DUNN, N. C.

WEDNESDAY, Sept. 18, 1901

LOCAL DOGS.

SCHEDULE OF TRAINS LEAVING DUNN.

Northbound - Local Passenger, No. 78, at 1:05 p. m. No. 82, 10:18 p. m. Southbound - Local Passenger, No. 23, 3:40, p. m. No. 53, 12:04, p. m.

This paper positively will not accept for publication from any one any notice of land sale, or administrator's notice without cash with copy. This applies to all. Rates - medium $2.50; larger $3.00; administrator's notice six weeks $3.00.

Cotton 8 1/2 to-day. It is now President Theodore Roosevelt.

Mr. Bryant Bell, of the Little River Academy section will move his family to the city in a few days so as to be able to get the benefit of the school here.

Good roads leading to Dunn, good prices for your cotton and tobacco, good goods for sale, good merchants to deal with and good results follow throughout.

School books will be deposited with C. McArtan, Lillington, N. C., and Hood & Grantham at Dunn. The prices of books are greatly reduced and are sold only for cash.

We are informed that the Bridge Company is now making rapid progress on the bridge at Lillington. We trust they may have it completed by the November term of court.

Look out for the Sheriff. He will soon be after your taxes. See his notice and appointments in this paper. He has also had some large posters printed. Pay him promptly.

The funeral service over the remains of the late President McKinley, are to be held to-day in Washington City. In many of the cities all business houses close during the hours of the service.

Mr. Junius Barefoot, the young man who fell from the excursion train on its return from Wilmington Monday night, came in Tuesday morning on the passenger train. Fortunately he escaped with only a few slight bruises.

Every farmer should read the article in this issue headed, "The price of cotton seed." It is something that greatly concerns them and if action is taken it means money in their pockets. You can do nothing without concert of action.

We are now turning out from our job department some excellent work for the Dunn Lumber Company. It is just as nice as engraving and is much cheaper. Why send your work away from home when we can serve you? Send us your orders.

We understand that Dunn will shortly have a complete machine supply house and will be run by the John A. McKay Manufacturing Co. This will be a big thing for the town as well as a great convenience for this entire section. Still Dunn moves forward.

Hatch Bros. carried away nearly 300 people Monday on their excursion to Wilmington. Edgerton & Co. run one a few days ago and carried away less than half dozen. Hatch Bros. advertised in THE BANNER, Edgerton & Co. did not. Does it pay to advertise?

The "Devil" has charge of THE BANNER office this week, the editor being away on a trip to the "Land of the Sky" - Asheville. If he should become "incubated" with "Mountain Dew" and fail to get back on time for the next issue, we will likely get the run of the business and be able to get out a better paper.

We were shown a top buggy built by the R. E. Jones Buggy Company of Goldsboro, N. C., today in the repository of the Empire Buggy Company, Dunn, N. C., of which Mr. A. R. Wilson is manager, that surpasses anything in the shape of a buggy we ever saw. The artistic painting was splendid, showing that old man "Dick Jones" is still a leader among buggy manufacturers. His work in all upper Sampson and Johnston counties held the lead thirty years ago, and this buggy will reclaim his old time prestige. Mr. A. R. Wilson is sole agent for the sale of this popular work in our town.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mr. M. Blair made a trip to Raleigh Sunday.

Hon. D. H. McLean made a short business trip to Burlington last week.

Mr. Walter Fitzgerald, of Wilson was in the city a few hours Sunday.

Mr. J. L. Thompson made a short business trip to Wilson this week.

Ex-Congressman John E. Fowler, of Clinton, was in town a short while this week.

Miss Robbie McIntyre who has been visiting relatives and friends in the city left today for her home in Wilmington.

Elder William Woodward, of Wilson, spent several days in the city last week with Mr. and Mrs. G. K. Grantham.

Mrs. L. H. Lee and little daughters, Maude and Edith, spent a few days with relatives in town this week.

Mr. John A. McKay left Monday for a trip through the Southern States in the interest of his foundry and machine shop.

Mr. Junius P. Woodall and wife, of Charlotte, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. G. K. Grantham returned to their home last Monday.

Miss Florence Holder returned from Baltimore Saturday night where she spent several days selecting her fall and winter stock of millinery goods.

Mrs. T. J. Walker left last Friday night for Mount Olive, Miss., where Mr. Walker is now located. We wish them both much success at their new home.

Mr. T. C. Young returned Friday from the northern markets where he has been to purchase his fall stock. He also took in the exposition at Buffalo, and reports a nice trip.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Pittman and Mrs. W. F. Pearson are in the land of the skies this week enjoying the mountain scenery and fresh air of Asheville, N. C.

Mr. C. R. Young returned from a short trip in the interest of the South Dunn Mfg Co. Sunday. Mr. Young will make quite an extended trip through South Carolina in a few days.

Messrs. E. F. Young and J. C. Clifford left last night for Washington City to attend the funeral of President McKinley to-day, as representatives of the State of North Carolina, under appointment of Governor Aycock.

The members of Lucknow Lodge are earnestly requested to be at the meeting next Tuesday night.

