Mr. J. F. Jackson Dead.

Tuesday evening at 6:30 p.m. the Death Angel visited our own again and bore the soul of Mr. J. F. Jackson to its last resting place. He had not been sick but little over a week when the summons came. His death was quite a shock to the town and community, although it was seen some time before his death that he was fast nearing the end.

Mr. Jackson moved to Dunn about three years ago and was assistant teacher in the Dunn High School. After the close of the school he accepted a position with Mr. J. D. Barnes, where he has been up to the time he was taken sick.

He was a man held in the highest esteem and one whom every body had implicit confidence in. He was a devout member of the Free Will Baptist church, always bowing in humble submission to the will of his Heavenly Father. His life was such that every one who came in contact with him felt his Christian influence. He will be greatly missed in this community.

His remains will be interred in Greenwood cemetery this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

He leaves a wife and two children to mourn his death. We extend to them our heartfelt sympathy.

We will give a fuller account in next issue, time forbids it in this issue.

Spout Spring Clippings.

We have had some of the heaviest fogs for the past few days that we ever remember of seeing, also quite a lot of cloudy weather, but very little rain.

Old cows and yearlings are having a hard time in this community now, the people seem to be beef hungry.

It seems that this corner of old Harnett is coming out of the kinks these times. We have two saw mills and a planing mill, near here, that ship lumber from this place.

We hear some talk of Mr. D. Godfrey, of this city, going into business at Lillington, but we don't know how this will pan out yet, but if he does leave this place, we know that he will be missed very much by the people of this section.

We note that Mr. Henry A. Morrison, of Johnsonville, has had a brickmason and a carpenter at work on his home for the past few days. We are glad to see such improvements going on.

Christmas will soon be here, and we children had better pick out stockings that haven't any large holes in them, in order that we may be prepared to hold on to that which is good.

Mr. Robert C. Belden, a very old citizen of Harnett county, and one who was very highly respected by all who knew him, has recently sold all the property owned by him in this county, and gone to Ellicott City, Md., to spend the remaining days of his life with his niece, Miss Lillie Gilliam, of that city. Mr. Belden has been a very prominent man in the affairs of Harnett county for quite a number of years, and no doubt there are a good many BANNER readers who feel an interest in him. He has recently lost his wife, and being about 92 or 93 years old, himself, he was obliged to have some one to look after him, and take care of him in his old age. Some time ago, Mr. Belden commenced writing a history of Harnett county, but we understand he did not complete it. We hope, however, that he will complete it and send some of his old friends in Harnett a copy of it.

Wishing the readers of THE BANNER much happiness, and great success, we remain yours very truly,
WHALEM.

O. P. Shell for Engrossing Clerk

We clip the following short paragraph from the Morning Post of Sunday, which endorses Mr. Shell for Engrossing Clerk of the next Senate. He is well qualified in every respect, and we feel quite confident that the Senate will make no mistake in electing him. It reads:

To the Editor: It affords me great pleasure to commend to the favorable consideration of the members of our next State Senate the candidacy of Mr. O. P. Shell, of Dunn, for the office of Engrossing clerk. Mr. Shell is a sterling Democrat and his services to our party in the past campaigns have been of great value. He is worthy in every respect and eminently qualified to fill the duties of the office with credit to himself and in an acceptable manner to the Senate. I present him to the Democratic caucus and ask the support and influence of each Senator in electing Mr. Shell to this responsible position.

Yours truly,
H. L. GODWIN.
