

HOOD & GRANTHAM'S

Big Toy Store,

An Eye Opener for this section.

THE CONUTY UNION
DUNN, N. C.

WEDNESDAY, November 22, 1899.

LOCAL DOTS.

—Cotton 7 1/2 cents to-day.

—Do you want a Buggy Free? Then read what our "ad" says.

—The Big Toy Store. The Big Toy Store. Nothing in town, Like The Big Toy Store.

—Mr. R. E. L. Skinner and young bride now occupy the Spears dwelling near Mr. J. A. Taylor's.

—Don't forget the public Missionary meeting at the Methodist church to-night. Begins at 7:30 o'clock.

—Miss Bertha Hudson who has been attending the State Normal and Industrial College, came home sick Monday afternoon.

—Rev. Mr. Leighton preached at the Dilectio Church Sunday and Sunday night. His sermons were good and the crowd was large and attentive.

—Kayton's Komedians entertained a large crowd at the Town Hall Friday night. They spoke of giving us another date in the near future.

—Don't fail to be at Lillington Tuesday night to take in the Musical and Dramatic performance by the Dunn Brass Band. It promises to be a great treat.

—We have some more of the numbered receipts on hand yet, if you want to get the buggy don't delay. You will regret not taking advantage of this liberal offer after it is too late. Come early.

—While a number of the warehouses in other towns are closing up, we are proud to note that both warehouses in Dunn are still doing a good business. Good prices are paid here and the season promises to continue for sometime.

—We can give you a numbered receipt at Lillington next week if you will call for it. We are not a respecter of persons—any body can get one, by paying their subscription for 1900. Don't be backward but come forward.

—The streets of Dunn present quite a busy appearance these days. Cotton and tobacco is coming in in large quantities and the farmers are buying their winter supplies. No other town offers the farmers more inducements than Dunn. Highest market price for what they bring to market, and the lowest margin possible for what they buy.

—Messrs. Gainey & Jordan have put in their jewelry store an engraving machine. They can do engraving now in the latest and most attractive style. The machine is one of complication and they will be glad to show its markings to those who call at their store. This firm is always up-to-date and have equipped themselves to meet the demands of the people. Call and see them.

—Hon. D. H. McLean won a case in Johnston Superior Court last week against the R. R. Co. for $400 in the case of Strickland vs. the R. R. Co. In the same court our young friend and attorney, W. A. Stewart won a case against the company for $600, Tart vs. R. R. Co. It is true neither of the cases involve but little money but it required fine legal work to get anything, and it is with pleasure that we note their success.

—Services at the Methodist church next Sunday by the pastor. All are invited to attend.

—Did you see the stars fall last week? They fell but were not visible in North Carolina. Read the account on fourth page.

—Prof. W. L. Lindsay, a colored man, will give a musical entertainment at the town hall Friday night for white people only. He is said to be a very fine musician.

—The southbound passenger train was delayed several hours Monday. The cause of the delay was a wreck of the fast train No. 35, which passes here at 12 o'clock in the night, near Quantico. It ran into an open switch and derailed the engine and several cars. The engineer and the fireman were both hurt, but not seriously.

Entertainment at Lillington.
The people of Lillington and all visitors during court week will have an opportunity of attending an up-to-date entertainment on the night of the 28th inst. An English Comic Drama will be played, before and after which several selections by the band, recitations, piano solos, vocal solos, negro specialties &c, will be rendered. You will regret it if you miss it. Don't fail to come. The band will parade the streets afternoon.

What has become of all the chickens and eggs? We can scarcely buy enough to fill orders. Bring us all you can spare and if you don't care to take trade we will pay all cash. W. H. Lane & Co.

Important Cases.
In Harnett Superior Court which convenes at Lillington next Monday there are several important cases to be heard, of which we make mention of three.

Mrs. Capps vs. Western Union Telegraph Co. for non-delivery of a telegram, damages claimed, $2,000.

The John A. McKay M'fg. Co. vs. W. & W. R. R. Co. non-delivery of freight, damages, $3,000.

American Iron & Steel Co. vs. about fifteen of our citizens in Upper Little River township, for the recovery of about thirty thousand acres of land known as the Penitentiary land.

If you want a clock, call on Gainey & Jordan, they will make prices alright. If you need spectacles call on Gainey & Jordan. Call and see our Silver Waiters Gainey & Jordan.

Thanksgiving Service.
The day of thanksgiving to the allwise and omnipotent God is drawing near, and our people will observe the same by the assembling of themselves together to offer up thanks and praise for the thousands of blessings so richly bestowed upon them during the year now closing. It is not a day of mourning as some people seem to think, but is a time when we should rejoice, all in reverence to Him who hath loved us and given himself for us.

Services will be held in the morning at 11 o'clock at the Methodist church by the pastor, Rev. W. A. Forbes. At night the prayermeeting service at the Baptist church will be turned into a thanksgiving service. All are invited to attend both services.

This is the thing you have been looking for, a gold filled watch with 15 jewels, Elgin or Waltham movements and guaranteed to wear for 25 years, for only $10. at Gainey & Jordan's.
