

An Act To Restrict The Receipt And Use of Intoxicating Liquors.

The General Assembly of North Carolina Do Enact:

Section 1. That it shall be unlawful for any person, firm, or corporation, or agent, officer or any employee thereof, to ship, transport, carry or deliver, in any manner, or by any means whatever, for hire or otherwise, in any one package or at any one time from a point within or without this State to any person, firm, or corporation in this State any spirituous or vinous liquors or intoxicating bitters in a quantity greater than one quart, or any malt liquors in a quantity greater than five gallons; and it shall be unlawful for any spirituous or vinous liquors or intoxicating bitters so shipped, transported, carried or delivered in any one package to be contained in more than one receptacle.

Section 2. That it shall be unlawful for any person, firm, or corporation at any one time or in any one package to receive at a point within the State of North Carolina for his or her use or for the use of any other person, firm, or corporation, or for any purpose, any spirituous or vinous liquors or intoxicating bitters in any quantity greater than one quart or any malt liquors in a quantity greater than five gallons.

Section 3. That it shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation, during the space of fifteen consecutive days to receive any spirituous or vinous liquors or intoxicating bitters in a quantity or quantities totaling more than one quart, or any malt liquors in a quantity greater than five gallons; provided that—the provisions of sections one, two and three shall not apply to the receipt of a common carrier for transportation to a point in another state, where the delivery is not forbidden by the laws of such state.

Section 4. The words "malt liquors" as used in this act shall be construed to include only such malt liquors as contain not to exceed five per centum of alcohol and malt liquors containing more than five per centum of alcohol shall be held to be spirituous liquors within the meaning of this act.

Section 5. That it shall be unlawful for any person to order in a fictitious name or in the name of another any spirituous or vinous or malt liquors or intoxicating bitters or to receive for himself any spirituous or vinous liquors or intoxicating bitters so ordered or shipped.

Section 6. That it shall be unlawful for any person to allow or in any way permit the use of his name in the ordering for another or the delivery to another of any spirituous or vinous or malt liquors or intoxicating bitters.

Section 7. That it shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to serve with meals, or otherwise, any spirituous, vinous, fermented or malt liquors or intoxicating bitters where any charge is made for such meal or service.

Section 8. That all laws authorizing or allowing the sale of spirituous, vinous, or malt liquors or intoxicating bitters by any medical depository, druggist or pharmacist be and the same are hereby repealed, and it shall be unlawful for and medical depository, druggist or pharmacist to sell or otherwise dispose of for gain and spirituous, vinous, fermented or malt liquors or intoxicating bitters: PROVIDED, that any medical depository now authorized by law shall be allowed to dispose of any liquors on hand at the time this act goes into effect by selling and shipping the same to any person, firm or corporation in any State other than North Carolina, where such sale would not be illegal.

Section 9. That the provisions of this act shall not apply to grain alcohol received by duly licensed physicians, druggists, dental surgeons, college, university and state laboratories, and manufacturers of medicine, when intended to be used in compounding, mixing, or preserving medicines or medical preparations, or for surgical purposes, when obtained as hereinafter provided: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, that nothing contained in this act shall prohibit the importation into the State of North Carolina and the delivery and possession in said State for use in industry, manufacture, and arts of any denatured alcohol of other denatured spirits, which are compounded and made in accordance with the formulae prescribed by acts of Congress of the United States and regulations made under authority thereof by the Treasury Department of said United States, and the Commissioner of Internal Revenue thereof, and which are not now subject to internal revenue tax levied by the Government of the said United States: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That this act shall not apply to wines and liquors required and used by hospitals and sanatoria bona fide established and maintained for the treatment of patients addicted to the use of liquor, morphine, opium, cocaine, or other deleterious drugs, when the same are administered to patients actually in such hospitals or sanatoria for treatment, and when the same are administered as an essential part of the particular system or method of treatment and exclusively by or under the direction of a duly licensed and registered physician of good moral character and standing.

Section 10. That manufacturers of medicine, duly licensed physicians, hospitals, dental surgeons, college, university and state laboratories and druggists may make written application to the Clerk of the Superior Court of the county for a permit to receive by transportation by a common carrier grain alcohol intended to be used for surgical purposes and in compounding, mixing, or preserving medicine or medical preparations. Such permit shall then be granted by the clerk or his duly appointed deputy, who shall affix the seal of his office thereto, and said permit shall contain the name of the applicant to whom the shipment is to be delivered, the place from which the shipment is to be made, the amount to be shipped, and the date of granting the permit. The said permit shall be executed in duplicate. The original shall be delivered to the applicant to be sent by him to the shipper to be pasted on the outside of the package containing alcohol.

