 DUNN, N. C., Sept. 24, 1902.

Entire New Registration.

Under the election law there will be an entire new registration of voters in the State this year, and we hereby call the attention of the voters of the county to this fact.
 Every man who expects to vote at the coming election in November must re-register or he cannot vote.
 All white men over the age of 21 years unless disqualified by law, will be allowed to register and vote. Negroes and foreigners will have to be able to read and write in the English language any section of the Constitution. Any citizen who has lived in the State two years, the county six months and the township four months can register if not otherwise disqualified. All persons who vote at the coming election will be required to present their poll tax receipts for 1901, or show that the taxes have been paid for the year 1901 and that it was paid before May, 1902. This does not apply, however, to persons over 50 years of age and young men who have come of age since the date of listing the taxes of 1901.
 When registered this time, your name is put on a permanent roll and will remain there as long as you live. Be sure to register, see your neighbor and get him to register. No one will be permitted to vote unless registered. The registrations heretofore will not do. This registration is under the Constitutional amendment passed, ratified in August, 1900. The registration books will be open in each voting precinct of the county on October 2nd at 9 a. m. and close on October 25th at sunset. They will remain open from 9 o'clock until sunset each day for twenty days. The registrars will have to be at the polling places in their respective precincts on each Saturday. No person can register, except during this period of twenty days unless he becomes twenty-one years of age after the books are closed.
 W. A. STEWART,
 Chm. Dem. Ex. Com.

We see that the Republicans are bragging about the former Democrats who took part in their State Convention, and the three they advertise the most are Capt. Charles Price, of Salisbury; Capt. Bill Day, of Raleigh; and "Col." Harry Skinner, of Greenville. Not one of this trio has voted the Democratic ticket for ten years. Capt. Price and Capt. Day are the brag decoys that the Republicans used when they organized the Liberal movement. Col. Skinner holds a $1,500 job under McKinley. If these men ever had any influence to decoy Democrats into the Radical party, it was ten years ago. Now they are as well known as Radicals as Pritchard and Jim Young. And all five of them sleep together in the same political bed—Rhamkate Roaster.

A CARD.
 I desire to take this means of announcing myself as a candidate for the Senate in the 15th Senatorial District composed of Harnett, Johnston and Sampson counties. This action on my part is taken at the solicitation of a great many voters in said Senatorial District.
 Very Respectfully,
 JOHN B. HOLLAND,
 Dunn, N. C.
 Sept. 9th 1902.

Mr. D. P. Daugherty, well known throughout Mercer and Sumner counties, W. Va., most likely owes his life to the kindness of a neighbor. He was almost hopelessly afflicted with diarrhoea, was attended by two physicians, who gave little if any relief, when a neighbor learning of his serious condition brought him a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which cured him in less than twenty-four hours. For sale by Hood & Grantham.

Two Educators.
 The teacher and the editor of a paper are two of the greatest educators in the world, although they get less pay for their services than any other class of people. In fact the people think, or a great portion of them, that their services are of no value and consequently do not pay their teacher after he has diligently labored with their children, trying to learn the young ideas how to shoot. He should have the sympathy and co-operation of every citizen. This is an age of progress and if you do not wish your children to be left behind, you should send them to school and pay your teacher for he has rendered you valuable service.
 The newspaper is one of the greatest educators the world has ever known. No man in this day and time can afford to be without his paper, not for his benefit alone, but for the enlightenment of his children. If they cultivate a taste for reading while young, when they grow old they will not depart from it. The home paper is what you need. Let them read of things that they come in contact with and of persons they know and they will gradually grow into the habit of reading. But there is another question of great importance. Do not forget while you are reading, that the man who labors so faithfully to give to you the news of the world should be paid the small subscription amount. The editor, while you are asleep or at work in your place of business or on your farm is vigilant night and day and gives to you the news. The newspaper man should have the hearty support of the people, for without him the community would be at a great loss. How can you week after week or day after day read your paper and lay down at night and rest, knowing that you have not paid your subscription?
 When you want a pleasant physic try the new remedy, Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They are easy to take and pleasant in effect. Price 25 cents. Samples free at Hood & Grantham's drug store.

REDUCED RATES.

Pritchard's Record in Black and White.

Senator Pritchard wants the support of the voters of North Carolina.
 Senator Pritchard has a record.
 Senator Pritchard voted against the first bill to pension disabled Confederate soldiers in the Legislature of 1885.
 Senator Pritchard is the author of the deserter bill.
 Senator Pritchard says the Democratic administration has been extravagant.
 The voters of North Carolina do not forget. They are normal. They have memories.
 The voters of North Carolina hold very dear those old veterans of '65.
 The voters of North Carolina have pensioned them because they revered them, and at a sacrifice to themselves.
 The voters of North Carolina hold very low in the scale the deserters from the cause of the southland.
 Yet Senator Pritchard wants and asks for the support of the voters of North Carolina!
 The cheek of it! (Excuse the slang; it is so expressive at times) It is like unto that of a brass monkey. What a gall the man has! What a cheerful nerve!
 The man who voted against the first bill to pension disabled Confederate soldiers actually fathers the bill to pension the deserters. Consistency, where is thy blush? Comment is unnecessary. It would be a relief to cuss.
 The man who wants to spend $140,000,000 pensioning union soldiers and deserters refuses one cent to the decrepid heroes who struggled through hunger, cold, want, disease and wounds out of pure devotion to cause and country.
 And not only did he not want to give a helping hand to the old comrades tottering to the grave, and not only does he want to pension deserters, but he turns around, too, and calls the Democrats extravagant.
 That record of Pritchard's is no matter of hearsay. It is down in black and white, and this reporter has seen it and reproduces it as follows:
 The House Journal for the seventeenth day of the session of 1885, Friday, January 23, records that upon the question of the adoption of the amendment of Mr. Thompson to stand as section 2 of the bill, Mr. Busbee demanded the ayes and noes. In the vote that followed Mr. Pritchard's name does not appear. The Journal says that after the announcement of the vote:
 "Mr. Lockett has leave of the house to explain his vote; he asked to be excused from voting and the house refuses to be excused him. The members of the minority who abstained from voting under the call for the ayes and noes are required on a call by the house to vote as they are called; on motion of Mr. Glenn, the doors of the hall are closed by the door-keeper to prevent withdrawals from the hall to avoid the act of voting."
 The News and Observer of Saturday, January 25th, 1885, in its report of the house proceedings of the previous day, says in reference to this vote:
 "At the conclusion of the roll-call and before the vote was announced, Mr. Overman called the attention of the House to the fact that there seemed to be some dodging on the part of the Republican members, and they were then allowed to vote, which they did, many of them trying their utmost not to vote."
 According to the Journal, the bill is taken up again on Friday January 30th, and is passed on its second reading, the vote being 86 to 13. Among the thirteen noes occurs the name "Pritchard."
 On Tuesday, February 3rd, the bill came up on its third reading. The ayes and noes were called by Mr. Henderson, and the name of Pritchard again appears in the list of noes. It is recorded that he explained his vote.
 Senator Pritchard, with the other Republicans, seemed to have tried to dodge the vote, until he saw it was no use.
 And the door-keeper had to be called upon to close the doors to keep the dodgers from escaping.
 How nice it would be for some politicians, if there were no records. But there they are. There is no escaping them. They are deadly some times.—
