THE Retirement of Dr. Theodore B. Kingsbury from the Wilmington Messenger has caused much comment by the press of the State. He is beyond a doubt one of the ablest men that the State has ever produced, and for many years his editorials in the Messenger have been read with a great deal of interest. It is to be hoped that his retirement is only temporary. We are glad to see the statement from him "that if his present cessation from journalism is to continue, it will be because it is enforced by unfavorable events." Dr. Kingsbury has passed the limit allotted to men, but one would judge from his editorials that he was in the vigor of life.

Wagner Day.

Wagner Day tickets are in more demand than ever. Twenty-five thousand of them have already been sold and the demand for them shows no sign of abating. The attendance on Wagner Day will undoubtedly eclipse all previous records at the Exposition. Even the President's Day, with its forty thousand attendance, will undoubtedly be thrown into the shade by the crowds that will assemble on May 22 to do honor to Charleston's most public-spirited citizen and the splendid Exposition which he has been mainly instrumental in building and maintaining.

Arrangements for the various portions of the programme for Wagner Day are almost all perfected and from early morning until late at night there will be no waste time for idle moments. The programme is full and complete and will be interesting all through.

The big parade, which will form inside the grounds and march through the Court of Palaces, will be a sight well worth seeing and will no doubt be viewed by a multitude. At the Auditorium, at 11 o'clock, there will be the music festival, and then some speech-making. In the afternoon there will be athletic games and sports in the race track enclosure and then some excellent races. At night there will be fireworks and receptions and general merry-making. The Midway will have a big run on "Wagner's Night" and everybody will try and be present.—Charleston News and Courier of May 16th.

After 14 Years Suffering.

"I have been afflicted with sciatic rheumatism for fourteen years," says Josh Edgar, of Germantown, Cal. "I was able to be around but constantly suffered. I tried everything I could hear of and at last was told to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which I did and was immediately relieved and in a short time cured, and I am happy to say it has not since returned." Why not use this liniment and get well? It is for sale by Hood & Grantham.

Married by the Hundred.

New York—Great consternation among the members of the Jewish society at Yonkers has been the outcome of a recent ball. During the evening 100 couples went through a mock marriage ceremony. Now the rabbi who officiated is said to have declared that the couples so married are bound in the eyes of the church and, therefore in eyes of the law. The young people are at their wits' ends to decide whether they are really married. Some of those interested in the matter declare that the man who started the story did so from a selfish motive—that he has a family of eight daughters, all of whom were "married" at the ball.

Old Testament.

Those persons who object to the quoting of Old Testament books should read the New Testament with more care; for they would certainly find that the connection between the two Testaments, is like that between soul and body, vital. In the new Testament there are 290 direct quotations from the Old; 100 indirect quotations, and 120 references to incidents recorded in the Old Testament. We should not be ashamed to quote Books that Christ and his apostles quoted. The Old Testament is just as much inspired as is the New Testament. See John 5:39. These words were spoken before a line of the New Testament was written. Therefore read the Old Testament.

We will add two quotations. "The Old Testament scriptures are the foundation, the writings of the New the superstructure. Now, as the removal of a foundation destroys a building, so the separation of the Old from the New Testament, mars and ruins the revelation of God to man."

"The New Testament is the completion of the Old, and the Old Testament is the prefiguration of the New. The two, in combination form one perfect book—the Bible. The one is incomplete without the other. A knowledge of the Old is essential to a perfect understanding of the New. In the Old we find the germ; in the New we find the organism. The first is the spreading flower; the second is the ripening fruit. In the Old we find the prophecies; in the New we find their fulfillment. In the Old we see the types; in the New we see the things typified. The first is rudimentary, and deals with those facts and principles which lie at the foundation; the second shows the beauty of these principles in their complete development. In the old dispensation we trace the perfect outlines of 'coming events, casting their shadows before' them; in the New dispensation we are brought face to face with the actual events so long before prefigured. And just as in the geographical division of the old world and the new, the Eastern and Western hemispheres must first be put together before we have a perfect globe, so the Old and New Testament must be placed side by side before we have a complete Bible."—Rev. G. W. Belk.

No Loss of Time.

I have sold Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for years, and would rather be out of coffee and sugar than it. I sold five bottles of it yesterday to threshers that could go no farther, and they are at work again this morning.—R. H. PHELPS, Plymouth, Oklahoma. As will be seen by the above the threshers were able to go on with their work without losing a single day's time. You should keep a bottle of this Remedy in your home. For sale by Hood & Grantham.

Dangerous if Neglected.

Burns, cuts and other wounds often fail to heal properly if neglected and become troublesome sores, DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve prevents such consequences. Even where delay has aggravated the injury DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve effects a cure. "I had a runny sore on my leg thirty years," says H. C. Hartly, Yankeeetown, Ind. "After using many remedies, I tried DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. A few boxes healed the sore." Cures all skin diseases. Piles yield to it at once. Beware of counterfeits. Hood & Grantham.
