Now that the entire country is waking up to the great importance of knowing things and an intellectual era is close at hand, there is one factor that should not be left unheeded. Into almost every home some newspaper finds its way and the boys and girls who have begun to spell out their words, eagerly grasp the copy when it gets within the portals. They take the home paper and relish every sentence their young minds can comprehend. A news paper is not like a stale history, an unreasonable reader or a foolish primer, but it is full of live interesting matter. Tells of events that have just transpired and are happening now and the children become enthralled over the knowledge they gain from the weekly, semi-weekly or daily visits of the product of the new press. People that they know are talked of and it is but natural that the young mind will soon learn to go further into the current history as recorded by these regular issues and before long they find themselves capable of discussing questions in an intelligent manner, questions that effect the welfare of their society, politics and home. Then if newspapers are performing this function in the onward march of the literary world, they should receive the hearty support of every citizen in the community, in which they are published. We ask you, in all sincerity, is there a means of educating your boys and girls, that is in closer reach than a county newspaper? You can send them all to this school fifty two weeks in a year for the insignificant sum of $1.00. Will you allow them to grow up in total ignorance of what the outside world is doing, because you are unwilling to give them $1.00 for twelve months schooling. Think over this and act upon it.—Wadesboro Courier.

Don't Snub a Boy.
Don't snub a boy because he wears shabby clothes. When Edison the inventor, entered Boston he wore a pair of yellow linen breeches in the depth of winter.
Don't snub a boy because of the ignorance of his parents. Shakespeare, the world's poet, was the son of a man who was unable to write his own name.
Don't snub a boy because his home is plain and unpretending. Abraham Lincoln's early home was a log cabin.
Don't snub a boy because he chooses a humble trade. The author of "Pilgrim's Progress" was a tinker.
Don't snub a boy because of his physical disability. Milton was blind.—Selected.

Judge Moore's Nomination for Associate Justice.

Editor of The Citizen: The Supreme court of the State is composed of a chief justice and four associate justices, and one of the five should certainly be from the Trans-Montane section. It is only just, fair and right that this court, which has so much to do with the formation and development of our law, should be composed of men from the various sections of the State. This is so from a natural as well as a political standpoint. The welfare of the Democratic party demands that this great and rapidly developing territory, with its large white population, should be accorded representation by the Democratic State convention in its selection of men to fill the offices, for which purpose it has been called to make nominations next month. Since the organization of this court, more than 100 years ago, (see address of Mr. Battle, 103 N. C. Reports, 510, et seq.) no man has ever been selected from this section of our State for the office of associate justice and I believe that all right, fair-minded men will agree that the demand now made is not premature, or that it has not a substantial foundation. Every other section of the State has been honored by the selection of one or more of its representative men for this office. Believing that we are entitled as of right to name one of the candidates for the office of associate justice of the Supreme court this section will present, by virtually a solid delegation, to the Democratic State convention, when it meets in Greensboro next month, the name of Honorable Charles A. Moore of Asheville, for this office, and will earnestly and persistently urge his selection and nomination by the convention. Judge Moore is in all respects worthy and qualified for the high place. His character is above reproach. His loyalty and fidelity to his party is, and always has been, beyond question. Strong in mind and body upright and energetic, he is a type of the finest mountain manhood. By a life of tireless industry and perseverance he has worked himself to the very front rank in his profession, and is known by the bench and bar of the State to be well fitted and qualified to fill with honor and credit to himself and his State a seat upon the highest tribunal in the State. We ask the men of our party throughout the State to give us their aid in securing Judge Moore's nomination and in obtaining just recognition of our claim.
Respectfully,
W. T. CRAWFORD.
Waynesville, June 2, 1902.

Wanted.
WANTED—a man who is gentle and just, A man who is upright and true to his trust— Who cares more for honor than he cares for pelf, And who loves his neighbors as himself. Who's sober and earnest, and merry and gay, Who cheerfully shoulders the cares of the day; Whose principle's high, whose integrity's strong, Who'd rather do right any time than do wrong, Yet who to a sinner shows sorrow and pity. Wanted—a man—is there one in the city? Wanted—a woman—no saint, understand, But a womanly woman, who, on every hand, Sheds the luster of purity, goodness and grace, Who carries her loveliness stamped on her face; Whose wisdom's intuitive insight is deep, Who makes living sunshine where life's shadows creep; Who's poised in her little world's center; and who Is gentle, responsive and tender and true; Who sweetness and graciousness fit like a gown— Do you think I might find such a one in the town? —Chris Cross.

