Wannally's & Lowrey's Chocolate & Bon-Bon.
Packages from 10 cents to $3.00. Fresh stock. Hood & Grantham, Druggists.

The Wade Hardware Company.
—Good milk cow and calf for sale. D. M. Hamilton.
—Messrs. Hood & Grantham have an ad this week that every one should read.

—Miss Florence Holder will have her millinery opening Friday evening from 4 to 10. All invited.
—We are glad to see our clever agent, Mr. J. L. Southall, out again after a few days illness.

—Mr. Frank Sneed has accepted a position with Brewer & Co., where he will be glad to see his many friends.
—Mr. R. E. L. Skinner will open up a drug store in the brick building of Mr. K. L. Howard in the near future.

—Be sure you read the ad of Shell's Millinery Bazaar this week. He has something that will interest you.
—Brewer & Co., the up-to-date merchants, are telling their customers where to get goods at greatly reduced prices in this issue.

—Don't forget that Hon. Rudolph Duty will speak at Dunn next Saturday, Oct. 4th. All are cordially invited to hear him.
—The "One Price Clothier," Mr. W. S. Jackson, who has just opened up a well selected stock of men's furnishings, has an ad in this issue.

—INTERESTING TO THE CORE and bristling with novelty are the holiday attractions we will offer to our trade this season. Hood & Grantham.
—Mrs. J. H. Pope has moved her millinery establishment from the Lee building to one of the new brick stores next to C. L. Wilson's drug store.

—Salesmen wanted to look after our interests in Harnett and adjacent counties. Salary or commission. Address Lincoln Oil Co., Cleveland, Ohio.
—In this issue you will find and ad of C. L. Wilson, druggist. He will soon be in his new store where he will be glad to see his customers.

—Rev. B. R. Hall, presiding elder for this district, preached two of the most interesting and beneficial sermons Sunday that it has been pleasure to listen to in so long time.
—Our readers will notice from our advertising columns this week that our merchants have well selected stocks of goods. It will pay you to look at their ads before coming to town.

—B. Fleshman & Bro. will close their store Wednesday evening at 6 o'clock and open again on Friday at 6 o'clock, on account of New Year's holiday. It will be observed by the Jews all over the country.
—Hood & Grantham has just made a contract with a Florida orange grower for the largest quantity of oranges ever shipped to Dunn. They will be able to supply all local trade at a very low wholesale price.

—There will be no services at the Disciples church next Sunday on account of the pastor Rev. J. J. Harper, having to fill an appointment at another church. Commencing with November he will preach here regularly, at least one Sunday in the month.
—Mr. J. A. Duke, who has had charge of the Cary Lumber Co.'s plant here for some time, has resigned and is now engaged in the saw mill business for himself. Mr. Wilkinson has taken his place. We gladly welcome him to our town.

Reaping the Harvest.

A Pretty Drama Presented at the Opera House Last Night.

Despite the inclemency of the weather, "Reaping the Harvest" was greeted by the second largest audience that has attended a theatrical production here this year. The reputation of this beautiful drama sufficed in drawing a select and appreciative audience. The drama is exceedingly cleverly written and is full of action. There is no undue importance attached to any character and no monopoly of action on the part of any member of the caste, nor is there a weak member in the company. Sparkling wit, comical situations and pathsos are all so blended that the intensest interest of the auditor is aroused. Reaping the Harvest is decidedly the best of Manager Marsh's offerings to the theatre going public this season and it is to be hoped that it will make a return date.
The company left this morning for Winston where they appear tonight.—Salisbury Sun, 27th.

For spectacles see J. W. Jordan.

—Mr. Louie Nolley, who has held a position in Wilson for some time with Walls & Co., tailors, will move to Dunn in the near future and open up a pressing and tailoring establishment. This is something that we have needed for some time.

—Hon. H. L. Godwin will speak at the following places this week: Owensville, Wednesday, Oct. 1st; Honeycutt's Musterground, Thursday, Oct. 2nd; Beamon's Cross Roads, Friday Oct. 3rd; Mingo Lodge, Saturday Oct. 4th. Mr. Godwin is an able speaker and every one should hear him.

—Mr. O. P. Shell informs us that his store will be pushed to completion. He already has several applications to rent it. It will have a basement 18x22 feet that will be used for a barber shop. There will be a nice iron front to the store with plate glass doors and windows. The up stairs will have three rooms in the front and an elegant Odd Fellows hall will be in the rear of the building. The hall will be 50x20 feet.
Call on J. W. Jordan for silver tableware.

—We have added to our tailor business a line of man-tailored ladies skirts; over three hundred styles to select from—$5 to $25—made to measure. We hope to have the pleasure of showing all the ladies this line. T. C. Young & Co.
To Cure a Cold in One Day.
Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E. W. Grove's signature is on each box, 25c.

Our prices on buggy and wagon harness are very catchy. The price makes it. Wade Hwd Co.
—Children's hose—The 10 cent kind—sizes 5 1/2 to 7 4 pair for 25c, 7 1/2 to 9 1/2 pair for 25c. See them. T. C. Young & Co.

Insurance.
I am representing an old line company, The Germania Life, of New York. I will be glad to show you my policy.
Yours,
G. L. CANNADY.

—Why not use Ballard's Obelisk Flour? Same price as other patents and, oh! so much better. T. C. Young & Co.,
Guns! Guns! Wade Hardware Co.
—Nobby styles, in hats at Young's.
Lap robes for winter just arrived. Be sure to see them before buying. Wade Hwd. Co.
