC A. MURCHISON, FAYETTEVILLE, N. C.

Practices law in Cumberland Harnett and any where services are wanted.

WINE OF CARDUI THE NEW WAY. WOMEN used to think "female diseases" could only be treated after "doctors" had examined them by physicians. Dread of such treatment kept thousands of modest women silent about their suffering. The introduction of Wine of Cardui has now demonstrated that nine-tenths of all the cases of menstrual disorders do not require a physician's attention at all. The simple, pure...

WINE OF CARDUI. For advice in cases requiring special study, send for the "Ladies' Advisory Department," The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn. W. I. ADDISON, M.D., Cary, Miss., says: "I use Wine of Cardui extensively in my practice and find it an excellent preparation for female troubles."

PATENTS. TRADE MARKS, DESIGNS, COPYRIGHTS &c. Anyone sending a sketch and description may quickly ascertain, free, whether an invention is probably patentable. Communications strictly confidential. We have a Washington office. Patents through Mann & Co. receive special notice in the...

THE NEW HOME SEWING MACHINE. Do not be deceived by altering advertisements you think you can get the best made. Sewing machines are most popular sewing machines for a new year. Buy from reliable manufacturers that have gained a reputation by honest and successful dealing. There is no one in the world that can equal in mechanical construction, durability of working parts, sources of funds, beauty in appearance or low cost any of the machines made by THE NEW HOME SEWING MACHINE CO. Write for circulars. The New Home Sewing Machine Co., Chicago, Ill., Boston, Mass., 25 South Street, N. C. Office: 115 North Second St., Raleigh, N. C. Gaisley & Jordan, Dunn, N. C.