The Paris Peace Commission-A Wet Day in Philadelphia-Sixty Japanese Drowned -Kitchener Reaches Paris.

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (Special). - Justice Augustus Van Wyck, the Democratic candidate for Governor, was given an enthusiastic reception by the Democrats of Syracuse and vicinity Wednesday night. Fully 3,000 voters were gathered in the Alhambra, where the meeting was held. The meeting was presided over by Mayor James K. Mc-Guire, who referred briefly to the issues of the campaign and also mentioned W. J. Bryan as the legical leader of the party. This reference to Colonel Bryan roused greater enthusiasm than any other event of the meeting.

The reception given to Col. Roosevelt and his party in Rochester Wednesday night vied with that which he received in Buffalo. When the train pulled into the depot it seemed as if half the population of the town was out to welcome him. eignty Over Cuba-An Odd Decision-A Sensational Speech.

PHILADELPHIA, (Special). - For three hours Thursday, William McKinley, commander-in-chief of the United States army and navy, saw his victorions soldiers and sailors pass in review before him. It was military and the performance of the usual monotonaval day of the great peace jubilee. Twenty-five thousand men marched in the most brilliant and spectacular pageant the country has witnessed in | tion with the life of the members that many years. Within a semi-circular enclosure of the big reviewing stand in the magnificent court of honor, the President stood erect and uncovered throughout the entire procession. Here and there, when some particularly re-nowned body of troops marched byt the President smilingly waved his hae and motioned the crowds across the way to cheer the men, who were their heroes as well as his. Mrs. McKinley viewed the procession from a small stand on the top of the conservatory of the Lippincott mausion, immediately behind the larger stand, where her eminent husband stood. She, too, was not chary of applause. Over the men are enlisted for a term of years, President's head hung a canopy bear and receive usually the smallest pay of ing on its face the coat of arms of the United States and surmounted by the new President's flag, for the first time unfurled in the United States. The flag was only recently adopted by the War Department. To the left of the stand was the coat of arms of Philadelphia.

Spain Says Farewell to Cuba. Paris, (By cable). - The Spanish peace commissioners have accepted the negative view of the United States commission toward the proposed assumption by the United States of the States the entire or joint responsibility for the Spanish financial conditions. Senor Montero Rios, the president of the Spanish commission, and his coling, they have been of no avail in effecting any substantial change in the to attain it, and have finally abandoned leagues, with faithful insistence, the effort and have agreed that the Cuban article of the protocol shall, without conditions, have a place in the ultimate treaty of peace.

An Odd Decision.

In the United States District Court at Newbern, N. C., in the case of the nited States against the Southern Express Company, brought by several fish shippers on the ground of violating the revenue act, because the company required them to pay for a one cent stamp, necessary to be affixed to each receipt issued. Judge Purnell dismissed the suit, holding that as a tax had been paid the government was satisfied and that as to who should pay the tax was a matter to be settled between shipper and express company.

his wheat and relates a strange experience at his place. Mr. Sullivan has been in this country eleven years and came to America on account of very unpleasant domestic relations. The incident referred to took place Thursday morning about 11:30 and occurred in a patch of rve near the Sullivan pasture. Mr. Sullivan went there to look after a young calf; when he entered grass as of some animal. But no animal appeared, only some strange spirit of the wind or unknown thing passed over the field in a narrow zigzag path, whirling and beating the grain in a horrible lashing manner and coming in Mr. Sullivan's direction. He hurriedly stepped aside and only felt the edge of this strange element as it swept by. He was almost strangled and fearfully wrenched and was powerless to move. He saw the grass beaten and torn, with dead leaves and grain following the wake high in the air after the demoniacal sirocco. The calf which stood partially in the path was struck on the hind leg and gave a low bellow of fear and pain. As soon as Mr. Sullivan recovered he went to the calf's assistance and found the flesh bruised and torn, and bones broken as if some mighty club had smote it. Mr. Sullivan says the grain traversed over and the grass also had died clear He only remembers the curse that was hurled upon him and his household by his aged father so many years ago in the land beyond the sea, and is looking for a black-edged letter from County Clare from his boyhood home telling his father's death.-Salina Correspondence of Topeka State Jour-