The reason women like the streetcar transfer system is that they can go way past the street to finish saying good-bye to so no other woman riding in the same car with them, and then work their way home again on transfers.—New York Press.

His Last Hope Realized.
(From the Sentinel, Gebo, Mont.)
In the first opening of Oklahoma to settlers in 1889, the editor of this paper was among the many seekers after fortune who made the big race one fine day in April. During his traveling about and afterwards his camping upon his claim, he encountered much bad water, which, together with the severe heat, gave him a very severe diarrhea which it seemed almost impossible to check, and along in June the case became so bad he expected to die. One day one of his neighbors brought him one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy as a last hope. A big dose was given him while he was rolling about on the ground in great agony, and in a few minutes the dose was repeated. The good effect of the medicine was soon noticed and within an hour the patient was taking his first sound sleep for a fortnight. That one little bottle worked a complete cure, and he cannot help but feel grateful. The season for bowel disorders being at hand suggests this item. For sale by Hood & Grantham.

Be Kind to Sensitive Children.
LEADS THEM ALL.
"One Minute Cough Cure beats all other medicines I ever tried for coughs, colds, croup and throat and lung troubles," says Dr. Scott Currin of Loganton, Pa. One Minute Cough Cure is the only absolutely safe cough remedy which acts immediately. Mothers everywhere testify to the good it has done their little one. Croup is so sudden in its attacks that the doctor often arrives too late. It yields at once to One Minute Cough Cure. Pleasant to take, Children like it. Sure cure for grip, bronchitis, coughs. Hood & Grantham.
There are children born into the world in these days of nervous and industrial strain and strife so highly strung, so intensely sensitive that they shrink from a sharp word as some natures would not recoil from the sting of a whip. A curt reprimand will bring the tears welling the eyes of such a child and a sob to its throat. A sensitive plant will die under rough treatment that may be given a harder plant with perfect impunity. Children are very like flowers. Some of them require more light, more warmth, more care, more consideration, more direct manifestation of affection than others do. Denied these they never attain their fullest possible development, but are often helplessly dwarfed.—Rochester Herald.

Mexican Mustang Liniment

will readily overcome Loss of Hair, Diseased Hoofs and Stratches in horses mules and cattle. Farmers try it.
A toad under a harrow suffers no more than the faithful horse that is tortured with Spavins, Swinney, Harness Sores, Sprains, etc. Most horse owners know this and apply the kind of sympathy that leads, known far and wide as Mexican Mustang Liniment.
Never fails—not even in the most aggravated cases. Cures caked udder in cows quicker than any known remedy. Hardly a disease peculiar to muscle, skin or joints that cannot be cured by it.
Mexican Mustang Liniment is the best remedy on the market for Wind Galls, Sprains and Skin Lesions. It keeps horses and mules in condition.

To County Superintendents.

I enclose a printed list of books adopted for use in the public schools by the State Text-Book Commission and of prices and exchange prices of these books. I desire to call attention to the fact that the use of these books in the public schools will be compulsory, under the law, after July 1, 1902, and that, if old books now in use are not exchanged before that time, the exchange prices, according to the contract entered into with the publishers by the State-Book Commission, can not be taken advantage of by patrons of the public schools. I wish to urge you, therefore, to send written official notice to all the teachers in your county urging them to notify all children and patrons of their schools, and to give notice to all the people of your county through your county paper urging them to take advantage of these exchange prices before July 1, 1902. If the patrons of the public schools fail to avail themselves of these low exchange prices before the beginning of the next school year, they will find themselves under the hard necessity of being compelled to buy new books at the full price, and their old books will be left as useless property on their hands. This would mean, of course, a great loss to the people of the State and a decided gain to the publishers. Any book that has been used or could have been used by any child in the public schools of North Carolina before July 1, 1902, may be exchanged for a new book of like grade upon the same subject at the price quoted. I send you under separate cover 300 copies of this letter. Send a copy to every teacher and school committeeman. Very truly yours,
J. Y. JOYNER,
Supt. of Public Instruction.