The regular monthly services were held at the Christian church Sunday morning and night by the pastor, Rev. D. H. Petree.

Preaching at the Baptist church last Sunday morning and night by pastor, Rev. W. C. Barrett. At 5 o'clock Sunday evening the ordinance of baptism was administered at Surles' pond to three who have enlisted in the Master's vineyard.

If your name doesn't appear in our paper don't blame us. It is impossible for our reporter to get the names of all the visitors to our town. If a friend visits you, or is sick, or anything of the kind, we will appreciate a note from you giving account of it, as we are not "know-alls" neither have we wings - we are only human.

Dunn has six or seven cotton buyers this season and there will be no market in the state that will come nearer paying the Raleigh and Wilmington market every day than Dunn. The market has long since stood above and many other markets, and we can expect the same this season.

If it had not been for the machine shop and iron foundry of the John A. McKay Manufacturing Co. the subscribers of this paper would not have gotten any paper this week. Just as we were about half through printing the first side the press broke down and no shop this side of Richmond, Va., except the one at this place, would have been able to have repaired the broken part. Just a few hours and the broken piece was repaired by this up-to-date firm and our press was running again. It is a fact, and the public should know it, that you can get anything made out of iron at this plant. They can make or repair any machinery used in this section. Call and see their plant.

B. C. A. DOGS.

New students keep coming every day.

Mr. A. H. Johnson, of Kinston, is spending a few days here with his parents.

Mr. W. A. Greene and daughter, Mrs. Alda Long, spent Saturday in Dunn.

Little Maud, the seven-year-old deaf and dumb daughter of Mr. W. V. Eavis, left last week to attend the Deaf and Dumb School at Morganton.

Mr. Clifford Edwards, vocal music teacher here, was married to a Virginia girl a few days ago.

Miss Leola Marks, who has been visiting in Chatham county for several weeks, was united in marriage a few days ago to Mr. John Burns of that county.

Saturday evening was the warmest time the writer has yet felt. It was mighty hot on we cotton pickers. In fact, we almost burnt up.

Miss Della Poole, of Garner, is spending a few days here with her old friends.

Mr. Sandy Stewart, the bustling salesman for R. G. Taylor, of Dunn, was here Monday shaking hands with his many friends who are always glad to see him come.

Miss Ruth, the beautiful and charming young daughter of Mr. Rufus Barboe, is at home now after a few days visit to relatives in Wake.

Mr. C. S. Bennett, of Fayetteville, spent Saturday and Sunday here with friends and - well his girl.

Rev. W. C. Barrett filled his appointment at Dunn Sunday and Sunday night.

The Primitive Baptist Association will be held at Sandy Grove church commencing on Friday before the 5th Sunday inst.

Messrs. Guy and Folsom, of Dunn, are here now painting several of the resident houses in town. They are making things look fine around the Academy.

The hog cholera has almost killed out all the hogs in this section this summer. Don't know what kind of meat we'll have next year.

Mr. Reuben Matthews has about completed a large two story house here containing nine rooms which will be ready to rent by the first of October. Any one wishing to run a boarding house here will do well to see him.

Almost all the boarding houses here are already full and still they keep coming. Think there will be more houses to build or send students somewhere else to school soon.

Snooks.

A Beautiful Home Wedding.

A beautiful home wedding at the residence of Mr. John McArtan of this county, uncle of the bride, was solemnized before Rev. Dr. Black this morning at 9 o'clock.

The contracting couple were Fred L. Pearsall, a prosperous young business man of Wilmington, and Miss Mary C. McArtan, one of Harnett's most attractive and popular ladies, a daughter of the late Neil McArtan of this county.

The following popular young couples were in attendants upon the marriage:

Miss Ella McArtan, sister of the bride, maid of honor, with Mr. Lewis Hall, of Wilmington, best man; Miss Pearl McArtan with Mr. Lacey Hunt of Wilmington; Miss Florence Pearsall of Wilmington with Dr. J. S. Hall of California; Miss Lula Arrowood with Mr. J. S. Black of Wilmington.

The beautiful country home of the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Jno. McArtan, was most tastefully decorated for the occasion and numerous beautiful and costly presents attested the popularity of the happy young couple.

Mr. and Mrs. Pearsall will go to Fayetteville this afternoon where they will take the north bound Coast Line train to Richmond and northern cities.

THE BANNER joins with their numerous friends in wishing this happy young couple bon voyage through life.

Lane's Depository.

The editor had occasion in the last few days to visit Mr. J. W. Lane's Buggy Depository, next door to his livery stables, and examine his new line of up-to-date and modern buggies. He has the most complete variety of styles and makes we have seen. One of the prettiest and most substantial buggies found in his mammoth stock is the Oxford buggy, manufactured by one of the leading buggy concerns of North Carolina. He is offering these buggies at very close margin and will sell for cash or on easy terms. You find embodied in this line all that is elegant and desirable, together with durability, which go together to give to the public the article desired. It will be worth a trip to call and see his line of vehicles even if you do not care to buy.

FOR RENT - One nice brick store building, next door to Post Office, after Sept. 15th. Apply to G. L. Cannady, Dunn, N. C.