Section 11. That a permit, issued as above, when attached to and plainly affixed in a conspicuous place to a package or parcel containing grain alcohol transported within this state shall authorize any common carrier within the State to transport the package or parcel to which such permit is attached or affixed containing only the alcohol mentioned in said permit, and to deliver the same to the person, firm or corporation to which said permit was issued.

Section 12. That the duplicate copy of said permit, together with the application therefor, as hereinbefore provided shall be filed in the office of the Clerk of the Superior Court chronologically and alphabetically with regard to the name of the applicant, and permit shall at all times be subject to the inspection of any citizen or officer of the state, county, or municipality; and for his services the Clerk of the Superior Court shall be entitled to a fee of fifty cents, to be paid by the applicant.

Section 13. That any person, firm, or corporation violating any of the provisions of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Section 14. That nothing in this act shall be construed to impair or repeal any laws prohibiting the sale of intoxicating liquors or any laws making the place of delivery the place of sale, nor shall it be construed to repeal any laws prohibiting the transportation, delivery, or receipt of intoxicating liquors in any county or counties in this state.

Section 15. That this act shall take effect on the first day of April, nineteen hundred and fifteen.

An Act to Prohibit the Manufacture and Sale of Malt, Such as is Used in the Manufacture of Spirituous Liquors.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Section 1. That it shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation, or any agent, officer or employee thereof, to manufacture or sell malt, such as is used in the manufacture of spirituous liquors, in the State of North Carolina.

Section 2. That all express companies, railroad companies, or other transportation companies, doing business in that state, are required to keep a separate record of all shipments of such malt, in which shall be entered immediately upon receipt thereof, the name of the person to whom shipped, the amount of each shipment, the date when received and the date when delivered, and by whom delivered, and to whom delivered, which record shall be open for the inspection of any officer of the state, county, municipality any time during business hours of the company.

Section 3. That any person, firm, or corporation violating any of the provisions of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Section 4. That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

Wake Forest Glee Club To Be in Edenton Apr. 1.

Last Sunday's News and Observer had the following to say about the Wake Forest Glee Club which is billed to be in Edenton April 1.

"GLEE CLUB MAKES A HIT" Louisburg Roundly Applauds Wake Forest Musicians

Louisburg Mar. 6.—In spite of the torrential rains, a good sized and thoroughly appreciative audience heard the Wake Forest Glee Club in the opera house here last night in their initial performance of this season. It was considered by many the very best entertainment that has come to this city in a long time.

Dr. Hubert M. Potest is not only the superb director of the Club, but he is himself a star of the first magnitude as a soloist, violinist, cornetist, pianist, organist, or anything else that makes a noise. He is a whole show by himself, but he is very ably assisted by twenty-five other men, each of whom is a specialist in his line.

The orchestra, consisting of eleven pieces, is par excellence. Each number on the program was liberally applauded, and the Club was very generous in its appreciation as shown by its responses.

Both classical and popular music was used, with numerous original interpretations and stunts thrown in for good measure, all of which was thoroughly enjoyed. The last number on the program, "The Grasshopper," which was a tragic cantata in several spasms, was replete with philosophy and fun and called forth many rounds of applause.

At the conclusion of the program, the Glee Club accepted the invitation of the faculty and senior class of Louisburg College to a reception given in their honor at the college. Here the Club shone with even more effluence having the greater inspiration. The audience was thoroughly sympathetic, and when "It's a Long, Long Way to Tipperary" was sung all the young ladies, including the large number of undergraduates who were allowed the privilege of the reception, but who were lined up on the stair steps and up per corridors, all chimed in and made welkin ring.

In the library delicious refreshments were served, and a most delightful social hour was spent. And thus the tie that binds Wake Forest and Louisburg Colleges together was greatly strengthened.

John Wanamaker Saves a Derelict Leaves Billy Sunday's Side to Bring a "Bar Fly" Along the Trail.

Philadelphia, Mar. 8.—Down from his seat on the platform at the tabernacle John Wanamaker slipped unnoticed into the sawdust trail and joined the host of personal workers. Billy Sunday had just finished his appeal for his hearers to accept Christ. Mr. Wanamaker had not been long away from the platform when he emerged from the throng leading by the hand a trail hitter—a man whose clothes were in tatters, whose face was stamped with the sign of a bar fly. Straight up to the evangelist he led the derelict. Sunday grasped the outcast's hand and smiled triumphantly at Mr. Wanamaker.—Ledger Dispatch.
