The revival services held at Belvidere the past week by Rev. J. A. Russell have been well attended. Some very good thoughts have been presented and if heeded would do much toward the uplift and progress in a christian way for the people in the community. Several conversions were made and a few members were added to the church. Rev. Russell is an earnest, energetic worker and has the very best interests of the people at heart. The people within his circuit should consider themselves fortunate to have such a man to minister to their spiritual needs.

Miss Mary I. White who has spent the summer at the University of North Carolina, Greensboro and Guilford college returned to her home in Belvidere Aug. 11, after having had a most profitable and pleasant vacation.

The Temperance Meeting held at Whiteville Grove Sunday afternoon was well attended in spite of the exceedingly warm weather. It was decidedly the best meeting held for some time. The program showed some variation from former ones, there being several good talks by Messrs. L. W. Norman, O. P. Parker of Hertford, and Walter White of High Point. The singing was especially good as were also the other exercises given. Nine new names were added to the membership. If each of the thousand or more members of this organization would exert their influence against the evil of intemperance it would soon be an established fact that liquor in any shape or form would no longer be brought into our State.

Mr. W. R. Hayes of Gatesville was the guest of Miss Emma L. White Sunday.

Miss Leila Lawrence of Reynoldson, spent last week end with Miss Margaret S. White.

Mr. Andrew Onley left Monday for Mars Hill College where he will enter school. We hope for him the greatest success possible in his work.
